Note from the Pastor

I Love a Parade

Today is Palm Sunday. Let the parade begin! Oh, we may call it a procession but it really is a parade. And I love a parade (there's a song there somewhere).

From the time I was a little boy I have been parading around: first in a bath towel cape around the house, then on skates around the block and for my first official parade as a fourth grader on a red, white and blue decorated bicycle for the 4th of July, 1955.

What is it about a parade that attracts us so? Two weeks ago the city of Elmhurst had its official St. Patrick's Day parade and as a community we celebrated one of our vibrant, ethnic groups, the Irish. And on St. Patty's day, everyone's a little Irish. I remember sneaking into the St. Patrick's Day parade in Chicago when I was a young man to march along with the Irish Temperance League (I must confess I was young, foolish and had been drinking a little right before I entered the parade). We march for a thousand reasons. We march to remember, we march to celebrate, to call attention to, and for change.

From the time I was in 7th grade all through high school and even a few years into college, I never stopped marching. I had to. I was the drum major of the bands. For ten years I led the Wheaton Junior High School, Wheaton Community High School and, finally the Wheaton Municipal Band on parade. With baton in hand and whistle in mouth, we marched. My favorite was a march to remember, the annual Memorial Day parade in front of the Wheaton Municipal Band. With middle aged potbellies and balding heads they were not the sleekest marching unit in the land, but boy could they play. Sousa never sounded so good.

I also marched for change and sometimes even to protest. As a young priest with collar on I remember marching down State Street to protest the Vietnam War that by 1971 was obviously a mistake. I also remember to my shame that I didn't march and I wasn't there when these young soldiers, my peers, came back from Vietnam, many of them beaten and broken. By the time the Gulf War ended I had grown up a bit and remember going with my mother back to the city to wave my little American flag in thanksgiving for the returning young warriors who so valiantly fought in that war. That was a true parade of gratefulness.

And so we march on. I have paraded and marched to celebrate, marched three different times with my parishioners for immigration reform, marched to say thank you and just marched for the fun of it. Today we march again.

Today we join the great parade of humanity marching toward the New Jerusalem. Today we follow not the drum major but the King of Hearts riding on the foal of an ass. Today we come not just to celebrate or say thank you, or even to make a political statement but to simply follow the leader to where he is taking us. Today we begin the great parade into the darkness of death that leads to life. It is like no other parade in the world. It is one we are called not to just watch but to participate in. Today we enter into the valley of tears daring to believe that we shall come out victorious with the fullness of life.

So, now, pick up your palms, wave them in the air, sing your Hosanna's, the great parade of life is about to begin.

In Jesus, Our Major Domo,

First Impressions

It has been said that first impressions are not always the correct impressions but they are the lasting ones. My hunch is my first impression of our new Holy Father, Pope Francis, will last me a lifetime. When I saw him and heard him for the first time it was deja vu all over again.

In manner, in posture and in his relaxed countenance he was good Pope John XXIII reincarnated. And even if he wasn't comfortable in his fancy white robes, he seemed to be very comfortable in his new skin. With his ready smile and easy manner he looked like a man who had nothing to lose because he was going nowhere. Here he was at the top of the Church's hierarchy and he appeared to be very unimpressed with himself. His body language spoke loud and clear, "What you see is what you get."

And what are we getting? A man who chose the name Francis after the most Christ-like man who ever lived, the champion of the poor and suffering. In one fell swoop the shoes of the Fisherman went from Prada to Payless and the entire Church moved from her head to her heart. Seeing him and hearing him spoke to my heart as a possibility for a new beginning, a new reformation. St. Francis was told to rebuild Christ's Church and I believe our new Holy Father has the same marching orders. Rebuild the Church not in stone, structure or hierarchy but in mercy, compassion and love.

The great theologian Karl Barth once warned that you are never to say, "Come Holy Ghost," unless you mean it. I pray the Cardinals in the conclave meant it and that the Spirit is visiting us. We shall see.

Actually so far, so good. His first sermon was on God's never ending mercy and we should never tire of asking for it. And in the Spirit of St. Francis he spoke on our relationship to all of God's creation, which, he added parenthetically, we are not taking very good care of. (I even think he wasn't afraid to end the sentence with a preposition.) As long as the propositions are right. And God's proposition for the poor in all of the Gospels is paramount.

During the last presidential election we waited for and longed for someone to say something on behalf of the poor in this country and the world. We waited in vain. And now they seem to have found a voice. And that's pretty impressive.

First Impressions? I'm impressed (now if he will only name a few female Cardinals we'll be on our way) j.k., j.k., -- (sort of).

BLESSINGS FOR BOLIVIA

The Diocese of Joliet will leave again for a mission trip to Sucre, Bolivia on April 6. I am asking for your help with erasers, pencils, children's chewable vitamins (no gummies). I also ask for new children's underwear in the package. This is something that is almost non-existent in the poorest of countries. A basket will be in the back of church. Now I ask for the most important gift you can give and share with our mission; your prayers! If you have any questions, please call Judy at (630) 258-5577.

MQH EASTER EGG HUNT MARCH 30, 2013

The Easter Egg Hunt will be held at 11:30 a.m. after the blessing of the baskets. This year it will be inside the school and kids up to 7 years old can participate. We will split the egg hunt into three rooms according to age group: 2-3yr olds, 4-5yr olds, and 6-7yr olds. Each room will have an egg with a golden coin in it. Whoever finds the coin will win an Easter basket.

We will also have a visit from the Easter Bunny... so parents bring your cameras.

For more information, please contact Norma Williamson at (630) 215-8611 or email her at: njvdesigns@yahoo.com.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

What draws us to adoration? It is humility of heart, the humility that says, "I need God. I am a creature and He is my Creator. I do not have to be in charge. I do not even have to use my talents to make this adoration a 'success'." Our task is simply to be docile, to receive, to respond, to come before Him, to rest in the silence of His presence. He will do the rest. He will sanctify us.

Come and spend some time with Him during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration, April 1 from 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. The day closes with Benediction at 7:00 p.m. ALL are welcome. See the poster in back of church to adopt an hour. If you would like to adopt an hour permanently, please call Kay Diggins or Rose Wilkes at (630) 833-7238.

Right now we know for sure that we will need catechists at Gr. 1 and 3 at the first session, and Grades 5, 6, and possibly 7 at the second session. We will certainly need a few folks at the last session but at this time, we are not certain of the grade levels. Please think about stepping up to share your faith with our young people. Call us or send us an email for more information. We look forward to hearing from you.

For more information on any of the above, please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962 or email at mqhmawoods@sbcglobal.net.

It will be held at St. Isaac Jogues Parish in Hinsdale on Tuesday, April 23, 2013, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. Please contact Deacon Alex if you are interested in attending at (630) 530-0503.
