"Hosanna to the Son of David;
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest."

And when He entered Jerusalem the whole city was shaken and asked,
"Who is this?" And the crowds replied,
"This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth in Galilee."

- Mt 21:9-11

Note from the Pastor

Palm Sunday

I love being Catholic, especially at this time of year. There are certain things we do as a Church better than any other Church in the world. Funerals come immediately to mind. I buried two of my cousins this past week with the assurance that our funeral liturgy speaks to the human heart like no other. And the week that is now before us will be nothing less than a feast for the senses. One of the great things about Catholicism is our sacramental system that takes the great invisible realities and makes them visible through the senses, through signs, symbols, smells and bells. We are a very sensual Church in that whatever gets into the heart comes through the senses. Today, Palm Sunday, we will be filled with special sounds as we sing our Hosannas to the Son of David, special sights as the bright red vestments are worn, special touches as we weave the palms that we receive into crosses and symbols of our faith and in a very special way special smells. Today I write about the smells of Holy Week and Easter.

Of all the five senses, nothing triggers our memory more powerfully than the sense of smell. Certain smells make the past present. The other week, I was cleaning through my mother's old medicine cabinet and found her bottle of Chiara cologne. I sprayed it onto my wrist, smelled it and... my mother was there. Immediately memories of my mother came floating in through my nostrils. Whenever I visit my Alma Mater, the Basilica at Conception Abby and smell the mixture of wax and incense permeated in the wood, I am 18 years old again. That's the power of smell. And today I will pick up the fresh palms, smell them and I will be five years old again at Mother Cabrini Parish in Chicago standing next to an old Italian man who has just woven his palms into a cross, pinned them to his lapel and is now smelling them. And you? What are your olfactory memories?

The week that is coming is, indeed, a week of the smells and the bells. And if you claim to be Catholic in any way, you are not to miss it. Spring is finally in the air, the thunderstorms have come, the ozones are released and there is a freshness and newness to everything. The dead of winter gives way to the new life to come and that is what this week is all about, new life.

On Thursday, we will gather together in the Church at 7:00 p.m. for the Mass of the Lord's Supper. It, too, begins with smells but not necessarily pleasant ones. We are called, along with Jesus, to take off our apron, wrap it around our waist, get down on our knees and wash each other's feet. How interesting that both the head and the feet are so very much alike. If the head is healthy so is the body and the same with the feet. If our feet hurt, our whole body aches. The top and the bottom are intimately connected. If the feet smell, they need to be washed and cleaned and taken care of, and if the head is filled with stinking thinking, it too needs to be cleansed of the illusions which govern it to bring forth the sweet odor of truth. This Thursday we will go down on our knees to wash each other's feet. In humility we will get down so that we might rise up. After Mass the incense pot will be lit, the Blessed Sacrament will be hidden under the humeral veil and to the sweet smell of incense we will process through the church to reserve this Holy Sacrament at a side altar where adoration will continue until midnight. Not only are you asked to come on Thursday, but you are invited to stay or keep watch. On Friday, in addition to the Stations of the Cross, we will gather at 7:00 p.m. again but this time to smell the wood, to kiss the wood, to embrace the cross.

On Holy Saturday at 11:00 a.m., the sweetest smells of all will permeate our church. It is then that the Slavic and Polish custom of blessing Easter baskets will take place. The smells of eggs and sausages and homemade breads and horseradish will mix through the air and not only will the elderly be having memories of their youth, but our children will be creating memories that will last a lifetime. And on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. we will return to church once more for the most solemn celebration of the year, the Vigil of Easter. It is the smell of the lilies and the promise of new life that we celebrate. Come, the table is set, the house is clean and the smells of Holy Week and Easter await you.

In Jesus, the Odor of Sanctity,

Fr. Tony

EASTER EGG HUNT APRIL 19, 2014 - 11:00 a.m

Our Easter Egg Hunt will be held at 11:30 a.m. after the Blessing of the baskets. This year it will be inside the school and kids up to 7 years old can participate. We will split the egg hunt into three rooms according to age group:

2-3yr olds      4-5yr olds      6-7yr olds

Each room will have an egg with a golden coin in it. Whoever finds the coin will win an Easter basket. We will also have a visit from the Easter Bunny... so parents bring your cameras.

We are looking for candy donations for the Easter Egg Hunt. Please bring your donations to the back of church by April 13.

For more information, please contact

COMMUNICATION FROM THE BISHOP CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports dioceses in the United States and its territories that lack the resources to provide basic pastoral ministry to their populations. Through annual grants, Catholic Home Missions funds catechesis, seminarian education, lay ministry training, Hispanic ministry, and other pastoral programs in needy dioceses. As a result of parishioners' generosity, Catholic Home Missions impacts the lives of nearly 9 million Catholics. The dioceses funded by the Appeal comprise nearly 45 percent of all U.S. dioceses.

The state of Mississippi has the highest number of families living below the poverty line in the U.S., as well as the lowest per capita income and a low level of formal education. For the Diocese of Jackson, these challenges are combined with an immense area - the diocese encompasses two-thirds of the state - and only a small number of Catholics. One of the biggest problems is a lack of priests to reach people under these difficult circumstances. The head of the diocese, Bishop Joseph N. Latino, commented on this shortage, "I've buried more priests than I've ordained in my 10 years of tenure." With limited resources, this reality hits this home mission diocese hard. A grant from Catholic Home Missions helps cover the cost of educating the diocese's 10 seminarians, whose education each costs $35,000-$37,000 per year. As future priests of the diocese, these men will bring the sacraments and provide a Catholic presence to the faithful.

A mission diocese often times must compete with high rates of poverty and a lack of educated pastoral and lay leadership to serve the community. With your support during the weekend of April 26-27, 2014, the Catholic Home Missions Appeal can continue to provide essential pastoral outreach in home mission dioceses. Please be generous in the Catholic Home Missions Appeal and help strengthen the Church at home. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you, and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon,
Bishop of Joliet
