Candlemas

Q Luke's Gospel is the only one to mention the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. What is Luke trying to communicate here and what connection does it have with Mary?

A February 2 is exactly forty days after December 25, the nativity of Jesus. Jewish law (Ex 13:2, 12) dictated that Jesus, as the firstborn, be consecrated to God. This was done by the parents as they presented their Son in the Temple.

Jewish law further specified (Lv 12:2-8) that a mother was ritually impure after giving birth, and that she had to wait a set period of time (forty days for a boy) before she was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord for purification.

The convergence of these two Jewish regulations occasions Luke's account of both the Presentation of the Lord and the Purification of Mary. These days the liturgical emphasis is more on the Presentation of Jesus. Luke highlights the role of Simeon and Anna, two righteous Jews who recognized Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah and praised God for being able to see and experience such a marvel in their lifetimes.

Simeon's prayer concerning the special role of Jesus states that Jesus is "a light for revelation to the Gentiles." This phrase eventually originated the custom of blessing candles on this day which were to be used in the ceremonies, rituals, and processions throughout the church year. Thus February 2 is also known as Candlemas Day. This day is indeed a rich feast to be savored.

The Blessing of Throats

February 3rd is the feast of St. Blaise.

The Blessing of Throats will occur after all Masses this weekend as well as on the feast day.

Q A special blessing of throats occurs on the feast of St. Blaise, February 3. What is the origin of this?

A St. Blaise, Biagio in Italian, Blasco or Blas in Spanish, was a bishop of Sebaste, Armenia, in modern Turkey, who was martyred for witnessing to the faith. He was tortured and beheaded for his beliefs by the local Roman governor around AD 316. This is all that is known about him, the rest being legend. We know much more about devotion to and the popularity of St. Blaise than historical facts.

The special blessing of throats associated with St. Blaise is due to a miracle attributed to him. While in prison, he miraculously saved a boy choking on a fish bone. Early in the sixth century, evidence exists in the Eastern Church that Blaise was prayed to for ailments of the throat. To this day, his feast is a holy day in the Eastern Church. In the ninth century, veneration of St. Blaise came to the Western Church and became very popular. Blessing of the throats with crossed candles began in the 1500s, the height of devotion to St. Blaise, and that blessing is still part of the devotion of the Catholic Church.

No matter what the facts are, St. Blaise is a constant reminder to us of God's care and concern for us in our weakness, sickness, and limited human existence. God's healing touch is with us always. St. Blaise's celebration is one of the ways in which we highlight and thank God for that care and concern.

Eucharistic

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Thomas Merton said that in prayer "we just need to sit there and let God work on us." He will be there for you during Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, February 2nd from 9am to 7pm. You are invited to join us for Benediction at 7:00pm to close the day. Please see the sign-up poster in the back of church if you wish to join other adorers during a given hour of the day. For questions call Kay Diggins at (630) 530-7214.

Our sister parish, Visitation, provides 24/7 adoration in their Perpetual Adoration chapel, Our Lady, Mother of the Eucharist, 799 S. York.

LAST CHANCE!

Is that small voice still calling you?

"I filled out the paper work three separate times debating on going or not. But I'm glad I finally made up my mind to go. This spiritual renewal weekend was more than I expected. And I've been on a lot of retreat weekends before. It has brought the meaning of community back to church. It has strengthened my relationship to God by the great support system it provides. It helps us all join and work together as a parish, the way a parish should be." Sarah Johnson

The deadline is quickly approaching for the women's weekend. Please sign up now! Registrations can be placed in the box on the CRHP table in the back of the church. There are a lot of surprises in store for participants and a lot of preparation goes into the planning, so please register as soon as possible!

Registration form on page four.

What's Cooking in RCIA??

It is time to get the parish family up to date with the happenings in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). In life, we are aware of one thing... CHANGE! This is also true in the Church as our liturgical leaders work to create more meaningful experiences of worship.

In the very early Church, the Sacrament of Baptism was an "adults only" affair and celebrated each year on the night of the Easter Vigil. It was a very big deal! Still is! Through the years, adult candidates coming into the Church from other Christian traditions were brought in along with the catechumens. It became a bit of a hodge podge of confusion.

We are now asked to keep the various groups in separate celebrations. Only those adults who seek Baptism along with Confirmation and Eucharist, will be brought in at the Easter Vigil. We have no adults seeking Baptism this year so our Easter Vigil will be somewhat different (a little shorter for starters!).

MQH will be welcoming three adults to the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist:

Joan Letourneau is a Catholic completing her Sacraments of Initiation by being confirmed in the faith and receiving Eucharist for the first time. Teresa Stockman was Baptized in another Christian tradition, and now seeks full communion with the Catholic Church by being Confirmed and also receiving her First Communion. Both women will receive these Sacraments at the 8:30 Mass on April 19.

Russ Stockman (Theresa's husband) has been a practicing Catholic, but was never Confirmed. He will be Confirmed by the Bishop at the Cathedral in Joliet on May 17.

As you can see, often people come to the faith on various paths... all leading to the same place... Jesus Christ! If you know of someone who would like to know more about the Sacraments of the Church, please have them call Mimi Nolan at the rectory (630) 279-5700.

WOMEN IN FAITH

Women Gathering in Faith is directed towards women who would like to get a deeper understand of God's love for us. During the monthly gathering, the facilitator, Mary Ellen Schneider, will focus on a different topic that will challenge participants to think deeply about their faith and enter prayerful conversation with each other and the Lord.

The gatherings are centered around topics that will expand into conversation and faith building. Depending on the topic covered, participants will be able to take home a special gift that can be used as a reminder of the lessons learned.

This program is being held at St. Alexander Parish, 300 S. Cornell, Villa Park, IL

The next gathering will be on Wednesday, February 18 in the St. Alexander Room of their Parish Center immediately following their 8:30am Mass. Refreshments are served and the morning will conclude at 11:00am. Donation: $10.00. The topic presented on this day is "Miraculous Crucifixes."

"Faith is an entirely free gift that God gives to man."

Catechism of the Catholic Church, #162

On Wednesday, February 4, there is a mandatory meeting for Confirmation Candidates and their parents at 6:45pm in Barrett Hall. Sponsors are encouraged to attend.

On Wednesday, February 11, there is a mandatory meeting at 6:45pm for all parents and children who are receiving Eucharist for the first time this year. Banner instructions will be distributed, as well as the opportunity to sign up for the Liturgy in April or in May.

February 18 is Ash Wednesday. There is no RE class so that all may attend the Ash Wednesday Liturgy in the evening.

Religious Education Calendar Change

On Wednesday, February 25, RE classes will not meet! The catechists are attending an evening of Catechetical Enrichment.

Home School Families

There are still opportunities to sign up for a family conference to discuss the year's RE progress at home. If you need to schedule a conference, please call Jo Styler at the REO. Thank you to the families with whom I have met. It is wonderful to see and hear how families are living and sharing their faith in the domestic church.

2015 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL "EXTENDING GOD'S MERCY"

Bishop Conlon's mailing asking for a pledge to the 2015 Catholic Ministries

Annual Appeal (CMAA) is in the hands of many of our parishioners. If you have received the mailing, please respond as soon as possible. If you have not received it, please contact our parish office at (630) 279-5700.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is "Extending God's Mercy." Pope Francis recently said that Mercy "goes beyond in such a way that sin is put to the side. It is like heaven. We look at the sky, there are many, many stars; but when the sun rises in the morning, the light is such that we can't see the stars. God's mercy is like that: a great light of love and tenderness."

We are called by the Gospel to be a light unto others. By showing mercy to those in need, by helping build the kingdom of God in our own parish and our own diocese, we are a like the morning light. Please shine bright by making a generous gift to the CMAA.

The CMAA funds the mission and ministries of our diocese. It also funds services that are of great help to the ministries here in our parish. For example, funds support catechist training and transitional housing.

Please answer the bishop's request and make a generous pledge. All pledges can be paid in ten installments. Thank you in advance for your support.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

In today's second reading St Paul talks about the fact that married couples have to deal with the anxieties of the world. Sometimes those stresses can really have a negative impact on our marriages. Get away from all those worldly anxieties and take time to just focus on God and each other by making a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends are February 13-15, 2015, April 17-19, 2015 or June 12-14, 2015, all in Elk Grove Village, IL. Early registration is highly recommended. For reservations and additional information, call Jim & Kris at (630) 577-0778 or contact us through
