Note from the Pastor

This week the liturgy reminds us of the presence and reality of angels. On Monday, we celebrate the feast of the Archangels Michael, Raphael, and Gabriel. Thursday is the memorial of guardian angels. The angels have a valuable role to play as helpers in our spiritual lives. We all give thanks for our guardian angels, especially after near misses, but how often do you seek the assistance of the angels in your prayers?

The Archangels are celebrated in a special way because we know a little of their personality through their presence in scripture. The Archangel Michael is best known for his appearance in Revelation 12 in an epic battle in which he defeats the dragon. Michael is often invoked in prayer as a defender, and I have found that the prayer to him "St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle" is a powerful prayer to use on those days when I feel like I am fighting the dragon. Gabriel is best known for announcing to Mary, God's plan for her to be the mother of the Messiah. Gabriel is the patron of those who work in communications. He is a good choice of intercessor for our young people who are discerning God's call for their lives and for all of us as we daily struggle to hear where God is calling us to serve Him. Raphael (Parents, please explain to your children that he was known as an angel before everyone associated his name with the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles!) appears in the book of Tobit as a guide for Tobiah on his journey which ends with him meeting his wife. As such, Raphael is a good angel's help to seek whenever you are traveling. Also, he is a good intercessor for those preparing for, or journeying on, the road of marriage.

Our knowledge of angels does not end with the three Archangels, as there are many other angels. In fact, each of us has one, not just to protect us from accidents, but as Pope Pius XII writes, "Everyone, no matter how humble he may be, has angels to watch over him. They are heavenly, pure and splendid, and yet they have been given us to keep us company on our way: they have been given the task of keeping careful watch over you so that you do not become separated from Christ, their Lord."

Let us remember to include the angels in our prayers. Their intercessions and help is an invaluable resource in our spiritual lives. I encourage you to pray to your guardian angel this week, using this or another prayer:

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day, be at my side,
To light and guard, Rule and guide. Amen.

BABY BOTTLES FOR LIFE

During the month of October, our parish will be participating in a special fundraiser to promote and further a Culture of Life within our parish and local community. The proceeds of this event will help support the life-saving work of Woman's Choice Services, a Catholic pregnancy center with offices located in Joliet & Lombard.

Baby bottles will be distributed to parishioners on the weekend of October 4 and 5 to take home and fill with spare change. Bottles will then be returned to the parish by the weekend of October 18 and 19.

This fundraiser is a great way for each member of the family to help in building a Culture of Life. Thank you in advance for your response to the call of the Gospel to serve those in great need!

DO YOU WANT TO LEARN "CATHOLIC" LANGUAGE?

Even though you are a "cradle Catholic" you might be curious to know the meanings behind our rites and rituals. Also, Church terminology is not often used in our secular world and therefore unfamiliar to many. Want to learn more? Consider taking part in the RCIA catechesis! You can join us at 9:30 a.m. in Rm. 13 of the school. Here are a few offerings that might be of interest:

- ♦ Sept. 28: The Bible
- ♦ Oct. 5: How do Catholics Interpret the Bible?
- ♦ Oct. 12: All aboard! Church Tour!
- ♦ Oct. 26: The Saints

Please call Mimi Nolan at 630-279-5700 ex. 122 for more information.

Religious Education News

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

There will be a pet blessing on Wednesday, October 4 at 4:45 p.m. on the Mary Queen grounds in honor of the Feast of St. Francis. Bring your friendly beasts, scaly pals, and furry friends to be blessed outside.

St. Francis is the patron saint of environmentalists and animals. We can live in reverence for the earth and the environment from St. Francis' love for God's wondrous gifts of creation.

Today try to take a family walk and really notice the beauty of nature. Take time for quiet and peace surrounded by God's presence outside.

For more information on any of the above, please contact the REO, (630) 832-8962 or email us at re@maryqueen.org.
