FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. - Mk 6:4-5

A Note from Father Jason

Happy Independence Day! Today we celebrate our freedom and express our pride to be Americans. How blessed we are! Although it is true that our country is not without its problems and we are right to be concerned about protecting our right to religious freedom, we still are very privileged and blessed to enjoy the freedom to debate and work out how to balance the tension between freedoms and rights, avoiding discrimination while seeking to live the truth in a just and moral society. There are many nations in the world today where the freedom to choose a religion is not even a possibility, and so today we should give thanks that our founding fathers left us a nation built upon the inalienable rights given us by our Creator: life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Let us use that freedom well by hearing God's call today to not only recall our blessings, but to remember those who know only poverty of freedom by praying:

*O God,
you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors.
You will that all people should be free to worship
you without fear
and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely,
even if they have not yet found you.
Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.*

We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross.

Amen.

May God bless you and your family as you celebrate this Independence Day. May He continue to guide our nation in the pursuit of the one true and eternal happiness which only He can give,

Fa Jason

Parish News

MIMI SAYS THANK YOU!!

To the People of Mary Queen of Heaven Parish:

You are all such a blessing to me! The fact we have shared our life experiences with one another has brought meaning to my life. Serving as Director of the RCIA, Coordinator of Bereavement and then Pastoral Associate has allowed us to walk beside each other in times of joy, struggle and sadness. You have helped to "chisel" me into the person am. Thank you!

I recently came across thoughts expressed by Pope Francis. I think his words help to express our value to each other:

I think this is truly the most wonderful experience we can have: to belong to a people walking, journeying through history together with their Lord... We are not alone, we do not walk alone. We are part of the one flock of Christ that walks together... While you walk, you talk, you get to know one another, you tell one other about yourself, you grow as a family.

As I transition into another stage of my life, I ask for your prayers as I will continue to pray for you. Thank you for the memories and may we continue to be bound to one another as family allowing Jesus Christ to be our guiding light!

Peace and all good things that come from God alone,

Mimi Nolan

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Catholic Education/Faith Formation

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

I Feel Called to Be a Catechist... but...

Maybe being a catechist is something you feel God is calling you to, but you've got some reservations.

"I'm hesitant to become a catechist because..."
"...I don't know if I have the time."

Being a catechist is an important commitment. Time planning the lessons before classes, being prepared by collecting supplies and organizing the structure of each session, reflecting on how the lesson went, and attending the MQH catechist enrichment evenings demand time and commitment. With many important commitments, the reward of interacting with these young people is immense! Sharing your faith with the children is a wonderful gift for our parish families.

Call Jo Styler at the REO if you are now considering a role as catechist in our Religious Education experience.
