The Presentation of the Lord

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word,
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples:
a light for revelation to the Gentiles.”

Note from the Pastor

AND THE PEOPLE BOWED DOWN IN WORSHIP

The anticipation has been building for months. Many pilgrims have come from the four corners of the earth and will be in attendance at the great outdoor cathedral of LIFE (The Life of the Metropolitan). In the skies the celestial beings (Goodyear and Bruno Mars) will monitor all that will happen at the GREAT LITURGY. As once the angels in Bethlehem announced to the world the coming of the Savior, so will the satellites beam to the world the Sacred Action that will take place in the Sanctuary of this Holy of Holies.

The rituals have been diligently studied and the Celebrants are well practiced in their roles. The alter Christus, Chris Christie will motion the congregants to cross over the bridge and enter into the New Jersey. (Speaking of jerseys, the vestments will be brand new and sparkling clean at least until the sacrifice begins.) The acolytes will be wearing their brand new mini albs as they encourage the faithful's full participation in the liturgy.

EWTN will not be broadcasting because it has been out-bid by ESPN and FOX. Televangelists Joe Buck and Troy Aikman will be there to describe the intricate and cryptic ritual movements of high priest Fr. Manning and his minions. They will translate the arcane language of the ritual so that the common layman can understand.

All while the great choir of brass bands is ready to lead the congregation in sacred chant. The "Great Kyrie" has been translated into the vernacular for this occasion. The chant for the Queen of the Sea(hawks) will be "Hit 'em again, hit 'em again harder, harder." The chant of the four horseman of the apocalypse (aka, Broncos) will be, "Rah, rah, rhee, kick 'em in the knee. Rah, rah, rass, kick 'em in the other knee."

All good liturgy points toward the possibility and celebrates the hope of Redemption. This, being the greatest of all American liturgies, is no exception. The purpose of the worship is to help redeem the "oblonged sacred object" from the grip of the enemy and put it in the hands of the MESSIAH, who will bring it through obstacles, dangers and pratfalls into the sacred space of heaven (euphemistically known as the 'end-zone'). To this the people will shout, "Amen, Alleluia, Amen!" While the liturgy is quite formal, the celebrant may have to improvise with a "Hail Mary" or two. This is so they can be delivered from evil.

In the middle of the celebration, a Homily will be preached on the dangers of Hell by the "Red Hot Chili Peppers." Coming down from the sky will be Bruno from Mars who will bring a tear to the eyes of all in attendance by his saccharin preaching.

We have spent many hours preparing for this sacred rite and dare not miss it (the collection, I am told, will be second to none). This is a holy day of obligation and we would be embarrassed to have to later confess that we were not there to participate (at least via the T and V which will broadcast the liturgy for shut-ins). Enjoy the Liturgy today but remember the One that really counts. Would that the world took it as seriously and prepared for it as well.

In Jesus, the True Messiah,

Diocesan News

THE 2014 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS UNDERWAY

“TRUST IN THE FATHER’S CARE”

“The 2014 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal begins with a mailing that many of our parishioners have received or will soon receive. This is a mailing from Bishop Conlon asking for a pledge to the 2014 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal.

The Appeal not only funds many of the operations of the diocese, it funds services that are of great help to the ministries here in our parish. For example: youth ministry, Catholic Charities, seminarians, the diaconate program and the Tribunal.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is “Trust in the Father’s Care.” God does provide for us. He never forgets us. His love sustains each of us. He is always giving to us. His grace is always there for us.

Do we trust in the Father’s care? Christ tells us that we cannot serve two masters. Do we acknowledge God’s gifts and show him our gratitude for them? One way that we can show our gratitude is by offering our generous financial support to our parish and to our diocese and to the Church throughout the world. The gifts we give enable ministries, education, and services that touch thousands of lives.

Our parish goal is $45,459.00. With your support, we can reach and exceed this goal. When we exceed our goal in paid pledges, we will receive 60% of the amount over goal for use in our parish.

Please answer Bishop Conlon’s request and make a generous pledge. All pledges can be paid in 10 installments. Thank you in advance for your support.

“May our faith inspire us to “Trust in The Father’s Care” and share our God-given blessings through a contribution to the 2014 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal that demonstrates the Father’s care throughout the Diocese of Joliet.”
We pray to the Lord...”

HOME MISSIONS COLLECTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses in the United States and its territories that lack the resources to provide basic pastoral ministry to their populations. Through annual grants, Catholic Home Missions funds catechesis, seminarian education, lay ministry training, Hispanic ministry, and other pastoral programs in needy dioceses. As a result of parishioners’ generosity, Catholic Home Missions impacts the lives of nearly 9 million Catholics. The dioceses funded by the Appeal comprise nearly 45 percent of all U.S. dioceses.

The state of Mississippi has the highest number of families living below the poverty line in the U.S., as well as the lowest per capita income and a low level of formal education. For the Diocese of Jackson, these challenges are combined with an immense area—the diocese encompasses two-thirds of the state—and only a small number of Catholics. One of the biggest problems is a lack of priests to reach people under these difficult circumstances. The head of the diocese, Bishop Joseph N. Latino, commented on this shortage, “I’ve buried more priests than I’ve ordained in my 10 years of tenure.” With limited resources, this reality hits this home mission diocese hard. A grant from Catholic Home Missions helps cover the cost of educating the diocese’s 10 seminarians, whose education each costs $35,000–$37,000 per year. As future priests of the diocese, these men will bring the sacraments and provide a Catholic presence to the faithful.

A mission diocese often times must compete with high rates of poverty and a lack of educated pastoral and lay leadership to serve the community. With your support, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal can continue to provide essential pastoral outreach in home mission dioceses.

Our diocese takes up this Collection the weekend of February 8-9, 2014. Please be generous in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal and help strengthen the Church at home. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
