Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

But they said to him, “Five loaves and two fish are all we have here.” Then he said, “Bring them here to me,” and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds — Mt 14:17-19

Note from the Director of Faith Formation

5 Loaves, 2 Fish and Hankering for More

In the Gospel today, Jesus feeds the multitude with a skimpy five loaves and two fish AND has leftovers. Before Jesus comes to the rescue He tells the Apostles to “give them something to eat yourselves.” The Apostles didn’t know where to start; so many people, so little food. Jesus didn’t expect them to do it alone. This miracle shows how a feast can come from a measly offering when serving the Kingdom of God. In seeking the Kingdom of God we discover the Lord Himself!

Hunger comes in various forms: hunger pains for nourishment, an appetite for knowledge, starved for attention, and hungry to win a competition. What a wonderful opportunity to feed the hungry! Or to satisfy a child’s curiosity to know more about Jesus! Or as a catechist to nourish your own spiritual appetite by deepening your faith! Like the Apostles, we are called to use our gifts and talents, however meager they seem to us, to serve others and build the Kingdom of God.

Becoming a catechist, catechist aide, or a volunteer with Religious Education is a way to satisfy your hunger for knowledge, build community, and pass on your faith to children. Presently, there is a need for catechists and catechist aides in some classes in grades 1-4 during the 3:15 - 4:30 p.m. and 5:15 - 6:30 p.m. sessions on Wednesday evenings.

Some of our RE sessions are filling up so make sure to register your children for classes. Our Opening Event for parents and children is Wednesday, September 10 from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Top 10 Reasons to Become a Catechist...

10. Kids say the darndest things that will surprise, delight, and sometimes shock you!
9. Relaxing at home on Wednesday evenings is so overrated.
8. God has been nudging you to get more involved in the Parish, so say yes to God!
7. The children are a captive audience for 1.5 hours each week ready to learn what you have carefully planned.

6. As a catechist you will have the Teacher Manual with MOST of the answers. For those times that you feel you don’t have the answer, trust that God has the answer.
5. You have experienced God’s goodness in your life and want to share this awareness with children.
4. You value the strong partnership between parents and catechists to build a strong foundation so the children become life-long Catholics.
3. The children will teach you as much as you teach them as you build up the Kingdom of God.
2. Everyone is called to be a “catechist”- one who echoes God’s word - so answer God’s call!
1. All catechists are supported by Jo, the Director of Faith Formation, with helpful hints in faith formation, lesson planning, and classroom management.

It is edifying to see that some of our catechist aides are high school students! If you feel called to be a catechist that will interact with children or want to volunteer to help out in the classroom, call Jo at the Religious Education Office.

JOYFUL AGAIN

This weekend we welcome people who have lost their spouses as they experience the Joyful Again! retreat/workshop. Mary Queen of Heaven has been hosting these newly widowed people in alternating years for the past 10 years, while Immaculate Conception welcomes this retreat during the "off" years for MQH. In existence for over 25 years, the Joyful Again! program works in conjunction with, and complimentary to, existing parish and community resources that address the grief immediately after a death. But more to the point, Joyful Again is there months (and even years) afterwards helping the widowed person resolve on-going grief, helping them over a part of the grief process where they seem stuck, or helping them look back on what they've been through as they now prepare to move on with their lives. The participants and staff would appreciate your prayers for them that this experience would leave them with tools they can use to truly be joyful again.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe, the priest who took the place of another man condemned to die at the concentration camp in Auschwitz, used to make an average of ten visits a day to the Blessed Sacrament, a practice he began as a young student. You are invited to come and adore Him during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, August 4 from after morning Mass at 8:30 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. when we close the day with Benediction. Come for Benediction too! Sign-up is in the back of church. Questions? Please call Kay Diggins at (630) 530-7214, or Rose Wilkes at (630) 833-7238. There is perpetual adoration in the Visitation adoration chapel located at 799 S. York Road.

MINISTRY OF CARE UPDATE

Please contact the rectory at (630) 279-5700 for those who need Home visit and Communion. Deacon Tom Nolan will then be in touch immediately to setup up time and date.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING SESSION

There will be an Altar Server training session on September 13 at 11:00 a.m. in the church for those in the fourth through eighth grades.

This session will be required for both new and veteran altar servers. In addition, a parent of each of the altar servers should also plan to attend to gain an understanding of the altar serving requirements. Please contact John Vosicky at jkvosicky@sbcglobal.net to confirm your attendance or if you have any questions.

LET'S HELP PICK UP LITTER

You don't have to wait for an organized clean up day to help. If you are out walking, biking, canoeing or hiking, bring an extra bag to pick up litter. Imagine how we could reduce litter if we all picked up 5 pieces of trash while out and about.

GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE DONATE BLOOD OR PLATELETS SUMMER SHORTAGE

People go on vacation and blood supplies get low. Please donate blood during the months of July, August, and September. Call or go online and contact LifeSource at (877) 543 - 3768 or the American Red Cross at (800) 733-2767 to donate. Eat healthy the whole week before to make sure you have enough iron. Donating blood takes about a 1/2 hour. Donating platelets is done while watching a movie or reading a book, so about two hours. Platelets are used for infections and for those undergoing therapy for cancer and leukemia, and other conditions.
