A Message from the Pastor

Christ is risen! Alleluia!
He is truly risen! Alleluia!

The above Paschal Greeting has been used since the early days of Christianity. It is a greeting we should use with each other on this joy filled day, since it concisely presents the reason for our joy. It is the statement upon which our faith is founded: Jesus could not be contained even by death itself.

What peace that should bring us! What joy we should feel in knowing that God has not left us to perish after this life, but has come to die our death so as to show us the way to new life! We gather in this joy, hope, and faith and revel in the fact that we have been baptized into this new life opened to us by Jesus' resurrection.

When we gather as a Christian community, we join not only those physically around us, but with those who, throughout the ages have gathered in Jesus' name. Generations have sought the peace and joy that being an heir to the resurrection brings into their lives, even in the face of persecution, wars, and suffering. Indeed, faith in Jesus is not always easy, it does not promise happiness, but it does promise the peace of knowing that no matter our difficulties, no matter our struggles, Jesus will help us overcome them. If he can overcome death, he can overcome your struggles!

I invite you to renew your baptismal faith this weekend, and then keep the fire of Easter joy alive in your heart throughout the year. Mary Queen of Heaven is a friendly and welcoming community, whose members are committed to living and sharing this faith with all. I pray that all those who worship with us in joy on this Easter day, are renewed in their faith in the resurrection we celebrate every day of their lives.

Christ is truly risen! Alleluia! May God bless you and your family with Easter joy on this Resurrection day,

Fr Jason

Religious Education Happy Easter to all of the RE families! RE classes will resume for grades 1-7 on Wednesday, April 8. The newly Confirmed have finished classes for the year, but their lives of service, ongoing faith formation and seeking encounters with Jesus has just begun.

RE Registration materials for 2015-2016 will be ready this month. Each child currently in grades 1-7 will receive the registration forms. If you are new to the parish, please call the Religious Education Office (REO) for information on Religious Education or becoming a catechist.

Hey kids, as you bite the ears off the chocolate bunny in your basket, remember the daily prayers, the little sacrifices, and the generosity you showed to the poor as you jiggle the Heifer and Operation Rice Bowl Banks. These Lenten works and your desire to get closer to God makes the joy of Easter more real, and the deliciousness of the Easter candy all the sweeter.

You may bring your Heifer and Operation Rice Bowl Banks to RE on Wednesday, April 8. We will have a contest to guess how much money was collected for the poor.

Continue to pray every day, put others first, and give generously to those in need. Don't eat too much candy!
