Note from the Pastor

Wondrous Days of Hope

Ever since Uncle Walt invented the concept over fifty years ago at Disneyland, everything now has to have a "theme". Weddings have themes, birthdays have themes (on my 50th birthday the theme was, but of course, The Fifties. Oh, the poodle skirts and the DA haircuts – for those who had hair.) And these days even our liturgical seasons have themes. Today we begin the first Sunday of Advent and, of course, the over arching theme is the preparation for the coming of the Christ. Within that there is a sub-theme. This year our liturgy commission has chosen the theme of "Wondrous Days of Hope."

Hope is in the middle of the cardinal virtues of Faith and Love and like any middle child, often overlooked. Love is the king, Faith is the queen and Hope... well Hope is more difficult, harder to define, nebulous, and always in the future. Hope is eager expectation that something good is coming or will happen. And it almost always excites and gives life. The old woman who places her $2 bet and watches her nag run around the track for two minutes is filled with expectation, hope and life. As the adrenaline flows she can only imagine how wonderful it will be to win. But the odds are not in her favor. Nor are they for the ultimate chump bet, the lottery. You know you are going to lose so why do you play every week? Because for the time you are waiting to see the numbers, you play in your mind how wonderful things are going to be and what you are going to do with all those riches. And then you read the numbers and, of course, you lose. Is there a safer, better bet? You betchem.

Today is the first Sunday of Advent. It is the season of high expectations and great hope. While we will commemorate and remember the birth of baby Jesus, the one we are waiting for and hoping for is the cosmic Christ whose riches of peace, prosperity, health and love are inexhaustible. In His great coming we eternally hope. But how are we to hope?

We are to hope like Mary. Growing up in a household with her parents Joachim and Anne, her aunts and uncles and cousins and all of her extended family, her life was good. But she knew there had to be something more. She heard the stories of how it was going to be when the Messiah came. He would usher in peace, prosperity and a freedom to worship their God as they wished. The young virgin was filled with Wondrous Hope. And then came the angel.

And the question. "But how is this to be since I know not man?" The angel told her. And Mary's response? The most stunning word ever spoken by a human being, "Fiat," let it be. I do not understand, it is beyond my comprehension, but I will trust. Let it be. And I will make room. There is room in my womb for love. Let it be born in me. How do we prepare for this wondrous hope that continues to sprout in our hearts? By trusting and making room. Trusting and making room. Like hope itself, this process of trust and emptiness springs eternal.

This coming Friday and Saturday we will celebrate Mary's mother, St. Anne doing just that. She too trusted in the Lord and made room for a baby who was to be Immaculately Conceived. Baby Mary was the very first of our kind conceived and born without the stain of Adam's sin. She was not subject to the original shame of our first parents and therefore was able to say her "yes" to God and to make room in her womb for the one who was and is and forever will be God's eternal "yes" to us, Jesus the Christ.

So how are we to hope this Advent? By trusting and making room. It is almost impossible to receive the new when we are filled with so much of the old. It is time to sweep our house clean of all of the old angers and resentments, hard thoughts that never leave us and even ideologies that we have been clinging to so we can make room for something new to be born in us, to create a brand new dwelling place for the Divine. We have a chance to ritually do that in a most wonderful way this coming Friday evening.

This Friday we celebrate the vigil of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. This year we have chosen to do it with two other parishes, St. Joseph in Addison and St. Charles Borromeo in Bensenville. I will be celebrating a bilingual Mass for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception at St. Charles Borromeo at 6:30 p.m. This will be followed by the "Posadas". It is a wonderful Mexican tradition where Joseph and Mary go from house to house looking for an open space, for room, for the Christ to be born. It is all about trust and making room. After being rejected from house to house they are finally welcomed in where the festivities of birth and new life begin. It will be a wonderful celebration and a marvelous opportunity to teach our children and to help them learn to trust, make room and celebrate Wondrous Hope. Come, it is the marvelous season of Advent. And hope springs eternal.

In Jesus, the Christ, for Whom Mary Made Room,

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

Senior catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests spent years working in Catholic schools, hospitals, and social-service agencies, often for little, if any, pay. Their sacrifices now leave a profound gap in retirement savings. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious supports more than 34,000 religious past age 70 in the United States. THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Saturday, the 8th of December is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

There is a Holy Day of Obligation Mass on Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m. There will also be a very special Mass on the vigil of the Feast Day, Friday December 7th at 6:30 p.m. It will be held at St. Charles Borromeo Church in Bensenville (the North side of Grand Ave. just east of York Rd.) The Feast is being celebrated by the three parishes of St. Joseph in Addison, St. Charles Borromeo in Bensenville and our own Mary Queen. There will not be Mass here on Friday evening. Instead all three parishes will celebrate Mass together followed by the "Posadas" which is a wonderful little ritual to begin making room for Jesus at Christmas. It will be a wonderful night. Do plan on attending.

CHRISTMAS FOOD COLLECTION AND CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

Our Christmas Food Drive will be held the weekend of Dec. 8 & 9 and sorting will take place on Tuesday, Dec 11. As we did on Thanksgiving we have 25 boxes to fill. We will be in need of canned fruit, vegetables, soup, prepared foods, juice, baking items, pasta, spaghetti sauce, peanut butter, jelly, cranberry sauce, goodies, paper towels, toilet paper, tissue paper, dish soap, laundry soap, cereal, etc. We would also appreciate donations of gift cards from Dominick's & Jewel so that the families can purchase meat & poultry.

The Gift Tags from the Giving Tree are due back the weekend of Dec. 8 & 9. Aside from the 25 families we have adopted for the holidays, we will also be giving gifts to the residents of the Elmhurst Extended Care Nursing Home. Please take a tag, purchase the gift and return it Christmas Wrapped by the weekend of Dec. 8 & 9. Make sure the Name on the Gift Tag is on the top of the package. The Gifts and Food will be given out on Dec. 14. Please make sure if you take a tag that the gift is under the tree by Dec. 8 & 9 so that all the people get their gifts.

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

The Mass of our Lady of Guadalupe celebrates the apparition of our Lady to Juan Diego. We will be celebrating it on December 12 at 7:00 p.m. For the past few years we have been putting on a short play re-enacting this for our parish before Mass begins. Any help offered would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Come for Benediction too! You are welcome to "adopt an hour", especially 3 p.m. Sign-up is in the back of church. Questions? Please call Kay Diggins (630-530-7214) or Rose Wilkes (630-833-7238). Our sister parish, Visitation offers adoration 24/7, and is located at 799 S. York.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING DRIVE

The St. Vincent De Paul Truck will be here the weekend of Dec 1 & 2 to accept donations of gently used clothing, dishes, utensils, small appliances, toys, and decorative items, especially for Christmas. We are especially in need of winter coats for adults and children of all ages. The truck will arrive at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday and will be in our parking lot until 1:00 p.m. on Sunday. Furniture will not be accepted. Once, again we want to thank you for helping those less fortunate and for your generous spirit of giving. JOINT PARISH COUNCIL AND COMMISSIONS MEETING DECEMBER 17 AT 7:00 PM

The Parish Council invites all commission heads and ministry leaders to a joint meeting on Monday, December 17 at 7:00 p.m. in Barrett Hall. The Parish Council will be updating the ministries on the progress of the three initiatives that have been the focus of the work the Parish has undertaken in the past year. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend.

SAVE THE DATE

On Sunday, February 3, 2013 after the 10:30 a.m. Mass, Dr. Scott Alexander from the Chicago Theological Union will be returning to Mary Queen to speak on the lives of American Muslims. The Parish Council invites all parishioners to join us to learn more about this important non-Christian religion and the experiences of many of our Muslim neighbors.

MQH GARDEN COMMITTEE

Well, now that the Christmas holidays are almost upon us, it's time to bid an official "good-bye" to another gardening season. The drought and heat made our work of beautifying the Mary Queen grounds a bit more challenging than usual, and if we didn't bankrupt the MQH kitty with large water bills, we can say we survived one of the hottest, driest summers on record. As usual, several people had their hands in the dirt assisting all the way from clean-up last March, through planting, tending on the watering brigade, weeding, and finally fall cleanup. Thank you one and all to Carol Achtien, Joseph Alonso, Renee Deboni, Chuck Dolesy, Kelly, Melissa, Katelyn and Matthew Guerra, Ed Hayes, Don Jacobsen, John Leszczynski, Gail Lewicki, Derrick StaRosa, Debbie Styka, Phylis Twardowski, Pat Vandenberg, Mary White and Norma Williamson. You could be rightfully proud as you saw the fruits of your labors over the summer growing season! We couldn't have done it without you! Our thanks, also, to all of you parishioners who took the time to appreciate and compliment on the flower display this year. Tune in for all the flower surprises lurking around the corner for 2013.

Advent Service Projects:

This year we will again be collecting new unwrapped toys for Marillac House on Chicago's West Side...not so very far from Elmhurst. There will be a "toy box" in the hall of school for donations on Wednesday, December 5 and 12 during class times. Toys for all ages are welcome...no violent toys please. Please be generous.

Our children also have the opportunity to add a global dimension to their acts of service. They will go to the "polls" to vote for the animal of their choice to be sent to a third world country. The RE children are asked to come to class with a donation of 50 cents which will be donated to Heifer International. They can then "vote" for a pig, a sheep, or a goat to be sent to a small village, which will drastically improve the quality of life of its residents. The "polls" are open on December 5 and 12. Over the years, our children have really enjoyed this project.

Please mark your calendars:

There is no RE on the following Wednesdays because of the Christmas break:
December 19, 26 and January 2.
 Classes will resume at the normal times on Wednesday, January 9, 2013.

For more information on any of the above, please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962 or email at mqhmawoods@sbcglobal.net.
