A Message from the Pastor

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. It may seem a little out of place to return to the theme of mercy when we have just emerged from a 40 day season of seeking God's mercy. In the light of our Easter joy, we turn now to God's mercy. Now we do so not as a result of our awareness of our sins, faults, or failings, as in Lent. Instead, we celebrate and rejoice in the fact that God took the initiative and paid the price so that His mercy would be available to us, regardless of our sins, faults, or failings. Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world! Alleluia!

Staff Changes

Sister Marlene Geimer and Julie Blaszak have both informed me that they will be resigning their positions effective April 15th. Please join me in thanking them for their years of service to our community and praying that God will continue to bless them wherever he calls them.

Now Hiring

Mary Queen of Heaven Parish is seeking candidates for employment as a business manager. This position will be responsible for management and oversight of the finances of the parish, maintenance of Church buildings and grounds, and human resources. Good communication and interpersonal skills are important, as well as the ability to work collaboratively. Candidates must have a desire to use their skills to support the mission of the church. A bachelor's degree in business or a related field is preferred. Experience in the areas of personnel, finance, and facilities management is required. Experience with fundraising and marketing through social media is desirable. Some night and weekend availability will be needed. This position is part-time and not benefitted. The position is available on April 15th.

Mary Queen of Heaven Parish is seeking candidates for employment as an administrative assistant. The administrative assistant will be responsible for staffing the front desk, answering phones, maintaining sacramental and parishioner records, and secretarial assistance for the pastor and business manager. Good communication and interpersonal skills are important, as well as the ability to work collaboratively. Candidates must have a desire to use their skills to support the mission of the church. Office experience is required. High school diploma required, some higher education is desirable. Knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, and Publisher is required. Experience with Parish Data Systems software is desirable. Some night and weekend availability may be needed. This position is part-time and not benefitted. The position is available on April 15th.

Please email resumes for either position to parishoffice@maryqueen.org or mail it to Fr. Jason Stone, 426 N West Ave, Elmhurst, IL 60126.

Fr. Jason

It is with great anticipation and joy that the Diocese of Joliet cordially invites you to the

*2015 World Meeting of Families
September 22nd through 27th
Philadelphia Convention Center
Philadelphia, PA*

Since its inception by Saint John Paul II in 1994, the World Meeting of Families has sought to strengthen the sacred bonds of family across the globe. Join us for a week of spiritual enrichment, as we discuss the multi-faceted issues facing families today during the various keynotes and breakout sessions. You will hear practical talks from a wide variety of engaging speakers on the reality of the Catholic teaching on marriage and family life. With a central goal of strengthening families in very practical ways, this conference promises to give all who attend something to take home and share in their own faith communities.

On Saturday we will participate in the Festival of Families and welcome Pope Francis I to Philadelphia. On Sunday morning we will be privileged to celebrate Holy Mass with Pope Francis.

Because space is limited, interested persons are urged to contact the Office of Family Ministry (815) 838-5334.

Diocesan / Deanery News

Each day at Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet we meet individuals and families who need an angel -- veterans who have lost their homes, single mothers who seek warm clothes for their children, and seniors who are forced to choose between paying rent and buying food.

Thankfully, we have found someone who is so special and generous... that he is almost like an angel on earth. This anonymous donor wants to team up with you to continue to help our struggling neighbors. For every dollar you donate, our special angel will match it – up to $50,000.

Please be generous. This is an opportunity to help someone who will have nowhere else to turn if Catholic Charities isn't there to help. Please send in a donation by May 31st. Make checks payable to:

Catholic Charities Angel Fund
203 N. Ottawa Street
Joliet, IL 60432

Donations can also be made at catholiccharitiesjoliet.org or by calling Claudia at (815) 724-1140. Bless you for your support of Catholic Charities. Together we are doing God's work – and changing and saving lives! If you can't send a gift, please remember the vulnerable and needy in your prayers.

Catholic Charities Mission

We are a faith-based organization providing service to people in need and calling others of good will to do the same.

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Deanery Liturgical Enrichment Day for Ministers Held

Growing in Faith through Ministry, a morning of enrichment for Hospitality Ministers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and Music Ministers was held on March 7th at Ascension of Our Lord Church in Oakbrook Terrace. Over 260 attendees from the sixteen parishes of the Eastern DuPage Deanery had the opportunity to enjoy a continental breakfast followed by a morning of reflection. The keynote speaker was Fr. Richard Fragomeni, Professor of Liturgy and Preaching. Breakout sessions followed for each of the ministries. Collaborative events allow us to provide faith-enriching events that would be difficult to accomplish at the parish level. Great attendance and positive feedback for this event has encouraged the deanery to explore other future events. Please refer to the Deanery Calendar link on our website, www.stjohnvillapark.org.
