and Blood of Christ*

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

- Mk 14:23-25

A Note from Father Jason

For centuries, blood has been perceived as the life force in humans. For most of us, the complexity of what blood does as it courses through our bodies is lost to most of us. Our bodies need blood. But we can willingly part with some blood with little consequence to our health (aside from maybe a brief feeling of wooziness) when we donate blood to a local blood bank.

In His death on the cross, Christ made the ultimate donation of blood. He shed His blood and gave His life for our salvation. When Jesus hands the cup to His disciples at the Last Supper, He says to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many" (Mk 14:24). These words of the Lord are repeated at every Mass, reminding us that it is more than wine in the chalice we take up, and more than bread in the host we consume.

As we celebrate this solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, and the deep mystery that exists in that sacrament of Christ's gift to us, we realize that we are weak human beings as we stand before the power of God. In receiving the Body and Blood of Christ we are renewed, nourished, and healed. Like a blood transfusion for an ailing individual, the sacrament of Christ's body and blood gives us strength for our daily lives. Fortified by Christ, we can no longer be anemic in our faith. Rather, with the full vigor that comes from regularly sharing in the Eucharist we live out our lives as Christians.

Corpus Christi is a good time for a few reminders about receiving the Eucharist:

- ♦ Only Catholics who are properly disposed to receive the sacrament should receive communion. This means that one has confessed any serious sins and fasted for one hour before receiving the sacrament.
- ♦ When one approaches the minister, he or she should place one hand over the other until the host is placed on the hand. The hand beneath is then used to pick up the host and place it in the mouth.
- ♦ It has been brought to my attention that parishioners are walking away without consuming the host. It is a serious sin to do anything with the Eucharist other than to place it in your mouth immediately. Eucharistic Ministers can and should stop those who do not consume the host.

- ♦ It is not permitted for a communicant to take the host to a minister of the cup and dip the host in the precious blood.
- ♦ One wishing to receive on the tongue should open their mouth wide enough for the host to be dropped in with the tongue extended only slightly. Please hold still until the host is on your tongue to prevent contact with the minister's hand.
- ♦ Ministers say "The Body of Christ" or "The Blood of Christ" and the communicant responds "Amen."
- ♦ Personal Pyxes may not be placed on the altar or in the bowl to be brought up to the altar, unless you have been given permission to do so by Fr. Jason or the priest celebrating the Mass. If you have a special dietary or other concern about the Eucharist or know someone who needs Eucharist brought to the homebound, please see Fr. Jason, Deacon Tom, or Deacon Alex.

May the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, keep us all safe for eternal life,

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Our journey through life is seldom a straight path. Our personal choices or decisions that others make for us can impact our lives including our spiritual lives.

- ◆ Are you, or do you know of someone who was baptized in the Catholic faith, but for various reasons never completed their sacramental preparation by receiving Eucharist and Confirmation?
- ◆ Perhaps your family moved frequently or you never connected to a parish family in your younger years and were not part of a Religious Education program.
- ◆ Have you been attending Mass with your Catholic spouse, and have an interest in learning more about the Catholic faith?
- ◆ Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic or someone who has never been baptized?

If you can relate to these situations, consider completing your sacramental preparation by looking into the RCIA!

Are you curious to learn more about how you can enrich your spiritual life through full participation in the life of the church through the sacraments?

Stop by Room 13 in the school at 9:30 a.m. on any of the following dates to meet the RCIA Team and to learn more about us and how you can become part of the Catholic Church: June 14, 28, and July 12, 26.

You can also contact Jo Styler directly: re@maryqueen.org or Deacon Alex and Marie Grozik: almar402@comcast.net

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Heifer International. Thank you to all the generous families who donated to the Heifer Project way back in March and April. The RE kids voted to purchase a pig. However, a very generous family matched our collection! With these magnanimous donations MQH RE is able to purchase the following menagerie:

- ◆ 2 pigs, 1 goat, 1 sheep
- ◆ Hope Basket- a flock of chicks, and some rabbits
- ◆ 1 Community Animal Health Worker Kit
- ◆ 1 Hive of Honey Bees, 1 batch of rabbits
- ◆ Flock of Hope- a flock of ducks and geese

These animals and the health worker kit will help many families become sustainable and move out of poverty. This is a "hand up" that we can feel proud to be a part of in building God's kingdom on earth.

RE Registrations for 2015-2016 continue. All registration forms are on the MQH parish website. Registration forms are also available at the REO. Volunteers are needed in September on Wednesdays during RE. Catechists, catechist helpers, hall monitors, and office helpers are an important part of RE. If you are interested in being a part of our catechetical team at MQH, please call Jo at the REO to see where you would fit in best.

MQH Parish Summer Book Club

WHY STAY CATHOLIC ? by Michael Leach

It's summer; time to enjoy a more relaxed schedule, some fun in the sun, and hunker down with a great read.

A great book makes one think, and a great book club encourages sharing ideas about the book. Perhaps you will even explore your own life stories about why you stay Catholic.

MQH offers 2 ways to share!

1. ONLINE SHARING via EMAILS: Discussion questions will be posted via group emails and sharing will occur at your leisure over a six week period.
2. MEET AT MQH once a week for 6 weeks to share your ideas in small groups. Time to meet will be determined by the group.

If you are interested in either model for the parish book club, come to the information meeting on:
