Note from the Pastor

Requiescat in Pace R.I.P.

May they rest in peace. It has been a very long, cold and hard Winter. Much more than the snow and freezing temperatures has been the loss of so many loved ones since before Christmas. From Thanksgiving until now, little Mary Queen has had eleven funerals. Some of the deceased had lived a very full life. While we will miss them, we rejoice in their passing to the fullness of Eternal Life. But some have been taken from us way too early and too young leaving a hole in our heart that only time and grace will begin to heal. All are precious in the eyes of God.

Last Saturday at the 4:30 p.m. Mass we had a most unusual funeral. It is almost unheard of to celebrate a funeral Mass at a weekend Liturgy, yet that is exactly what we did. Last Saturday we celebrated the passing into Eternal Life of Regina Whittemore, who at the age of 90, shortly after the blizzard of 2011, closed her eyes for the last time.

Her brother-in-law, faithful 4:30 Saturday usher, Ziggy Kielbasa, called to pick her up for Mass as is his custom and found his phone call unanswered. She had already gone home to the Lord. It had been previously decided that Ziggy would bring her ashes back to Michigan to be buried next to his wife but what would he do for a service here? She was never married, she had no family except for Ziggy and... Mary Queen. Anybody who attends the 4:30 Mass would pass the lady with the babushka sitting on the right hand side of the church near the back. She was always there. She never missed. Mary Queen was her home. Somehow it was just fitting that we celebrate her passing in her home at the Mass she always attended. This was, of course, Regina's family, the family of God.

One of the most poignant and powerful passages in the Gospel is Jesus with His disciples around Him as He teaches them. Someone announces that His mother and brothers are outside waiting to get in. He turns and rhetorically asks, "Who is My mother? My brothers and sisters?" Then looking at His disciples He said, "These are My mothers and brothers and sisters. All who hear the Word of God and keep it." Wow. Jesus just made love and faith trump blood and kinship. In a culture where family ties and blood relations were everything, this was radical. And it still is.

Many years ago when I pastored the little parish of St. Teresa in Kankakee, it was the most catholic (universal) church I've ever shepherded. When Jimmy Breslin made his famous statement that when you say Catholic you mean,

"here comes everybody," he was talking about St. Teresa. We were white, black, Hispanic, rich, poor, military, pacifist, Republican and Democrat and... really got along. That was because there was a real sense that we together made up the organic Body of Christ. We had a huge number of undocumented immigrants and most of the judges, lawyers and doctors in town. Now that's catholic.

Because Kankakee is, as once described, a small urban area in the sea of corn, everybody knew everybody else's business. It was published every day in the Kankakee Daily Journal. One little article caught the eye of a number of our parishioners. A young man had wandered up from Mexico obviously looking for work. Whatever his history, he must have become despondent because he was found hanging from a tree. End of article. Nobody knew who he was. Nobody knew where he came from. He had absolutely no connections to anyone. End of story. Well, not quite.

Having read the story, a number of our parishioners got together to discuss what they might do. If he was, indeed, Mexican he was most likely Catholic. And even if he wasn't, he should get some kind of proper burial. So the community went into action. Donations were made for the burial expenses, a local Catholic funeral director, Tom Fitzpatrick, prepared the body for burial for less than cost and then the people gave him a name: Miguel Angelo, the angel Michael. He was an angel sent to our community to bring us together as the Body of Christ. He was one of our own. He was our brother.

The wake was attended by literally hundreds of people and the funeral by at least 100. It was first class. The music wonderful, the décor elegant, and the people were filled with both sorrow and joy. They were mourning the death and loss of one that they did not know yet knew intimately and they rejoiced in the realization that in Jesus Christ there is life. So we sent him back to the Christ from whence he came. End of Story, well, not quite.

And who is my mother and brother and sister? That is not a rhetorical question. It is the great question of life. To whom are we truly related? And how do we treat our relatives? It is not the end of the story because this story continues and is to be continued. It continues in how we celebrate Regina's funeral. It continues in the people of St. Teresa and Mary Queen of Heaven. It continues every time we go beyond our little parochial borders and mind sets and come to the full realization that we are truly one, and called to be one, the Body of Christ. It continues when we feed the hungry and clothe the naked and work for justice. It continues as we come to the full consciousness of what it means to be people of the Kingdom of God. It continues here and now.

In Jesus, the Head of the Body,

Jr. Tony

Fellowship

FELLOWSHIP ON FEBRUARY 20

All are invited to our next Fellowship in Barrett Hall this Sunday, February 20, immediately following the 10:30 a.m. Mass. The RCIA and Bereavement ministries are hosting this month. Coffee, tea, juice and delicious goodies will be served. Mark your calendars now and plan to attend and enjoy good food and fellowship with other parishioners and their families.

COLLECTION OF UNWANTED PRESCRIPTION DRUGS

"The Peace and Justice Committee will be collecting unwanted prescription drugs at all three masses the weekend of February 26 and 27. We will take both expired and unexpired drugs. The drugs with remaining efficacy will be given to the Medical Mission of St. Pious Catholic Church for redistribution in countries such as Bolivia, Ecuador and Haiti. Expired drugs will be dropped off at the Naperville hazardous waste disposal facility."

SIGN-UP FOR PERPETUAL ADORATION

Fourteen years ago, Visitation parish established the Perpetual Adoration Chapel of our Lady, Mother of the Eucharist, located in the convent at 799 S. York Road. According to Church guidelines, two people are to be present in the chapel at all times, a total of 336 people. There is always attrition due to illness, retirement, or schedule changes.

We are in great need of registered adorers at this time. Two years ago, we held a sign-up at MQH and received a generous response. Now we again come to the people of Mary Queen, inviting additional people to adopt an hour to spend with Jesus in the convent chapel at Visitation parish.

For available hours, please refer to the chart below. You may use the form provided in this page to sign up. Please return it in the collection no later than February 27.

ELMHURST WALK-IN MINISTRY IC FOOD PANTRY

Our food collection for the Elmhurst Walk-In Ministry/IC Food Pantry will take place the weekend of February 26/27. The cupboards are bare. There is a great need for canned fruit, vegetables, soup, prepared foods, jello, pudding, juice, pasta, spaghetti sauce, peanut butter, jelly, baking items, toilet tissue, kleenex, paper towels, laundry soap, dish soap, bar soap, cleaning supplies, etc. and any other non-perishable. Your contributions to this food drive over the past year are very much appreciated by the food pantry and the families that benefit from it. Please continue to be as generous as possible. Thank you.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY TRAINING

March 10, 2011 (Thursday)
7 pm - 8 pm in Church

As our Parish family continues to grow, so does the need to increase the number of Eucharistic Ministers. Even with our dedicated core, we could always use new members to provide Communion at the Lord's table. The "how-to's" will be explained at this training session. Teenagers from 16 years old to grandparents are welcome. If you have any questions, please contact Derrick StaRosa at (630) 291-9115; otherwise, we'll see you there.

FAITH CONNECTION COME AND SEE

Our small Christian community meets on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month except during the summer months. We do not discuss theology, nor do we pretend to be scripture scholars, but we do experience the support that comes from sharing our faith journeys.

If you were in an SCC in the past, or if you have ever wondered about what an SCC does, we invite you to "come and see" by joining our group, Faith Connection this Lent. We will be exploring the Christian life, including conversion to Christ, reconciliation, and redemption. The first meeting is on Thursday, March 10. This is a great way to explore faith sharing with just a six-week commitment. You may want to continue meeting with us after Lent. We would encourage that too! For questions, or to make a six-week commitment, please contact Rose Wilkes at 630-833-7238 or Debbie Styka at 630-941-7224.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

During the week of February 21st, Bob Krawchuk, our sales representative from Liturgical Publications will be working here at the parish office to sell new advertising for our weekly bulletin. Support from advertisers/sponsors allows the bulletin to be printed at no charge to the parish.

There are spaces available. If you are a business owner, won't you consider advertising with us? If you know of a business you would like to see represented on the bulletin, please let us know. If there are any organizations that need to recruit new members, here is your opportunity to reach many people each and every week. Or, if you would like to honor a specific charity, community cause, or a deceased loved one, here is your chance to do that and help Mary Queen of Heaven at the same time.

If you are interested, know of someone who may be, or want more information, please call Bob at the parish office (630)279-5700 during that timeframe, or at (800) 950-9952, ext 2629. His email address is bkrawchuk@4lpi.com.
