A NOTE FROM FATHER JASON

This Sunday, even though it is the second Sunday of Ordinary Time, continues the three-fold mystery of Epiphany. We have reflected on the Three Magi bringing gifts and the baptism of Jesus. The third and final epiphany manifestation is Jesus' first miracle, the wedding at Cana.

Belief in miracles is an essential part of the Catholic faith, because to believe that miracles are possible is to believe that God intervenes in our life and in our world. However, most Catholics probably only seek a miracle or look for the signs of one when they find themselves in a desperate situation, and usually when facing a difficulty much deeper than not having the right beverage to serve. And yet, at some point in our lives we all feel like we have run out of wine, energy, luck, success, love, or any other number of things. It is then that we start seeking and looking for miracles.

Those miracles do happen. Every now and then, for reasons unexplainable by science and even defying explanation of logic, events happen. Often it is a healing that can only be explained as obtained through prayer. I have had more than one person relate to me such a story, where a healing occurred and even doctors were left saying that only a miracle can explain it. Perhaps we see miracles most clearly then because the circumstances are often so dire.

However, even though miraculous healings are the most often documented, there are as many other possibilities of miracles happening all around us as there are ways that God is working His Grace to help us. When we turn to God and seek his help, and an unexpected opportunity or solution results, why not call it a miracle? The lives of the saints provide us with testimony of many miracles, official and unofficial, spectacular and mundane. They are evidence that God is at work in our world and reason to hope that He is guiding us and our world.

Of course, each of us has experienced the greatest Christian miracle every time we participate in the Mass, as bread and wine become body and blood in a way that can only be seen by eyes of faith looking for a miracle. The miracle of the Eucharist brings us in contact with our Savior and our Lord. Next time you feel like you are "out of wine," ask the Lord help you see the miracles, no matter how small or unexpected, that he is working for you.

RE NEWS

Pope Francis has named this Jubilee Year of Mercy.

Corporal Works

- ◆ Feed the hungry
- ◆ Give drink to the thirsty
- ◆ Clothe the naked
- ◆ Shelter the homeless
- ◆ Visit the sick
- ◆ Visit the imprisoned
- ◆ Bury the dead

Spiritual Works

- ◆ Counsel the doubtful

See how many ways your family shows mercy to each other every day!

Reflecting on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy it is easy to see how families live these out each day:

- ◆ Mom, can I have a drink of water please?
- ◆ Dad, can you help me with my homework?
- ◆ Dad, please unlock the door for me, pleads child wearing mittens ready to play outside.
- ◆ Dad, Fluffy was my favorite fish ever! I am going to miss him.
- ◆ Mom, get me out of this car seat!
- ◆ Mom, I don't feel good.
- ◆ Kids, we are going to Feed My Starving Children together as a family.
- ◆ Kids, take this soup and bring it to our neighbor who lives all alone and visit with her while she eats.

We are called to live out the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy with anyone who needs our help.

DIOCESAN NEWS

THE 2016 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL IS UNDERWAY

"Chosen by God's Grace"

The 2016 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal begins with a mailing that many of our parishioners have received or will soon receive. This is a mailing from Bishop Conlon asking for a pledge to the 2016 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal. The Appeal not only funds many of the operations of the diocese, it funds services that are of great help to the various ministries here in our parish such as catechist training and transitional housing.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is "Chosen by God's Grace." What a wonderful thought! The Almighty God of the Universe has chosen you, His precious child. Can you imagine anything more unbelievable than being "Chosen by God's Grace?" God has a destiny for you. His plan for you is as individual as you are. You have been uniquely created for a purpose and God wants to see you passionately live His plan out. How do we acknowledge God's Grace and show Him our gratitude? One way that we can show our gratitude is by giving back to God the gifts He shared with us. We can support our parish, our diocese and the Church throughout the world with gifts of time, talent and treasure. The gifts we give enable ministries, education, and services that touch thousands of lives.

Our parish goal is $45,226.00. With your financial support, we can exceed this goal. When we exceed our goal in paid pledges, we will receive 65% of the amount over goal for use in our parish. Please answer Bishop Conlon's request and make a generous pledge. All pledges can be paid in ten (10) installments. Thank you in advance for your support.
