Note from the Pastor

Habemus Pastor

Last Saturday, Bishop Conlon announced to us, the people of Mary Queen, that we have as new pastor, Fr. Jason Stone (Nice ring to it, don'tcha think? Sounds like a Hollywood movie star.) By now, I am sure many of you have Googled his name and found very little. That's because he is newly ordained, only four years out. He spent the first two years of his priesthood at our Cathedral in Joliet and these last two years at St. Raphael Parish in Naperville. And now he is coming here as our brand spanking new pastor. Praise God!

Ever since I announced my retirement I have been bombarded with questions about the future, "So who is going to come? How do they choose him? Do we have any input?" The answer to almost all of these questions was, "I dunno." There's an obvious shortage of priests and it is coming to the point of being a crisis. Some consolidation is going to have to take place. And so lots of rumors flew around from closing Mary Queen (Not a chance, we've got money in the bank) to being consolidated into another parish (Ain't gonna happen) to... oh, how we love to speculate and gossip. I must confess I speculated that it would be an older priest. Mary Queen is considered one of the "plums" of the Diocese (small, no school, no debt, sweet people and, of course, location, location, location. We do live in Elmhurst, don't you know!).

Because of who we are, I can only imagine that there were priests lined up around the block who wanted to come. I assumed that the parish would go to another "paid his dues" pastor like myself and that Mary Queen would be a reward for good behavior and for having pastored a parish of 6,000 families. Obviously, that didn't happen.

When I got the call from the Diocese my first reaction was, "You gotta be kidding." My second reaction was to smile and be utterly delighted with the fact that Mary Queen has been chosen to help form a new pastor as he learns to pastor Mary Queen. Please God, it will be a beautiful enterprise in mutuality. However (now, you knew I was going to have a 'however').

However, he is coming as pastor. In Canon Law, that's a big deal. He is the cura animarum (the caretaker of souls). His responsibility is to take care of your spiritual well-being, to show you where to be nourished by the Good News of our Lord, Jesus Christ and to protect you from the thrall of sin: arrogance, pride, control..., oh, the list goes on. Toward this end it is imperative that you give him lots and lots of space.

Fr. Jason Stone

It seems obvious to me that the Lord has chosen Mary Queen for a very special mission in the Church. One of the truly exciting things that I have watched happen here in the last six years is the coming of our very young families with lots and lots of little children. What an incredible gift. What an awesome responsibility. Now, God has given us a young man to lead our young people. And we must give him the spaciousness to do so. It is imperative that we not come with our own preconceived agendas. It is much more important for us as a parish to ask the right questions than to have all the answers. But above all, we must trust that the Holy Spirit knows what She is doing when She sent Fr. Jason to us.

In the weeks to come, I will be spending a lot of time facilitating the transition. That means my letting go (not to mention yours) in order to make space for what is to come. It is a great act of faith. And so we welcome Fr. Jason Stone. And we pledge to do everything we can to create an environment whereby he can minister to us as God calls him to do.

Fr. Jason (gotta love the name), welcome!

In Jesus, the Good Shepherd,

Fr. Tony

PARISH MISSION TODAY

This Sunday we begin our annual Parish Mission. Fr. Tony will be giving it this year on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. The title is simply, "The Spirituality of the Two Halves of Life."

On Sunday evening we will explore the first half. It is for the entire family: parents, teenagers, children. The first night is critical for the running of a well-ordered Christian household. What makes us so special? Why are we chosen? What are our tasks as children and as parents? And how do we do it. It is family night. Bring the family.

On Monday and Tuesday we will explore what it means to be an "adult" Christian. Teaching the Beatitudes to children is nigh impossible. Knowing the Beatitudes and living them as an adult is indispensable. What does a true adult Christian look like? How do we get there and how do we know that we are there when we arrive? (Hint: On this side of Eternity we never full arrive.)

Do purpose to make this Parish Mission. It can make a wonderful difference in our lives.

Fellowship

FELLOWSHIP THIS SUNDAY MARCH 23

All are invited to attend fellowship after the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 23. The lectors are hosting this fellowship. Bring your family and join with other parishioners discussing how the holidays went or just in some lively conversation. Join us for juice, coffee, tea and delicious goodies.

AED TRAINING

Automated external defibrillator training will be held in the Social Hall on April 12 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 Noon. High school students are welcome. To enroll contact John Menarek at (630) 818.0091.

HUNGER IN AMERICA

The Mary Queen of Heaven Peace and Justice Ministry will be presenting an evening to reflect on and respond to the hunger crisis in America. Yes, we did say crisis.

Come and join us for a simple supper (bring a dish to pass) of meatless soup, salad and bread. After dinner we will walk the Stations of the Cross then screen a portion of the movie A Place at the Table, which we will discuss afterwards. Lastly, we will have an opportunity (everything supplied – even form letters to copy) to write letters expressing our concerns to our legislators. This event will take place on April 11 starting at 6:00 p.m. This is a wonderful Lenten opportunity for families.

Deacon Alex and Marie Grozik and Joseph Sapien – Peace & Justice Ministry

RECYCLING TIPS

- ◆ If you google Recycling Guide DuPage County - you can find a .pdf to open and read - it has everything you need to know about Recycling in DuPage county.
- ◆ A few non-recyclable items in a recycle bin can render the entire lot un-recyclable to the hauler. For recycling to be successful everyone has to work together to keep recyclable materials out of the landfill, and non-recyclable materials out of recycling bins. Every town has their own rules with every recycling company, as well as individual organizations, like Mary Queen. In general at your home, Elmhurst recycles #1 thru #7, except # 6 Polystyrene, which can come in the shape of white styro-foam, as well as other forms. #6 is not recyclable.
- ◆ At Mary Queen, we recycle #1 and #2 plastics, cardboard, and glass from events at Mary Queen only. If you are at an event at Mary Queen, and the plastic is #3,4,5, or 7 - please bring it home and recycle. We don't need a hero on a white horse - we are the ones to make a difference. Let's make a difference.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE BISHOP

Catholic Relief Services Appeal

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On March 29-30, 2014, our diocese will take up the Catholic Relief Services Collection. The Catholic Relief Services Collection funds six Catholic agencies that work to serve our suffering brothers and sisters around the world. Through humanitarian aid, resettling displaced individuals and families, and advocating on behalf of victims, the Catholic Relief Services Collection allows us to see every encounter with a suffering person as an opportunity to help Jesus in disguise.

During drought seasons, the only water available in Ethiopia and other areas of East Africa runs deep underground—often as deep as 1,000 feet. Catholic Relief Services (CRS) worked with other aid partners to bring in rigs that can drill down to these depths. Taking into account the nomadic nature of many people in this region, they made wells along community migratory paths so they can continue to graze their herds and move them according to their needs. These water sources make a tremendous difference in the community. Livestock stay healthier and produce more milk, which means that the people have more food and rely less on outside resources. However, more work remains to be done. Many of the wells serve double the population they were made for, and program managers fear that the communities will be unable to continue their pastoral work if more wells are not added.

Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc. (CLINIC) is a dedicated network of legal immigration programs that promote the dignity and protect the rights of immigrants. Religious Immigration Services (RIS), a department of CLINIC, assists Catholic religious workers with visas. In 2013, they helped a priest from Kenya enter the United States on a religious worker visa, so that he could serve as a chaplain for the Little Sisters of the Poor and St. Anne's Home in San Francisco. The home gives elderly people of limited financial means a place to live with dignity. Since its foundation in 1901, the home has welcomed more than 20,000 elderly men and women of all faiths, nationalities, and backgrounds. Thanks to the CRS Collection, they now have a chaplain.

CLINIC and CRS are two of six worldwide Catholic relief agencies funded by the Catholic Relief Services Collection. These agencies work to provide food, water, disaster relief, and other vital assistance to Jesus in the disguise of suffering people each day.

Please be generous in the Catholic Relief Services Collection. Your support truly makes a difference.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet
