Note from the Pastor

Two weeks ago, we ordained 5 young men to the priesthood for the Diocese of Joliet. Today and this week coming up, I ask you to think about your own vocation and the possible vocations of your children and grandchildren.

Vocation is a calling.

I get a lot of mileage on my mouth. And I have been trained in the 2nd City School of Improv. Sometimes when I speak, people laugh (I'm never quite sure at what). And sometimes after I have spoken they will come up to me and say something that drives me right up the wall. "Father, you know you really missed your calling." My usual response is to glare at them and say, "Excuse me!? I certainly hope not." That's a pretty unfair response but it comes from a place very deep inside that tells me that of all the things I have blown and screwed up in my life, the one thing that I didn't, the one thing I have never doubted, is my vocation. Every time I have turned my back to run away from it, I run smack back into it. I may have missed the mark, I may have misstepped and misspoken; I know I have mistaken, but I did not miss my calling. My vocation.

Now, don't get vocation and career mixed up. A career is something you choose to do. A vocation is something someone else chooses for you and calls you to. You are not the initiator of a vocation, you simply respond by saying yes or no. God is the initiator. It is God's call. How? Well, to tell the truth, He doesn't use direct dialing very often. Then how? Through His continuing incarnation in the world, first manifest perfectly through Jesus and then (a little more imperfectly) through His Body in space and time, the People of God, the Body of Christ, the Church.

As Jesus walked along the shore of the sea of Galilee he saw fishermen and said to them, "Follow me." That's it. That's the call. Sometimes Jesus didn't do the calling directly; on several occasions John the Baptist said to his disciples, "Look there is the Lamb of God, follow Him." And they did. When Jesus noticed them following Him, He asked them, "What are you looking for?" And they responded, "Where do you dwell?" "Come, follow me, I'll show you." Where does Jesus dwell? Where does He live? In the heart of the Father. And He invites each of us in our own vocations to do exactly the same thing. And let me tell you this.

When you dance in your vocation, when you follow the call, when you are obedient to the summons of God, there is a surety and security that you are not wasting your life. You are being obedient to your calling. You are doing exactly what you are supposed to do. Sadly, however, many of us miss our vocation. Sometimes we miss it because the noise around us is so loud we can't hear the voice when it calls. But most often the voice never speaks. The voice never asks. That's the greater shame because the voice is ours, the Church, the Body of Christ on earth.

For almost forty years now I have heard the term "crisis" used along with the word "vocation." It has gone on so long now that the "vocation crisis" has become institutionalized. And it doesn't seem to be turning around. What's happened? Has God stopped calling? Are the lures of the modern world so great that our young people cannot hear the voice of God? Or have we, the people of God, just given up? God still calls. God never stops calling. But we have. We don't even try any more.

Time was (and it wasn't all that long ago) when a mother would look at her brood of kids and know (especially if you were Irish and from Chicago) that one might become a policeman and one might be a politician and one, please God, please God would become a priest or a nun. To have a son a priest or a daughter a religious sister was such a gift. Parents encouraged their children toward the religious life. And if there was the spark in the kid's eye, the entire church community bolstered it. Sister would look out over her entire class and say, "Okay, who wants to be a priest? Who wants to be a nun?" and all the hands would go up. She knew, however, by eighth grade, freshman year in high school which ones really had it. And she continued to call them. Call. Vocation. We do the calling. Do you get it? Sadly, we stopped. And so have vocations.

Now, don't get me wrong, not all callings are to the religious life. The call to marriage, the call to the single life, are real, legitimate vocations. It is not so important what we are called to, as long as we don't miss the call. There will be no vocations in the future if we are not vocation conscious. And right now we are not. So what are we waiting for? Next week, I'll try to answer this question.

In Jesus, called by God to call us,

NO MEETINGS TO BE SCHEDULED FOR THE MONTH OF JULY

Due to maintenance and to give all parishioners the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful summer days, there will be no meetings scheduled on the parish grounds for the month of July.

THE BACKGROUND AND PRACTICE OF CONTEMPLATIVE MEDITATION

Saturday, June 15, 2013
in Barrett Hall - 9a.m. - 1p.m.

This presentation explores the Catholic tradition of Contemplative Prayer. It is intended to provide participants with a clear understanding of what Contemplative prayer is, and develop the practical knowledge and tools that will enable participants to integrate silence and contemplation into their prayer. The promise of contemplation is an enriched and deeper prayer life. Come, listen and find God. This session will be "introductory"; no prior experience is required. Participants will have the opportunity to actively practice this style of prayer. Please register on the list in the back of the church. If you have any questions, call Lynn Suwanski (630) 530-2523 (evenings).

CCW DUES

Annual dues ($5.00) for the Council of Catholic Women will be collected during the month of June. The CCW sponsors many events throughout the year including the Senior Citizen Christmas Dinner, the Mother's Day Carnation Remembrance, and the Spring Plant Sale and monthly activities. All women in the parish are considered members of the Council of Catholic Women. The yellow CCW envelope can be placed in the collection basket anytime in June. If you would like to be informed of upcoming CCW events, please include your email address on the outside of the envelope. Those who are enrolled in Parish Pay may place their dues in the collection basket in an envelope marked CCW during the month of June. Thank you.

TORNADO RELIEF

If you did not get a chance to participate in the relief effort for the victims of the Oklahoma tornado, you may still do so. Simply make out a check to Mary Queen of Heaven and put it in an envelope marked "Oklahoma." You might want to put your envelope number on it too.

ST. VINCENT DEPAUL CLOTHING DRIVE

The St. Vincent DePaul Truck will be in the MQH Parking Lot on June 1 from 9:00 a.m. until Sunday, June 2 at 1:30 p.m. We will be accepting gently used clothing for adults and children, small workable appliances, dishes, towels, wash cloths, jewelry, etc. We are now accepting televisions (working or non working) for recycling. Start your spring cleaning now and help us fill the truck with usable clothes and other items. No furniture! If you have furniture to donate, please call the St. Vincent DePaul office in West Chicago (630) 562-4801 to arrange a date for pick-up!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Come and spend just one hour or even a few minutes with Him during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, June 3. Our day of prayer begins after 8:30 a.m. Mass, and ends with Benediction at 7:00 p.m. You are invited to join us for Benediction too! If you would like to "adopt" an hour, please contact Kay Diggins at (630) 530-7214 or Rose Wilkes at (630) 833-7238 with questions or to sign up. Remember, there is perpetual adoration in the Visitation adoration chapel located at 799 S. York Road.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI JUNE 2, 2013

Join the three Catholic parishes in Elmhurst to celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi (The Body and Blood of Christ) on Sunday, June 2, 2013 beginning at 1:00 p.m. We will meet at the Mall of Elmhurst College and process to Immaculate Conception Church praying the Rosary. Once at the Church there will be Benediction. All are invited to attend. For this event we are asking our children who received their First Holy Communion this year to follow the cross, candles, and servers as they lead a Solemn Procession (parade) of the Eucharist. So, don't put away your First Communion suit or dress yet! Meet at the Elmhurst College Mall and all will be explained to you.

RE Registrations

We are continuing to take registrations for those classes where there is still room. Please note that class lists are filling up and space is limited to registered parishioners. At this time, Grade 2 is at capacity at the 3:15 session and Grade 4 is closed at the 5:15 session. Also note that we will contact you if you do not get your first choice of session and time. If you do not hear from us, be assured that your children are in the time you requested.

Catechists Needed

We have had some folks respond to our request for help and we thank you. However, we are still in need of catechists at various grade levels at various session times. If you are a loving, welcoming, accepting, forgiving person, you have the most important qualifications for being a catechist. You don't have to be a theologian, just someone who can help our children understand how the Gospel can be applied to their lives. Come share your Faith with the young people of Mary, Queen. All of our classes meet on Wednesdays. Currently we need catechists and aides at the following levels:

3:15 p.m. Session	Grade 1 – 1 catechist Grade 2 - 1 aide Grade 3 - 1 catechist 1 aide Grade 4 - 2 co-catechists
5:15 p.m. Session	Grade 6 - 1 aide
6:45 p.m. Session	Grade 5 - 2 co-catechists Grade 6 - 1 co-catechist

As you can see, our greatest need is for our 3:15 p.m. session. If you are someone who works at home and are able to fit us into your schedule, we would love to speak with you.

For more information on any of the above, please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962 or email at mqhmawoods@sbcglobal.net.
