And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy Labor Day! This weekend's Gospel provides us with a fruitful meditation on the work that our Lord does and our call to put the effects of that work into action. In this Gospel, Jesus heals the deaf man by touching his ears and tongue and saying "Be Opened!" Unable to keep this miracle to himself, the healed man and those who witnessed his healing go forth to proclaim God's goodness.

Each of us was brought into the same healing by which our hearts were opened and each of us has been called to go forth and proclaim the goodness of God on the day of our baptism. At every baptism the celebrant touches the ears and lips of the one being baptized and proclaims, "May the Lord open your ears to hear His word and your lips to proclaim His praise, to the glory of God the father." The Lord has done the work of healing and now we are called to participate in the work of salvation by sharing that fact with others, proclaiming God's praise and giving Him the glory for our successes, which were only possible with His grace.

As we seek the Lord's help and blessing upon our labors, whether we are working to evangelize our neighbor by witnessing to the goodness of God or if we are witnessing by being faithful and hard working as we perform the labor to which we have been called, let us always seek the Lord's help. Psalm 90 is a good refrain to have in your mind as you begin a work day: "Give success to the work of my hands, Lord. Give success to the work of my hands."

St. Joseph the Worker is the Patron Saint of all those who Labor. I encourage you to pray for his help in obtaining the Lord's blessing upon your labors:

O God,
*You asked St. Joseph to accept your will that his wife-to-be would have a Son.
 St. Joseph accepted your will and worked with Jesus as His father and teacher.
 We seek your blessing upon all the work of our hands,
 and we dedicate our work to your greater glory.
 We ask your blessing upon all workers, especially those who work to make our lives easier and more enjoyable.
 We ask all this through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron saint of workers, in the name of Jesus your Son, in the unity of Holy Spirit.
 Amen.*

St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us.

May the Lord bless and give success to the work of your hands,

Fr. Jason

Sponsorship opportunities are also available. Contact Jim Japczyk at jjapczyk@gmail.com for more details.

THERE WILL BE A FUNERAL AT MQH...

These words frequently appear on the front door of the church in order to alert and inform parishioners that a funeral will take place in our faith community. In order to broaden the scope of these notifications we have also arranged to have funeral announcements posted on the MQH Facebook page. In this way, anyone who has "liked" the parish Facebook page will receive a notification on their own Facebook timeline. If you are on Facebook but have not already visited the parish page, please do so and be sure to click on "Like" in order to receive announcements in the future. We will continue to post information on the church door, but we hope this additional avenue will help keep all of us informed. If you have any questions, contact: Mary Ann Reed at (630) 606-1415.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Right now is an exciting time of year at the REO! When I hear the kids leaving the neighborhood school I realize that RE will begin soon. Home School families will be able to pick up their textbooks at the family meeting on Sunday, September 13 at 9:30 a.m. in Barrett Hall. With RE classes beginning on Wednesday, September 16, I must make another urgent plea for volunteer catechists to share their faith with our children on Wednesday evenings.

- ♦ 6th grade Session 3 at 6:45-8:00pm - A catechist is needed. The theme is the Old Testament.
- ♦ 7th grade Session 2 at 5:15-6:30pm - A catechist is needed. The theme is becoming a disciple of Jesus Christ.
- ♦ 3rd grade Session 2 at 5:15-6:30pm - A Catechist helper is needed.

All catechists and volunteers must take the Protecting God's Children class. PGC classes are available throughout the Diocese of Joliet. Register online before attending the class.
