Note from the Pastor

May God bless you on this Solemnity of Christ the King. This celebration marks the culmination and end of the liturgical year 2014. What a year it has been! My life is certainly different than a year ago. I hope yours has changed for the better also. The process of transition is a long one that takes time. Every day I feel more at home here and continue to work to improve my ability to stay on top of all of the new responsibilities that are coming my way. I know change can be challenging. Thank you for your patience with me as we all adjust to our new relationships.

The new liturgical year is a good time to review and inform you of adjustments in our worship. Some have already been happening, others begin next week. Let's run through some of the things that are already being or will be handled differently, taking it "from the top."

- ♦ Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors will be expected to report to the sacristy to sign in before Mass begins. Anyone not present 10 minutes before Mass may be replaced. The Deacon and/or a designated Mass Captain will be charged with ensuring ministers are present before Mass to avoid the disruptions that have occurred during the Mass in order to recruit replacements.
- ♦ Announcements will be read by the Lector immediately before Mass begins. We are working to keep the announcements concise and to avoid repetition. Information and announcements are readily available in the bulletin and on the website.
- ♦ Once the announcements begin, please be respectful and quiet, even in the Narthex. Sound carries from the Narthex through the choir loft into the Church.
- ♦ The responsorial song is led by the Cantor at the ambo. Since the responsorial psalm is a proclamation of the word just like the first, second, and Gospel readings, it should be proclaimed from the ambo.
- ♦ The Universal Prayers (a.k.a. Prayers of the Faithful) will be read by the Deacon (or Lector if no Deacon is present.) The Deacon is the representative of the people on the altar, and it is preferred that he lead the prayers of the people.

- ♦ The offering will be taken up and then processed to the altar with the gifts of bread and wine, so that the gifts of the people are all offered together. It does take a couple more minutes this way, but the offertory should be a time to slow down and shift gears as Mass shifts from Word to Sacrament.
- ♦ At the Lamb of God, servers have been moved to the opposite side of the altar in order to allow the Eucharistic Ministers to line up single file. Eucharistic Ministers will have signed up for their station assignments before Mass to avoid the confusion that has arisen by trying to relay assignments on the spot.
- ♦ The Priest and Deacon will purify the vessels after communion. This is done because of the reverence we have for remaining particles of the Eucharist and as a reminder of how the Eucharist we just received purifies our hearts.
- ♦ Finally, there have been some questions and confusion about the timing of our "Catholic Calisthenics" (a.k.a. when to sit/stand/kneel) around communion time. We have moved away from the verbal queues which were disruptive. Generally, we change posture during a transition between prayers and not during a prayer. The norm is to stand after the Great Amen is sung, to kneel from after the singing of the Lamb of God until one rises to receive communion, sitting or kneeling after receiving communion until the priest stands to begin the Prayer after Communion, at which time all stand. One may always sit if they are unable to kneel or stand.

These adjustments come after discussions with the ministry heads and/or liturgy committee around how to ensure that our liturgy runs well so that it can serve its purpose of providing a time for prayer and spiritual growth. I pray that the fruits of these efforts outweigh any inconsistencies or inconveniences while we transition them into practice. Again, thank you for your patience in this time of transition. I feel blessed that I am with you in prayer and in community and look forward to growing in the Spirit with you as we journey together.

Religious Education

Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. Kings don't always have good reputations like King Midas or King Herod. Jesus, King of the Universe is the Servant King. Remember in the Gospel when Jesus washed the apostles' feet as an example of how to serve others. Imagine Jesus, the King of the Universe, stooping down to wash the dirty feet of Peter and the other apostles. Let Jesus be the King of our hearts, minds, and souls. We should follow his example of service, and let Jesus rule our lives to make good choices with love for others.

There is no RE on Wednesday, November 26. Enjoy the Thanksgiving holiday! All is gift! Being grateful to God for the goodness in our lives leads us to being more generous with others.

Next week as we celebrate Thanksgiving, artistic murals designed by the RE kids showing God's goodness and our deep gratitude to God will be on display.
