A Note from Father Jason

Summer is travel season. It is a time for vacations and getaways. I personally love to travel, but for me the worst part is packing. It is nerve racking deciding what to bring and what to leave behind. Ultimately, I end up putting everything out that I think I need and then pulling stuff out until everything fits. Of course, by "fits" I mean all that which I can get into the bag while sitting on it, rolling clothes as tightly as possible, and praying that the zipper does not burst as it groans its way closed. I suppose it goes back to my life as a boy scout, where in order to "be prepared" we learned to tie extra shoes to the outside of the backpack to increase storage.

In last weekend's gospel, we heard the message that we should learn to pack light and trust God. "He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick--no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Jesus gave the Twelve Apostles a remarkable mission. He sent them out two by two to preach repentance, to cast out evil spirits, and to heal the sick. And he made them do it in a spirit of complete dependence upon God. They were not allowed to take anything along that would have given them material comfort or security. These men--who did not even have the witness of other apostles or saints to inspire or give them courage, and who had not yet beheld the Resurrection of the Lord--stepped out into the world with literally nothing but their faith in this man named Jesus. And look what happened!

In this weekend's gospel, the disciples returned, full of excitement of all that they were able to accomplish. Empowered by the Lord, "The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them." I am sure that they had stories to tell. However, Jesus encourages them to go away and reflect so that the success of their journey does not become another attachment for them. And so He calls us to stop and reflect, because it is only when we do so that we can see how it was Him who helped us all along.

If the apostles can trust God and work miracles, imagine what we could do if we were willing to go out, not just on vacation, but into our lives, with that kind of complete trust in God over even our own ability to force a zipper closed. Ultimately, I find over and over again that even if I forget something or find myself lacking in some way, I find a way to live without it.

Brothers and Sisters, let us pack light, both materially and spiritually, confident that the Lord will provide. After all, we will be more mobile with fewer things and attachments to weigh us down. Plus, the fees for baggage are steep and in the end, we cannot even bring a bag for our final journey anyway. Lord, help us lighten our baggage and trust in your care for us!

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Our journey through life is seldom a straight path. Our personal choices or decisions that others make for us can impact our lives including our spiritual lives.

- ◆ Are you, or do you know of someone who was baptized in the Catholic faith, but for various reasons never completed their sacramental preparation by receiving Eucharist and Confirmation?
- ◆ Perhaps your family moved frequently or you never connected to a parish family in your younger years and were not part of a Religious Education program.
- ◆ Have you been attending Mass with your Catholic spouse, and have an interest in learning more about the Catholic faith?
- ◆ Do you know someone who is interested in becoming Catholic or someone who has never been baptized?

If you can relate to these situations, consider completing your sacramental preparation by looking into the RCIA!

Are you curious to learn more about how you can enrich your spiritual life through full participation in the life of the church through the sacraments?

Stop by Room 13 in the school at 9:30 a.m. on any of the following dates to meet the RCIA Team and to learn more about us and how you can become part of the Catholic Church: July 19 and 26.

You can also contact Jo Styler directly: re@maryqueen.org or Deacon Alex and Marie Grozik: almar402@comcast.net

Catholic Education/Faith Formation

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Calling all MQH Middle Schoolers searching for a meaningful RE experience! Look no further.... it is right here at MQH! The EDGE published by Life Teen is the new model for middle school catechesis at MQH this Fall. The EDGE is not your average RE program!

The EDGE is a dynamic youth faith formation program open to teens in middle school grades 6-8. Learning the way of discipleship through rich prayer experiences, lively games and activities, powerful DVD clips, and small group faith sharing is a dynamic change from using a textbook to connect to Christ.

Parents, there will be an information meeting on September 2 at 7:00 p.m. in Barrett Hall to learn more about this catechetical process before the RE year begins.
