A Respect For Life

Truly you have formed my inmost being;
you knit me in my mother's womb.
I give you thanks that I am fearfully,
wonderfully made;
wonderful are your works.
My soul also you knew full well.

Psalm 139:13-14

Note from the Pastor

This weekend the Church asks us to pray for a greater respect for all human life. In the United States, the first Sunday of October has been designated as "Respect Life" Sunday.

We should all be praying every day that we would live our lives in a way that respects the great gift of life we have been given and that the culture would function so as to respect all life. We are given this day and time to call us to reflect anew on the gift of life and to make an extra effort to pray for the protection of life.

To help us on this effort, we are given the theme "Each of Us is a Masterpiece of God's Creation" to meditate and pray upon. The theme is pulled from the address of Pope Francis on the occasion of the 2013 Mass for the Day of the Gospel of Life. He said, "Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect."

Have you ever looked upon a piece of art and found yourself drawn into it in such a way that you are just awestruck at the beauty and complexity of the work? I know that I have experienced such awe when I gazed upon great masterpieces such as the Sistine Chapel. However, I know that I have been struck with the same awe in much simpler pieces, such as the gratitude expressed in cards with simple art colored by grade school children. The greatest work of art on this earth, I came to realize in anatomy classes in college, is this body that was created for us and the miracle that we made it to birth, through the risky things we did as teenagers, and the blessing of continued life that each new day brings. Life is a masterpiece which deserves our awe and our respect.

In this time when we are called to ponder how we are being called to respect life, let us commit ourselves to responding in a deeper way to the challenge given by Pope Francis: "Look to God as the God of Life. Let us say "Yes" to love and not selfishness. Let us say "Yes" to life and not death. Let us say "Yes" to freedom and not enslavement to the many idols of our time. In a word, let us say "Yes" to the God Who is love, life and freedom and who never disappoints. Only faith in the Living God saves us. Let us ask Mary, Mother of Life, to help us receive and bear constant witness to the "Gospel of Life". Amen."

Diocesan Priests Will Be On Retreat

This week, all of the priests of the Diocese of Joliet will be on retreat at Mundelein Seminary. This means that throughout the diocese, parishes will be having limited Daily Mass schedules.

At Mary Queen of Heaven, Mass will be offered only on Monday at 8:30 a.m., with communion services Tuesday through Friday at 8:30 a.m. There will be morning Masses offered at nearby parishes: St. John Vianney, Northlake at 7:30 a.m. every day. Immaculate Conception 7:30 a.m. Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. St. John, Villa Park 8:00 a.m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

Please pray for Fr. Jason and all of the priests of the diocese as they go away to pray and seek the Lord's help and guidance in their ministry.

Parish News

FR. TONY ACCEPTING PRAYER REQUESTS

As he is settling into his hermitage in Big Sur, CA, Fr. Tony is finding that if he has anything, it is time for prayer. There is a Prayer Box in the back of church in which you are welcome to place your prayer requests. They will periodically be gathered and sent to Fr. Tony.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

As Mary Queen of Heaven continues to grow so does our need for volunteers. It is truly a privilege and humbling experience for all Catholics to handle the Body and Blood of Christ.

Eucharistic Minister training will take place with Fr. Jason on Saturday, October 25 at 9:00 a.m. in the Church. Please call Bernie Eadon at (630) 279-5938 with questions.

Requirements

Must have received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Must be a Catholic in good standing with the Church.

Must be at least 16 years old.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him..." (Blessed Teresa of Calcutta). You can spend time with Jesus during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, October 6, from after morning Mass until 7:00 p.m. when we close the day with Benediction. Please refer to the sign-up chart in the back of church for hours needing adorers. For questions or to adopt an hour, please call Kay Diggins at 630-530-7214, or Rose Wilkes at 630-833-7238. Our sister parish, Visitation, provides 24/7 adoration in the convent chapel, 799 S. York.

BABY BOTTLES FOR LIFE

Baby bottles will be distributed to parishioners on the weekend of October 4 and 5 to take home and fill with spare change. Bottles will then be returned to the parish by the weekend of October 18 and 19. This fundraiser is a great way for each member of the family to help in building a Culture of Life. Thank you in advance for your response to the call of the Gospel to serve those in great need!

DO YOU WANT TO LEARN “CATHOLIC” LANGUAGE?

Even though you are a “cradle Catholic” you might be curious to know the meanings behind our rites and rituals. Also, Church terminology is not often used in our secular world and therefore unfamiliar to many. Want to learn more? Consider taking part in the RCIA catechesis! You can join us at 9:30 a.m. in Rm. 13 of the school. Here are a few offerings that might be of interest:

- ◆ Oct. 5: How do Catholics Interpret the Bible?
- ◆ Oct. 12: All aboard! Church Tour!
- ◆ Oct. 26: The Saints

Religious Education

FROM THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION DIRECTOR

In today's Gospel, Jesus explains how some people didn't listen to God's message because of the messenger. Has a friend ever reminded you that you shouldn't do something? Did your mom or dad ever correct your behavior? Have you ever been corrected by your brother or sister? Has a classmate ever reminded you not to talk while the teacher is talking? How should we respond to those who correct us? Let's face it, sometimes we are not always on our best behavior and we need to be called out so our behavior can improve.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells a story to help us understand that sometimes we don't like hearing the message because of who is telling us. Does that mean the message is wrong? Not always. Perhaps the message is harder to take if it comes from a sibling, a classmate or even a friend. Listen to the message! If the message is true, then take the message to heart.

Jesus' message is clear. God sends people to help us love and obey Him. God wants us to be our best. If we want to be part of the Kingdom of God, we shouldn't act like the wicked tenants in the parable, instead we should change our ways.

On the way home, think about the way you accept corrections from others. Think about how you correct others. Thank God for His messengers in your life who correct you because they love you and know that you want to be the best you can be. Ask God to help you become a living messenger of the Good News.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

On October 13, 2013, Pope Francis consecrated the world to Our Lady of Fatima's Immaculate Heart. The message given by Our Lady to the children at Fatima 97 years ago is increasingly relevant in today's turbulent times. Come and join in the celebration of the Eucharist at this special Mass and join in prayers to Our Lady for her intervention at this time for our world and our own personal intentions. As we all know, Our Lady intervenes to her Son for our petitions.
