Note from the Pastor

Happy New Year! Today we begin the Chinese New Year and enter into the year of the snake. Snakes are compassionate, romantic, intuitive, determined, deep thinking and hate to be interrupted (needless to say, I'm not a snake). That's the Chinese tradition. In the Judeo-Christian tradition, snakes are cunning, deceitful, crawl on their bellies and eat the dirt of the earth. There's nothing worse than to be a snake in the grass. You never saw it coming.

So, which is it? Good guy or bad guy? We have such an archetypal aversion toward them that we want so shout, "Bad!" But are they really? One of the most enlightening assemblies I ever had in high school was one called, "Snakes are our friends." The speaker showed us that snakes, like bats are marvelous for the balance of nature and the ecology of our world. No need to run away from them. Oh, really?

And the lesson learned? One of the great lessons of life: Life is not either/or but both/and. We tend to divide life into the good and the bad, the white and the black, the acceptable and non-acceptable. Whenever we do this, we deny one-half of reality. And this Wednesday we enter into our great Season of Reality. Lent. The Good and the Bad of it.

This Wednesday, our church will be packed to the gills with people coming to affirm their mortality. Ashes will be put on their foreheads and they will hear the words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." The message: Life is short, very short. And we are mortal. So what are you going to do about it? Get ready for death. Repent and believe the Good News. Why? So that when we die we won't go to hell? That is the dark side of the message. That's the snake in the grass.

But snakes are our friends. In the great ecology of life they devour the varmints that cause disease and keep us from fully living. And so the Light side of Lent. We don't do our Lenten practices to simply beat ourselves up and do penance for our sins, so we won't go to hell. No, we discipline the body and spirit and soul so as to make room for the Light and Life of the Divine.

The theme for this year's Lent is "Seek God in All Things." It's a good theme. If we seek God in the skies, we will find Him there. But we are also able to seek Him in the depths of despair and failure. As the psalmist says, "If I climb up to the heavens, You are there; if I sink to the netherworld, You are there as well." This is not the Season to seek perfection. It is the Season to seek God. And we will find Him everywhere. It was the serpent who deceived Adam and Eve to think that they could be in control of their lives. But it was also the serpent that Moses hung up on the staff that healed the people of their disease. This is the year of the snake, both good and bad. And in the midst of the both, we seek God where He is to be found: in all things, all seasons, all peoples.

In Jesus, Who Became Sin and Death
So that We Might Have Life,

Fr. Tony

LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.
2. Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 years of age is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
3. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.
4. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

THE 2013 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

“THE LORD SUSTAINS HIS PEOPLE”

Bishop Conlon's mailing, asking for a pledge to the 2013 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal, arrived in many of our parish households in early January. This Appeal is conducted at every parish in our seven-county diocese. The funds contributed help people in our parish and throughout our diocese. It is very important to ensure that the Diocese of Joliet has the funds necessary to do God's work.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is “The Lord Sustains His People.” God constantly gives to us. His grace is ever present. His blessings are abundant. We can demonstrate our gratitude to God and help build the kingdom of God in our own parish and our own diocese by making a generous gift to the CMAA.

In addition to helping those in need, the Appeal funds the operations of the diocese and services that are of great help to the ministries here in our parish.

If you have already made your pledge or contribution, thank you.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE BISHOP Restoring the Church Building the Future Support the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon, our diocese will take up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This Collection supports essential unmet pastoral needs in Central and Eastern Europe and areas of Central Asia formerly under Soviet control. Our assistance is vital to the growth and strength of the Church in these regions.

Less than 100 years ago, the country of Slovenia did not exist on any map. As a new country, it fell to the harsh rule of Communism and state-sponsored atheism, from which its people suffered for many decades. Today, with help from the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, the city of Ljubljana is home to Project Bethlehem, a safe, low-cost housing center where young women are able to live while they attend university. The Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco run the center and provide programs for Catholic formation, personal growth, and leadership, all based on Church teachings.

In Romania, the Archdiocese of Bucharest is able to educate over 38 seminarians at the inter-diocesan seminary of Iasi with support from the Collection. Romanian Catholics no longer live in the shadows and worship in secret. Instead they are looking toward a brighter future of the Church after 70 years of Soviet rule. For them, the Collection has encouraged the seminarians to be a beacon of hope for the faithful in the region.

Our diocese will take up this collection on Ash Wednesday, February 13. Please be generous in the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, where your gifts are restoring the Church and building the future. Last year, our diocese donated $75,728.41. Thank you.

God bless you.

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet
