A NOTE FROM FATHER JASON

Merry Christmas! We gather on this day full of joy as we celebrate the event proclaimed in the Christmas liturgy "Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord." For weeks many of us have been preparing for this day. It is not that our joy and anticipation has been able to be contained in a box, like the presents that will finally be opened today. The excitement of Christmas begins to build even as we are still working on finishing off Thanksgiving leftovers. Our preparations for this feast are ways that we enter into the celebration even before it begins. As in the Christmas season, we give the gift of our time or food or treasure to those who most need it, we are passing on the gift given to each of us on that first Christmas day. The sending of Christmas cards wishing others a Christmas of peace and joy is proclaiming the good news of Christmas to others. Even though it may seem that the shopping, mailing, and serving were all preparations to help us enjoy this feast well, chances are those very same efforts were focused on others, and so they were in themselves little Christmases, in that the generosity and love you expressed brought Jesus into the world. And now that Christmas has arrived, we rest in the peace that revels in the fact that the great gift of Jesus being given to the world was not just given in Bethlehem, but the gift has been given once again so many times as we celebrate this year. Indeed, the gift of Christmas is something much bigger than "today" and much bigger than December 25th. It is a gift of love that was given, is given, and will continue to be given to this troubled world that thirsts for the peace and joy that only the gift of a savior can satisfy. Just as the preparations have been in the works for several weeks, so the celebration continues. This year, the feast of the Holy Family follows Christmas directly, keeping us focused on the beauty of the simple reality into which the Savior was born. Next week, the feast of Mary, Mother of God, and then Epiphany will continue to help us remain in the joy. Resist the temptation to say, "Well that's over" and pack Christmas away too quickly. As Christians we are called to celebrate the fact that God sends Jesus into our world every day and we are gifted with the grace to always proclaim the peace and joy that comes from professing that "Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord."

May God bless you and your holy family with the peace and joy of Christmas on this and every day He gives you as His gift,

Fr. Jason

Middle School RE Music: Singing, Guitar, and Keyboard - Music enhances the prayer experience.

Augustine said, "When we sing, we pray twice." I wonder what Augustine would have thought of a guitar Mass. All Middle School students, if you would like to play guitar or electric piano or sing with a group as part of prayer during RE class, please contact Ms. Jo at the REO (630) 832-8962. Let me know if you have an idea for a song to sing during an Edge class. - Jo Styler

DIOCESAN AND COMMUNITY NEWS

EASTERN DUPAGE PILGRIMAGE CHURCH SUNDAY, JANUARY 3

At the request of the Holy Father, Catholics around the world will be celebrating a special time of recognition of the Great Mercy of God. A Holy Year features special celebrations of pilgrimages with calls for conversion and repentance. In our Diocese, nine Churches have been designated as Pilgrimage sites. Immaculate Conception Church, 132 Arthur St., Elmhurst is the Pilgrimage Church for the Eastern DuPage Deanery. In recognition of the start of this Holy Year, Immaculate Conception will host an Open House for all in our Deanery on the Feast of the Epiphany, January 3, from 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 pm. Like the Wise Men who went forth to view the Lord, you are invited as pilgrims to come and pray before the Lord. This will be a time for silent prayer as we recall the Great Mercy of God.

ST MONICA PRAYER GROUP TUESDAY, JANUARY 5

Come pray with us for your loved ones who have drifted away from the faith or who are outside of the Church. This fellowship group will meet the first Tuesday of every month at Visitation Parish, 779 S. York Rd. Elmhurst, IL on the Fireside Room, Parish Center on Tuesday January 5th from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. For questions, call Bonita at (630) 279-0816 or Sheila at (630) 329-1867.
