CONGRATULATIONS
DEACON TOM NOLAN
ON YOUR 25TH ANNIVERSARY!

Note from the Pastor

25 Years and Counting

The first person I met from Mary Queen of Heaven was Peter Caruso, one of our founding members. I was still pastor of St. Isidore and Peter had attended one of my final Masses. The second person I met was Deacon Tom Nolan. Shortly after it was announced that I was to be the new pastor here, I received a call from Deacon Tom and in his gentle, unassuming way, invited me to have lunch with him at the Kopper Kitchen. As we ate and talked, I began to realize that I was in the presence of one of Mary Queen's very special gifts.

Deacon. It comes from the late Latin diaconus, from the Greek diakonos, which literally means 'servant', or one who serves. We first find deacons in the Acts of the Apostles who are concerned that the widows and orphans are not being taken care of. The Apostles' work was primarily prayer and the ministry of the Word. In Acts 6 we read, "Now in these days with the disciples increasing in number, the Hellenists murmured against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. The twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, 'it is not right that we should give up preaching the Word of God to serve tables. Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the Word.' "

Stephen was among the first seven deacons chosen and became the very first to be martyred for the new faith. Echoing the words of Jesus from the cross, his last prayer was, "Father, do not hold this sin against them." Watching the stoning from a distance was the young Saul (soon to be Paul) approving of the martyrdom. Obviously, being a deacon is no little thing.

And while our Deacon Tom who celebrates 25 years as a deacon today, has never been stoned, he has, indeed, found himself in the midst of a church controversy or two. And his response, like Stephen's, has always been to rise above the fray, to heal the wounded hearts. This gentle-man of Jesus has always been a healer in service to this community.

Tom Nolan was ordained a deacon on October 8, 1988 at the hands of Bishop Joseph Imesch for the service of St. Alexander Parish in Villa Park. Fr. Barrett was his pastor. After serving there for some time his work took him to Iowa and then eventually back to Elmhurst where, by this time Fr. Barrett was the new pastor of Mary Queen. Praise God, he has been here ever since.

Deacon Tom Nolan and Brenda Scanlon

In his letter to Timothy, St. Paul describes the qualification of a good deacon, "Deacons, likewise must be serious, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for gain; they must hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. And let them be tested first; then if they prove themselves blameless, let them serve as deacons." St. Paul was writing about our Deacon Tom Nolan. The primary task of the deacon is to serve. They are not glorified altar boys or even mini priests. The charism of a deacon is quite different. While the priest may be of the community, by his ordination he is set aside for sacred duties, especially the celebration of the Eucharist. The deacon, while he too is ordained and in sacred orders, is not only of the community but also in the community. The communitarian aspect of the diaconate cannot be over emphasized and Deacon Tom is truly one with this community. He not only serves it but he lives in it.

The modern diaconate was reinstated in the early 1970's. Married lay men could once again be ordained to serve the needs of the local parish. Church law states, however, that if the married deacon is widowed he may not remarry. Recently ordained Deacon Tom lost his beloved wife when his youngest daughter was but six years old. Canonically he could not remarry. However, as in most things Catholic, there is always the possibility of a dispensation. Because of the young age of his daughter, Tom applied to Rome and received a dispensation thinking that he would really never, ever use it. Well... surprise! He did.

Two years ago, our parish community celebrated the marriage of our pastoral associate, Mimi Wolak to our deacon, Tom Nolan. And it looks like a marriage made in heaven. Mimi, while not ordained, is also a servant of this community. One of the things being discussed now and under consideration is the reinstatement of the diaconess. We read in St. Paul's letter to the Romans this amazing statement, "I commend you to our sister Phoebe (rhymes with Mimi), a deaconess of the Church of Cenchreae, that you may receive her in the Lord as befits the saints and help her in whatever she may require from you, for she has been a helper of many and of myself as well." Who knows, someday we may have deacon and diaconess Nolan.

But for today, we celebrate. 25 years. Tom's favorite food is ice cream. So he and Mimi have invited all of us to a little ice cream social immediately after the 10:30 Mass. Come, let us celebrate. It is a community event of service.

In Jesus, the Servant,
