A Note from Father Jason

This weekend in the Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus calming the storm. We can no doubt relate, especially after last Monday's downpour, with the helpless feeling of the apostles in the face of the raw power of a storm. At some point, you have probably also felt like Jesus was asleep and not with you in one of life's many storms. And, you probably have felt convicted by his question: "Why did you doubt?" That is part of being human. We face the responsibilities, roles, and difficulties that life throws at us with as much courage as we muster, hoping that our faith outweighs our doubt.

This weekend, we celebrate Father's Day. When we were afraid of the storms we faced as children, often mom was the comforter, but dad was the one that protected and navigated the family away from the danger. It is often said that parenthood is learned on the job because there is no manual that is handed to you with the birth of a child. It is certainly learned as you go.

A father is a man who loves without cost to his children and tries to raise them to be fully human creatures with the abilities to make a difference in our world. Some fathers are successful, some are not. However, almost all try their best. As such, as we remember our fathers on this day of fatherhood, let us focus on and be grateful for their efforts.

Let us pray for all fathers, that they would be given the faith and courage to lead their families through whatever storms life throws on them.

Saint Joseph, patron of fathers, pray for them.

Fa Jason

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Our journey through life is seldom a straight path. Our personal choices or decisions that others make for us can impact our lives including our spiritual lives.

- ◆ Are you, or do you know of someone who was baptized in the Catholic faith, but for various reasons never completed their sacramental preparation by receiving Eucharist and Confirmation?
- ◆ Perhaps your family moved frequently or you never connected to a parish family in your younger years and were not part of a Religious Education program.
- ◆ Have you been attending Mass with your Catholic spouse, and have an interest in learning more about the Catholic faith?
- ◆ Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic or someone who has never been baptized?

If you can relate to these situations, consider completing your sacramental preparation by looking into the RCIA!

Are you curious to learn more about how you can enrich your spiritual life through full participation in the life of the church through the sacraments?

Stop by Room 13 in the school at 9:30 a.m. on any of the following dates to meet the RCIA Team and to learn more about us and how you can become part of the Catholic Church: June 28, and July 12, 26.

You can also contact Jo Styler directly: re@maryqueen.org or Deacon Alex and Marie Grozik: almar402@comcast.net

Catholic Education/Faith Formation

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

I Feel Called to Be a Catechist... but...

Maybe being a catechist is something you feel God is calling you to, but you've got some reservations.

"I'm hesitant to become a catechist because..."
"...I don't know if I can handle a group of kids. I am not a teacher."

Every teacher or catechist gets nervous at the beginning of the year when meeting their class for the first time, even the kids. As the Director of Faith Formation, I want you to succeed! As an experienced teacher, I can give you tips on classroom management so that the kids in your class will know what behavior is expected. Setting up a routine will help the kids to know how the time and lesson will proceed. In the words of St. Francis de Sales, "Be yourself, and be that well." That is, be your best self: kind, patient, considerate, and prepared, the kids will be drawn to the person of Christ within you. Find Jesus in each person you interact with and you will radiate the love of Christ. You will have support, encouragement and help along the way.

"...I don't know if I'll be able to answer kids' questions."

Being a catechist does not mean that you have all of the answers. Children can often be profound in their search for understanding God and such. Be honest. You could say, "That is a great question, what do you think?" or "I am going to have to look that up for us." And realize that some questions that children ask do not have an answer, and that is ok to tell them too.

As you yourself, learn more about the Catholic faith, you will grow in confidence as you face these stumbers. The Holy Spirit is a wonderful source of inspiration along the way. It's ok not to know, but knowing where to find the answer is the key.
