Ordinary Time

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Who do the crowds say that I am?” They said in reply, “John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, ‘One of the ancient prophets has arisen.’” Then he said to them,
“But who do you say that I am?” Peter said in reply,
“The Christ of God.” – Lk 9:18b-20

Note from the Pastor

“Put another nickel in, in the nickelodeon. All I want is lovin' you and music, music, music.” Along with, “I Love You a Bushel and a Peck,” “Cruising Down the River,” and “Ragg Mopp,” these are among the very first songs I remember as an itty, bitty child. “Say it with music, beautiful music...” And we do. Can you imagine life without music? When I was a graduate student working with the deaf community in San Francisco, I met a woman named Jane Louie who was able to read lips impeccably. I asked her what she missed most after she went deaf. Her answer without hesitation, “Music. I still have the melodies in my head but oh, how I miss hearing them.”

St. Augustine once famously said that (s)he who sings, prays twice. On a special occasion (Holy Thursday) when I sing the Eucharistic Prayer, we listen not only with our head but hear with our heart. Several months ago when the men of Spirito sang Kumbaya as a meditation song, the church was utterly still. It was a moment divine for the Divine was surely present with us and in us. That's the power of good music.

My daddy used to say, “Son, if you can't be good, at least be loud.” And I confess that I am. It is not that I enjoy the sound of my own voice (I am always about 1/16th of a note flat) but I figure that if I can sing out, you can too. My mother had a terrible voice but she sang her little heart out at every Mass on every hymn. She did the church a wonderful service for those standing around her tried to sing ever louder to drown out her voice. I'm really big on congregational singing. When you are in good voice and truly choose to sing out, the church comes alive.

So sing, sing your heart out. And watch what happens.

We are, please God, gently moving into the fullness of Ordinary Time. It is, as my never ending mantra says, time to slow down, to listen. Listen to the music all around you. Listen to the songs in your heart. Listen to a good symphony. Do nothing else, just sit there and listen. Listen to your children sing. And then, sing yourself. It's music to God's ears.

In Jesus, the Song of the Father,

(Next week, the sound of silence.)

RE Registrations

We are continuing to take registrations for those classes where there is still room. Please note that class lists are filling up and space is limited to registered parishioners. At this time, Grade 2 is at capacity at the 3:15 session and Grade 4 and Grade 7 is closed at the 5:15 session. Also note that we will contact you if you do not get your first choice of session and time. If you do not hear from us, be assured that your children are in the time you requested.

Catechists Needed

Thank you to those of you who have responded to our request for help. However, we are still in need of catechists at various grade levels at various session times. If you are a loving, welcoming, accepting, forgiving person, you have the most important qualifications for being a catechist. You don't have to be a theologian, just someone who can help our children understand how the Gospel can be applied to their lives. Come share your Faith with the young people of Mary, Queen. All of our classes meet on Wednesdays. Currently we need catechists and aides at the following levels:

3:15 p.m. Session	Grade 1 – 1 catechist Grade 3 - 3 co-catechist 1 aide Grade 4 - 1 co-catechists
5:15 p.m. Session	Grade 6 - 1 aide
6:45 p.m. Session	Grade 6 - 1 co-catechist

As you can see, our greatest need is for our 3:15 p.m. session. If you are someone who works at home and are able to fit us into your schedule, we would love to speak with you.

For more information on any of the above,
please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962
or email at mqhmawoods@sbcglobal.net.

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Be a Pilgrim of CHARITY

Charity bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. (1 Cor 13:7)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

There are many places around the globe where the Church struggles to be a visible sign of charity, but thankfully, the Holy Father is the pilgrim of charity for Catholics everywhere. In poor dioceses where many are dependent on the Church for social and pastoral support; in regions where Catholics are persecuted for their faith; and in nations overloaded with refugees and victims of war and natural disasters, the works done by the Holy Father help the Church extend charity to those most in need.

The Peter's Pence Collection gives us the opportunity to be pilgrims of charity around the world. Our gifts to this annual Collection help the Holy Father strengthen dioceses, religious orders, and struggling communities of faith when they need it most.

Many who struggle to survive rely on pilgrims of charity to assist them through their difficulties. Last year, the Diocese of Joliet provided funds in the amount of $240,996.77. Please give generously to the Collection again this year, and know that in doing so, you become a pilgrim of charity around the globe.

May God bless you.

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
 Bishop of Joliet
