Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." — Jn 2:1-3

Note from the Pastor

Ah, sweet Ordinary Time. Or is it? Today we enter into that rest between the Activity of Christmas and the discipline of Lent. A little bit of ordinary time. Business as usual. We put on our ordinary green vestments and while it may not necessarily be easy being green, it's comfortable. Or is it? Or should it be?

There are certain events in all of our lives that have the potential for being a catalyst in changing our consciousness. And with the change of our consciousness, a change in our actions. Some of these events we've experienced as an individual or a family such as a death of a loved one. Some we experience as a community or even a nation. This coming Tuesday, the 22nd of January, we remember and recall one such event. It has called and will continue to call millions to a change of consciousness and many to a call for action. The event? The Supreme Court's decision legalizing abortion.

A few days from now there will be the annual march on Washington. With apostolic zeal, Catholics, Evangelicals and Muslims (strange bedfellows all) will form a coalition to combat what is seen as the taking away of the ultimate basic human right... the right to life. They are right to march. Not that Roe v. Wade is going to be overturned anytime soon (and if it were, the states would reinstate it) but to remind us of the sanctity of all life. It's a good reminder.

In a perfect world, no mother would dream of aborting the child in her womb. We live in a less than perfect world. Even the most ardent pro-choice person has to realize that the taking of any human life is always a tragedy. No one goes into an abortion clinic with a smile on their face. No, the vast majority go in because they are afraid and don't know where else to turn. They see no other alternative. Our work is to give them one.

Truth be told, if abortion were made illegal tomorrow, it would not stop abortions. It never has, and I am not sure if it ever will. But our work is to make it rare. Using abortion for birth control is absolutely unacceptable. How do we change that? How do we make adoption an easier choice for a young woman to make? And if a mother decides to bring her child to term, how can we assure her that we will help her take care of this child? We speak a lot about the sacredness of life before birth, how about after? It seems that right now the political mood is to take away whatever resources and safety nets we have for the poor and redistribute them as tax breaks for those who don't need them. Is there something more we can do?

While the great debate about the sacredness of life will continue, we find ourselves in another great debate about how to best take care of those who are already alive... especially our children. Sandy Hook was one of those national events that have shaken our country to the core. In comparison to other civilized first world countries, we look like barbarians. We have killed and murdered more of our own through gun violence than all other first world countries combined. There is something wrong with this picture. So what do we do? Outlaw all guns? That will happen when abortion stops. In other words, it is not going to happen. Just as there will be no universal, philosophical perfect solution to end abortion, neither will there be one to end gun violence. There is no perfect solution. As a matter of fact, as Voltaire has told us so accurately, "The enemy of the good is the perfect." The perfect doesn't exist (outside of God). But the good? There are so many good things we can and must do.

The first thing we need to do is to get our head out of the clouds. There is no perfect solution, no silver bullet. But we don't need never-ending magazine clips, we don't need armor piercing bullets, we don't need military assault weapons, and we don't need a culture that continually glorifies violence. There are concrete things we can and must do. And we in the Catholic Church should do it with the same zeal that we have for the right to life movement because this is a right to life issue. And at a time when everyone is calling for cut-backs in mental health we need to get our heads out of the clouds and into reality. According to Fr. Greg Boyle who works with gang members in Los Angeles, "The elephant in the room is mental health, which is something I see more and more with the gang population with whom I work... the largest mental health facility in the world is the Los Angeles County jail."

These events in our nation's life have spoken. It is time to respond. First steps will do.

In Jesus, the Way,

CHRIST RENEWS HIS PARISH SIGN-UP NOW! GIVE YOURSELF THE GIFT OF LAUGHTER

Men – February 9-10, 2013
Women – February 23-24

Sign-up for the Christ Renews His Parish weekend. Give yourself a gift of leaving the outside world behind for 30 hours.

Testimony:

When I made my weekend I barely knew some of the women that were participants with me. Others I only thought I knew. By the end of the weekend the some I thought I knew held great surprises for me and the other participants were no longer strangers they were friends. But the most surprising thing is the amount of side splitting laughter we experienced together during the weekend. Nothing brings Jesus to me more than laughter and we had plenty of that plus more on my CRHP weekend.

Need a break? Need some spiritual renewal? Need some great laughs? Sign up for CRHP now. Questions - call Gregg Olalde at (312) 961-9442 or Donna Glick at (630) 303-1922.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

January 13-19, 2013

In this Year of Faith, what better time to focus our attention on Vocations. Vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life of brothers and sisters are essential in the Church's mission of spreading the joy and love of Jesus Christ. This year we have Seminarian Cards to help us think about vocations to the priesthood.

There are 31 Seminarians this year in the Joliet Diocese. Each one has his own card which looks like a baseball card – stats and all. We will be distributing these after all the Masses on January 19 and 20. The RE classes will also be receiving them. Please take them home and place them where all will see the card every day to remind you to pray for this particular man who is discerning his call from the Lord. Please don't forget to pray for others who are discerning their call to the diaconate, consecrated life or single life.

LETTER SENT TO HEIFER INTERNATIONAL

January 15, 2013

Greetings,

Enclosed is a check for $1,261.65 that I am most pleased to send to Heifer International. This money was collected by our Religious Education students and our Parish preschool children. The money is a combination of our annual Advent Project and the money that the children put in their weekly Parish donation envelopes.

For the Advent Project, the children get to vote for a pig, a sheep, or a goat to send to Heifer. The children donate 50 cents for each vote. We have been doing this project for many years and the children love it. We have a voting booth and ballots, election judges, the whole nine yards. For some reason, the pig always wins.

This year, Father Tony Taschetta, our pastor, earmarked the children's weekly offering envelopes that they drop in the basket at Mass to be sent to Heifer. There are approximately 550 children in both the Religious Education program and the Parish Preschool. This Advent they not only donated to Heifer, but collected hundreds of toys to be sent to one of the Chicago area community centers. We are very proud of our children.

Since the children's choice was the pig, we are asking that our donation go toward purchasing two pigs. We would also like to purchase two cows. It is our hope that they will be sent to a village in the world that will reap their benefits for many years.

Thank you for all that Heifer does to spread peace and comfort to the world.

God Bless You,

Mary Ann Woods, Director of Religious Education,

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE BISHOP Latin America

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Only individuals blessed by the projects funded by the Collection for the Church in Latin America can adequately explain the true value of each dollar that has been provided by your generous support of this Collection. One such person, Jainae-Sao Leopoldo, says:

I have lived moments of profound emotion, things that have to do with the heart, coming from moments of sharing, but especially coming from an intimate relationship with Jesus Christ that does not stop growing. I have started to pray and to remember more the youth, the poor, and the discriminated, people for whom I have a dear love and special vocation.

Jainae is one of 120 young participants of project Neotefilo from "Instituto de Pastoral de Juventude." This project, funded by the Collection for the Church in Latin America, took place in the Brazilian parish of Nossa Senhora de Nazare. It helps young participants deepen their understanding of the Bible, liturgy, and spirituality. These young people face poverty and unemployment due to a short supply of jobs. This and other projects in the parish provide 25,000 young people the tools they need to grow both in their relationship with Christ and professionally.

Last year our diocese donated $235,053.59. Please be generous in the Collection for the Church in Latin America and encourage the youth to live faith. Your support will truly make a difference.

God bless you,

Most Reverend R. Daniel Colon
Bishop of Joliet

THE 2013 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

"THE LORD SUSTAINS HIS PEOPLE"

This year, the theme of the Appeal is "The Lord Sustains His People." The Lord sustains each of us in many ways. His life, death and resurrection were all gifts to each of us. He gives us all that we have. He gave us our Church. That Church, through our parish, our diocese, and throughout the world, offers us not only spiritual but many other forms of sustenance. God never forgets us. Even when we believe that our successes are self-made, it is His love that sustains each of us. He is always giving to us. His grace is always there for us. One way that we can show our gratitude is by offering our generous financial support to our parish and to our diocese and to the Church throughout the world. The gifts we give enable ministries, education, and services that touch thousands of lives. You will hear more about the Annual Appeal in the coming weeks. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

YEAR OF FAITH JANUARY REFLECTION

The Holy Spirit, Giver of Life

Ponder this from the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "The Holy Spirit is 'the principle of very vital and truly saving action in each part of the Body.' He works in many ways to build up the whole Body in charity:...he makes the faithful 'fit and ready to undertake various tasks and offices for the renewal and building up of the Church'." (CCC 798)

Prayers/Read: In Isaiah 11: 2-3 the gifts of the Holy Spirit are identified as wisdom, understanding, counsel, strength, knowledge, right judgment and fear (awe) of the LORD. These gifts, received in Confirmation, help us to share our faith with others.

Discuss: Name a person you believe shows one of these gifts and shares his/her faith with others. Which gift are you most in need of in your life right now?

Action: Since the Holy Spirit sustains life in us and in all of creation, here are some ways to support life. Pray for respect for life from the beginning to its natural end. Check out www.hopeafterabortion.com, spend some time helping out a pregnant woman with house work or child care, continue to recycle and "go green" in an effort to protect God's creation.
