Note from the Pastor

The Ultimate Odd Couple

“You people are going to have to leave. I know you have homes somewhere, but it’s not here. And besides, is all you ever do here is feed your face?” Anybody who has ever been to an evening meeting here at Mary Queen knows not only the speech pattern but the round, 70 year old baby face, high pitched voice and hyena laugh. It belongs to Clarence Edward Knudsen, a.k.a. “Butch”. He is Mary Queen’s night watchman, groundskeeper, snow shoveler extraordinaire, and all around curmudgeon. He has lived in my household for the last 11 years and when I came to Mary Queen, he became my housemate living in the rectory with me. We are the ultimate odd couple. We have nothing in common. We have everything in common.

In March and July of 1944 respectively, two babies were born. One who would grow up in the Western Suburbs without a care in the world and the other on the Northside of Chicago who, from outward appearance couldn’t care less. By the time I was 12 my life in Wheaton was utterly idyllic. Butch’s life at that time was... well... Now, while we never crossed paths, both of us spent the summer of our 12th year in Wheaton. I spent it swimming in the afternoon and going fishing every evening with my father after supper (I hated fishing but loved my father). Butch spent the entire summer in the DuPage County jail.

With two dollars in his pocket, an adult fedora on his head and his father’s car keys in his hand, he decided to run away from home and drive to California. He got behind the wheel of their ’53 Studebaker and headed west. He got as far as Wheaton, stopped at a stop sign and immediately saw some red flashing lights behind him. He opened the window and listened as the officer told him he did not come to a full stop at the stop sign. Butch begged to differ and while the policeman asked him to show his driver’s license, Butch put the pedal to the metal and off he went. Straight west. Into a cornfield. Crawling on his hands and knees through the field he came to discover a pair of very shiny black shoes. When he looked, there was the cop. “You’re under arrest.” As the handcuffs were being put on and the cop took off his hat, he exclaimed, “Why, you’re only a boy.”

Butch and Father Tony

That night in jail, his buddy cried his eyes out and Butch told him to calm down. “Oh my, what are you crying for?!?!?! We’re going to get to go home in the morning!” His buddy got to go home in the morning. He did not get to go home. Two weeks went by and every evening the night shift guard would come in and say, “I thought you ran away from home. What are you still doing here?” Three weeks later after living in the jail for 44 days and witnessing a murder, Butch was finally brought before a judge. “So how do you like our new jail?” “It was fine for the first couple of days, but it gets a little old after 45.” “You have not been here for 45 days.” Butch wanted to say, “I beg to differ,” but the last time he said that he got into a lot of trouble. He simply said, “Yes, your Honor, I have been.” The judge looked at the papers and realized that they had lost his record and that, indeed, he was incarcerated for a long period. “Get this kid out of here, now!” So Butch got to leave Wheaton. I stayed.

Butch and I would not meet face to face until the early 90’s when I was pastor of St. Teresa in Kankakee. His daughter, Hilary was going to our Catholic school and one day I ran into him and asked him, “If your daughter is going to our school, why aren’t you going to our church?” So he started going to church. Every week. I was amazed. It was then that I learned that he had a bed-ridden wife who had suffered from MS shortly after they were married.

Butch was her primary care giver, taking care of her every need.

One day, Butch came to me to ask if he could borrow some serious money. Knowing how much it was costing him to take care of his wife, I "loaned" him the money. Now, I know, full well, when you loan money, you will never see it again. Not so with Butch. The very next week he began making payments on the loan. Oh my gosh! An honest man. I've just run into an honest man. From there a minor friendship began to blossom.

From time to time I would have Butch over to the house for supper with Luis and myself. Butch is a great dinner companion, always good for fun conversation and a laugh. When I left St. Teresa for St. Isidore I thought that was that and I would never see him again.

Six months into my tenure in Bloomingdale, I realize that I would not only see Butch again, but that I needed him. The parish was so large (close to 7,000 families) with so many venues being used all evening long that it was never secured or locked up at night. I needed a night watchman. By this time, Butch's wife had moved to a nursing home in DesPlaines and he was commuting from Kankakee to DesPlaines three days a week. I made him a deal. If he would lock up the doors at night, I would give him a place to stay so he could be closer to his wife and see her every day. He took me up on it. He moved into the attic of our little chapel with no running water and literally bats in the belfry (he took care of the bats). If you think Butch is good at clearing a room here at Mary Queen of Heaven, you should have seen him at St. Isidore. But then there were a whole lot more rooms to clear.

When I moved to Mary Queen and discovered what a large rectory I had, and that Butch was being evicted by the fire department out of the attic, I invited him to come and stay with me here. And the rest, as they say, is history. Six out of the seven days a week he visits his wife. On the seventh day, he rests and kibitzes with his sister (he's a great older brother). He continues to lock up at night, mow our lawns, shovel our snow, do our room set-ups and any other job that needs to be done around here (he doesn't do windows... or meetings).

Butch and Father Tony

Butch and I have a lot in common: We were born in the same year, in the same city and had the same religion. We both love Jesus (Butch is not so sure about the Father) and, after I got him kick-started in Bloomingdale, love to read. After that, we have nothing in common: Butch is street smart and I'm not. I'm book smart and Butch thinks he isn't (he's smarter than he thinks). I love linguini with smoked oysters and anchovies and he loves corn beef hash (ugh). In many ways, Butch is my shadow side writ out loud. I swear, every dark thought I ever had, he speaks out loud. And he gets away with it. He truly has no guile. What you see is what you get. And he can say the most outlandish things without offending you. I once saw him tell a nun that she stinks. "Sister, no offence now mind you, but your body odor would stop a truck." Like I said, Butch is an honest man. Scary, isn't it?

But most of all, he is a faithful man. What you see, indeed, is what you get. His wife Andrea has been bed ridden for over 22 years. And hardly a day goes by when he isn't with her. That's pretty faithful love.

When I retire, we will be parting ways again. I will be off to the Monastery and Butch has a little apartment in Rosemont, just a couple of miles away from his wife.

I'm going to miss him big time. He has been a loyal friend, faithful husband, personal protector (don't mess with me when Butch is around) and soul mate. Butch, all the very, very best!

In Jesus, Our Mutual Friend,

Fr. Tony

Parish News

NO MEETINGS TO BE SCHEDULED FOR THE MONTH OF JULY

Due to maintenance and to give all parishioners the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful summer days, there will be no meetings scheduled on the parish grounds for the month of July.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Soon we will celebrate the feast of the Ascension of Our Lord when His human body left this earth to again be with the Father. He has by no means left us orphans; He is present still with us in the Holy Eucharist. You are invited to come into the His Eucharistic Presence during our day of Eucharistic Adoration, Monday, June 2nd. The day begins with Mass at 8:30 a.m. and ends with Benediction at 7:00 p.m. Please join us for Benediction too. There is a schedule in the back of church if you wish to sign up for a time that works for you. For questions, or to adopt an hour, call Kay Diggins at (630) 530-7214, or Rose Wilkes at (630) 833-7238.

WE'RE BACK FROM BOLIVIA

Our trip was a blessed trip, but they all are. This one was over the top with over 1,000 adults and children serviced in our clinics in different barrios all over Sucre. There were over 800 fluoride treatments with much dental work done. About 60 women went through the "Water with Blessings" program to empower them to make clean, safe water for their families and neighbors. A couple of construction jobs helped paint at two orphanages. Pencils, erasers, pencil sharpeners and undies were passed out to many, many happy hands. You all blessed me with over 1,000 vitamins and more were purchased after arriving. All these plus over-the-counter medicine were dispatched at the clinics. Happy faces, happy hearts were everywhere because of all of you. Thank you, thank you! Take a look at the photos and art work from the children in the back of church which were made for all of you!

My heart's blessings to all of you,
Judy

Religious Education News

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

RE Registrations - We are continuing to take registrations for those classes where there is still room. Please note that class lists are filling up and space is limited to registered parishioners. At this time, Grade 7 at the 5:15 session, is at capacity.

Catechists Needed - We have had some folks respond to our request for help and we thank you. However, we are still in need of a just a few catechists at various grade levels at various session times. If you are a loving, welcoming, accepting, forgiving person, you have the most important qualifications for being a catechist. You don't have to be a theologian, just someone who can help our children understand how the Gospel can be applied to their lives. Come share your Faith with the young people of Mary, Queen. Please contact the RE office for more information.

Thank You & Farewell

This is my last week here at Mary Queen. This is an amazing parish and I shall be grateful for all time for my good fortune to have spent the last 17 years here. I would like to thank Fr. Tony, all the RE families, and our amazing catechists and staff for their unwavering support of my ministry. I wish our new pastor Fr. Jason, the new RE Director and the returning staff continued success and God's blessings in making Mary Queen the absolute best parish in the Diocese. Please keep me in your prayers and I will do the same for you.

Peace,
Mary Ann
