Note from the Pastor

When? Now!

Two weeks ago I wrote concerning our numbness and indifference to the mass killings and gun violence that plague our country and culture. I asked rhetorically, "When?" And then I realized we already had an answer, or at least a model. In addition to the Amish as to how to respond to such painful evil in the world, we have singular witness to a Christ response. It is enfolded in a middle-aged, African-American woman named Antoinette Tuff, one tough and extremely gentle woman. She was the woman who single-handedly last August disarmed a young man with an AK-47 and 500 rounds of ammunition who was hell-bent on death and destruction at the McNair Learning Academy in Decatur, Georgia.

Annette was the first person he encountered. She was the school's bookkeeper whom he took hostage. She immediately began to speak to him as if he were her son. She called him "baby" and told him that she loved him and that all would be all right. Through her keeping a cool head and focusing on the young man's needs to be understood and respected, she was able to have him disarm himself and await the police. She promised him that no one would be harmed and that he need not harm anyone else.

She was good to her promise. No child was harmed, nor was he. This happened in the same summer when the killer of a young African-American teenager claimed that his fear was the reason for his actions. She was able to overcome her fear and risk herself on behalf of not only the children, but the young man with the gun. How did she do this?

After the ordeal was over, she confessed that she was scared out of her wits but she had learned through her pastor how to "pray on the inside." She had learned how to "anchor" herself in God no matter what was happening around her. This was the still-point in her life that would not move and that would give her all the strength she needed to do what she did. She began praying on the inside for the gunman while she continued to speak with him. As she spoke she prayed. She may have been inwardly afraid but at her deepest level in the depths of her soul, there was a serenity that could only come from the Divine. She may have been afraid, but her fear did not drive her response. Love did.

Now that's progress. All through this year we have been reading the Gospel of Luke who continues to tell us to pray, pray, pray. Jesus is forever sneaking off to the mountain to pray with his Father. His disciples asked Him to teach them to pray and His response was to teach them to pray for the things that are common to all of us, our daily bread, the ability to forgive, the coming of God's way on earth called the Kingdom. All these human needs make us one - Gunman and child alike. She kept the gunman calm, the children safe, and the police assured that all was okay. She practiced her anchoring prayer and it worked.

There were many moments of grace that day: the young man did not shoot his way into the building nor go immediately to the classrooms but encountered the one who made all the difference in his and the children's lives. The woman of God.

We live in a world filled with violence, hatred and evil. We live in a world of grace, mercy and forgiveness. This summer the power of prayer came face to face with the power of destruction and, this time, prayer won.

In Jesus, the Prayer of the Father,

WORLD YOUTH DAY / PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Today the Church celebrates its youth and its priests. Interesting combination. Little kids like priests. They are the shamans or juju men dressed in bright colored clothes who teach us how to be happy and good and to whom everyone pays attention. They're kind of like Barney with a human face. Sing along, "I love you... you love me..."

Youth and priesthood, they really should go together. The Scriptures tell us, "Yahweh called me before I was born, from my mother's womb He pronounced my name." Young Samuel was just a boy when he was called to his prophetic and priestly role, so was John the Baptist as he went to live in the mountains and caves to prepare himself to proclaim the Messiah.

And God still calls young people. But today it gets harder and harder to hear his voice. Too many distractions, too many I's (pods, pads, phones). And especially too many parents unwilling to encourage the children to hear that voice when it speaks.

In the end, the voice will not be silenced. Priesthood and youth just naturally go together.

SPECIAL LECTURE NEXT FRIDAY

The president of the Catholic University of America, John Garvey will be speaking this coming Friday at the Elmhurst College Hammerschmidt Chapel. He will speak on Cardinal John Henry Newman's Idea of a University. The lecture will take place at 7:30 p.m. and complimentary tickets can be obtained by calling Karen Vicary at the office (630) 617-3025 or emailing her at Karen.vicary@elmhurst.edu. She will put the tickets aside for you at a 'will call' desk.

Cardinal Newman is the next one on the "saint list". His life and writings have had a profound effect on the Church in the last 100 years. It is a lecture well worth attending. Obviously, with our holy day Mass at 7:00 p.m., a lecture at 7:30 p.m. will be a tight squeeze but with certainly be worth the effort and Fr. Tony promises not to preach too long.

END OF LIFE SEMINAR ESTATE PLANNING FOR THE HEART PREPARING TODAY FOR AN EASIER TOMORROW

Let's face it...we are all going to die. How can we die "well"...with dignity and grace? To do so we need proper preparation. Please join the discussion on Nov. 10, 2013 from 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. in Barrett Hall. This topic will be explored from the Catholic perspective with a team of medical professionals along with Father Tony. You will be provided with resources related to having "the discussion" with family members and to become aware of your choices regarding end of life care. A light lunch will be provided.

SLEEP OUT SATURDAY

Our Destiny group will be participating this year on Saturday November 2. The all-night joint event will be held at IC in Elmhurst as teens sleep out on the lawn of the high school. Almost 2,000 teens, children and adults across Dupage county spend the cold night outside in tents, boxes and cars to raise awareness about family homelessness and raise money for Bridge Communities' Transitional Housing Program. Last year's event raised more than $130,000.

Our high school students participating are working to raise money to help the cause. If you would like to make a donation and help Destiny help the people of Dupage county please contact Kathleen Gusloff (630) 269-0744.

MQH GARDEN NEWS

Before we do the final cleanup of our Mary Queen gardens, I want to take some space to thank everyone who participated in caring for our flowers this year. From cleanup in spring, to planting, to weeding, to watering, a huge thank you to everyone, adults and children, who has helped in making our gardens here at Mary Queen look beautiful this spring and summer - Carol Achtien, Joseph Alonso, Chuck Dolesy, Guerra Family (Kelly, Melissa, Katelyn and Matthew), Ed Hayes, Don Jacobsen, Skylar Johnson, John Leszczynski, Gail Lewicki, Herb Schwartz, Ella Serpico, Debbie Styka, Gene Suwanski, Pat Vandenberg, Phylis Twardowski, Mary White, and Norma Williamson. We couldn't do it without you.

We appreciate everyone's compliments on the flowers over this past growing season, and look forward to the spring flowering bulb show next year. Many of you have commented on the dahlias on the south side of the church. Since they prefer the cooler temperatures and shorter days of September and October, they are looking their best just as we get ready for the first frost. In closing, here's a brief flower fact: dahlias form a clump of "tubers" under the ground, and these can be dug, placed in some shredded leaves or peat moss in a container, and kept in a cool place over winter. They can then be separated and planted again next spring.
