A NOTE FROM FATHER JASON

Happy Thanksgiving! I hope that your celebration of our yearly day of filling our hearts with gratitude and our stomachs with turkey was full of family, friends, and good food. We are all blessed in so many ways, so now that the turkey is evolving into sandwiches, soups, casseroles, and whatever other leftovers you put together, make sure you take some time to count your blessings before pre-Christmas business takes over. We first give thanks for the bountiful harvest. In light of the Catholic calendar, whose new year begins this weekend, it is a good opportunity for us to look back at the year 2015 and think about the many ways that God has blessed us. What are some ways that God has blessed you? What new things began in 2015? How did God make his presence known to you in new ways? Did you begin new friendships? Were there setbacks and if so, are you able to give thanks that God helped you through them or do you now see new opportunities arising from those changes that you endured in 2015? These are all good questions to spend a few minutes sitting with between your turkey naps.

Even as we give thanks for the year coming to a close, we begin to look forward to the New Year 2016 that is about to unfold. Every Advent is a time of waiting for Christmas, but we are also waiting to see what gifts God gives us in the new beginnings that 2016 will bring. In the first part of Advent, December 1st-16th, the liturgy focuses on our waiting for the second coming of Christ. It is a time to look forward, imagine our future, and open our hearts to that which God wants to lead us to that no eye has seen and no ear has heard. Let us enter into this Advent with hope and anticipation, preparing our hearts for the Lord's company. I encourage you to take and read daily our Advent reflection book, "Advent: Making a Place for God." I am confident that it will help you to get a little break each day from the business of December so as to enter into the excitement and expectation of the new life that this new year will bring to you.

I give thanks for all of your prayers and support for me over the past year. I am blessed that God has called me to be your shepherd. May God bless you and your families as we continue our journey together into this Advent, Christmas, and New Year.

Fr. Jason

CHRISTMAS GIVING TREE

The Christmas Giving Tree will be up the weekend of November 28/29 and loaded with ornaments containing names of items for the families we have adopted. As in the past, we will also be supplying the Elmhurst Extended Care Nursing Home with Christmas presents for their residents. Please take an ornament, purchase the gift, wrap it and place the ornament with the name facing up on the top of the wrapped present. All gifts need to be returned the weekend of December 12/13. If you have any questions, please call Sheila at (630) 833-6657.

CHRISTMAS FOOD DRIVE

Our Christmas Food Drive will be held the weekend of December 12 and 13. We are in need of canned fruit, vegetables, soup, prepared meals, cereal, dressing, cranberry sauce, pasta, pasta sauce, jello, pudding, baking items, goodies, drinks, condiments, peanut butter, jelly, toilet paper, paper towels, kleenex, etc. We are also in need of gift cards for Jewel, Mariano's, or Pete's Market. Help is needed sorting the food on Tuesday, December 15 at 7:00 p.m. If you have a few hours free we would appreciate your help. Please give Sheila a call at (630) 833-6657 and let her know if you will be coming to help out.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL CLOTHING DRIVE

The St. Vincent de Paul Truck will be in our parking lot the weekend of December 5 and 6. Please go through your fall and winter clothing for donations. We are looking for clothing, shoes, linens and books in good condition. There is a special need for winter coats, hats, boots, scarves, etc. Warm blankets and linens are needed as well as small housewares such as: toasters, blenders, mixers, coffee makers, etc. Dishes and decorative items are also appreciated. We are also accepting small electronics and computers (sorry no televisions) for recycling.

Your donations go to the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Shops where much of your donations are given away free to needy families in the surrounding community. Some items are also sold at reasonable prices so that families can shop with dignity. Please help us help others. If you have any large items or furniture you would like to donate, you can call and schedule a pick up at your home. The number to call is (630) 231-4658.

ADVENT WREATHS

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

RE NEWS

There are no RE classes on Wednesday, November 25. Have a cornucopia full of blessings! The RE Home School families have been invited to make Advent Wreaths together in Barrett Hall between the 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses on Sunday, November 29. Advent is a time to prepare our hearts to receive Jesus' presence more deeply. One way is to serve others. Making Christmas cookies is a wonderful family tradition. Perhaps your family could share cookies with a lonely neighbor or senior home. Think about ways your family can share the spirit of Advent-seeking the face of Christ in someone in need of help.
