PASTOR'S CORNER

The past week has been an historic and exciting time in the Church of the Americas. To have the shepherd of shepherds visit has shown us how his pastoral care extends across the ocean to us. His friendly and compassionate personality was on display throughout the visit. His consistent message of becoming missionaries of mercy was presented. As coverage of the visit spanned the networks, it was encouraging to hear people we do not usually see on Sunday were interested in the coverage and some probably even saw the Church in a new light as a result.

One definitely gains much from the personal experience that an actual visit brings. One can learn much from the writings and descriptions of a shepherd, but to meet face to face is a much more profound experience and gives an understanding that cannot otherwise be grasped.

I am excited to announce that our local shepherd, Bishop Daniel Conlon has scheduled a visit to experience life at Mary Queen and to get to know the people who call Mary Queen their parish home. Bishop Conlon has been visiting the parishes of the diocese, one weekend at a time, for well over a year now. These visits are to give him a chance to experience the parish first hand so as to understand the particular personality of each parish. In addition, they are a chance for the parishioners of the various parishes to spend some time with him. This is a great opportunity for Mary Queen to showcase all the good things that happen at our parish. At the same time, it is a great opportunity to get to know a little more about the guy whose name we hear mentioned in the Eucharistic Prayer every Sunday.

Bishop Conlon will be here for the entire weekend of December 4th through 6th. The schedule of events is being finalized. Several events will be held during the weekend to allow different groups to meet with Bishop Conlon. Please join me in praying that this will be a fruitful and meaningful time for all of us.

Fr. Jason
