He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter said in reply, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Jesus said to him in reply, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father.”

Note from the Pastor

This weekend at the Saturday evening Mass, Bishop Daniel Conlon will install me as the eighth pastor of Mary Queen of Heaven Parish. Having this ceremony now may seem like an afterthought, considering that I have been working as pastor for two months. The rite does not imply that the role of pastor begins at the installation as when one installs a new light bulb, which begins to shine light suddenly on the last twist.

Instead, the rite of installation beautifully presents in a public liturgical way what has been going on since my appointment... the introductions that happen at the beginning of a relationship. The installation rite is a series of introductions. The rite begins with the bishop commending me to you, the people of Mary Queen of Heaven, as your pastor. After the homily, he will then present to me the deacons and staff, who will "assist [me] in the pastoral care of the people of this parish." Then he will present to me the parish council, and remind me to be attentive to the needs they express, because they are the voice of the people of the parish. In the final part of the rite, the bishop will encourage me to be "a loving father, a gentle shepherd, and a wise teacher of [the] people", so that I may lead them to Christ. I will then lead the parish in reciting the creed followed by my promise to the bishop and to the people of this parish that I will be faithful to the teaching of the Church in everything I do as your pastor.

It will be quite the introduction. And, it will be quite the challenge and charge for me to live up to the responsibility of this role of pastor to which I am being installed. I am confident that it was the Holy Spirit that called me to this new role, and that the Spirit has been working to prepare me for installation for quite some time. I know that with the Spirit's gifts and your prayers, the introductions made at the installation will result in the fruitful growth of our relationships with each other and with God.

Thank you for your prayers and know of my prayers for you.

Fr. Jason

Religious Education News

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

In today's Gospel Jesus asked the Apostles who they believe Jesus is. Peter declared that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. What is your image of Jesus? To some Jesus is a leader and protector like a Good Shepherd. To others Jesus is a compassionate friend always ready and able to forgive. In times of pain and suffering, we look to Jesus crucified; the one present with us, who knows our pain. Jesus is the Light of the World shining brightly in our joy and happiness. Who is Jesus?

Parents, on the way home, discover your child's image of Jesus. Share your image of Jesus when you were younger and your image of Jesus now.

Religious Education classes begin Wednesday, September 10. There is a need for catechists in different time slots. If you are interested, please talk to Jo in the REO to find out more about the rewards of youth catechesis.

For more information on any of the above, please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962 or email us at re@maryqueen.org.

HELP IN HARD TIMES

The speed and severity of the financial and economic recession is threatening many people in the country, including some in our community and parish. In an attempt to provide one source of assistance, the MQH Peace and Justice Committee has developed a list of organizations that provide a wide variety of help to those in need. Copies of the list are available for use not only for parishioners, but also for passing on to those you know who are facing difficulties. Please do not hesitate to avail yourself of these sources of assistance.
