Third Sunday
Of Lent

Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!" - Lk 13:2-3

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

A NOTE FROM FATHER JASON

Every year, we begin Lent with Sunday meditations upon temptation and transfiguration. The middle three Sundays of Lent vary, but for those preparing to receive the sacraments for the first time at Easter, it is a time of final preparation. Over these three weeks, the elect enter into a process called the Scrutinies. There are three proper Masses that are celebrated for them to help them reflect upon and prepare for the sacramental life into which they are about to enter. These Scrutiny Masses include prayers for the elect, a rite through which the community prays for them, and the Year A Lenten Gospel Passages, which are the Woman at the Well, the Man Born Blind, and the Raising of Lazarus.

The RCIA ritual directs that those seeking to be cleansed in baptismal waters at Easter go through Scrutinies "to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good" (RCIA 141). For the elect, the power of this Lenten call to examine our lives, seek healing, and then experience the Lord's power to give new life is as profound as the sacraments they will receive for the first time. For the rest of us, whose sacraments of initiation are at best a dim memory, it may seem that we are beyond such a conversion. That temptation must be put aside! Each of us are called every year though our practice of Lenten disciplines to reconnect to the grace of our initiation and to enter more deeply into it by precisely this same process of examination, healing, and resurrection. The Sacrament of Reconciliation provides a fruitful context by which we are helped to break the cycle of going to the same empty well so that we can be free to seek the life giving water that is the grace of our baptism.

Whether this Lent brings you to the life giving water of baptism for the first time or if you are longing to see the fruits of your efforts to live our your baptism, May God bless you with the courage to uncover what is hidden and openness to the healing only he can give, so that you may know and see the new life of resurrection that baptism into the Christian life provides.

EASTER FOOD DRIVE MARCH 12/13

Our Easter Food Drive will take place the weekend of March 12 and March 13. We have adopted 12 families and are looking for canned soup, vegetables, fruit, cereal, baking items, drinks, prepared foods, pasta, spaghetti sauce, peanut butter, jelly, tissue, toilet paper, paper towels, laundry soap, personal soap and cleaning supplies. Jewel, Mariano's, Walmart and Target gift cards would also be appreciated so that the families can purchase meat for their Easter Dinner. In addition, we will be making up Easter Baskets for all the children in each family. We are also looking for goodies (candies, small toys, etc.) to be put in their baskets. Please contact Mary White with any questions at (630) 833-9809. The food sorting will take place on Monday, March 14, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. Please consider a gift of your time.

LENTEN Q & A

COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS DURING LENT

- Q. I've noticed that restaurants and grocery stores advertise specials on expensive types of fish and seafood on Fridays during Lent. Some of my Catholic friends take advantage of these deals, but somehow I don't feel right treating myself to the lobster special on Fridays during Lent.
- A. While fish, lobster and other shellfish are not considered meat and can be consumed on days of abstinence, indulging in the lavish buffet at your favorite seafood place sort of misses the point. Abstaining from meat and other indulgences during Lent is a penitential practice. On the Fridays of Lent, we remember the sacrifice of Christ on Good Friday and unite ourselves with that sacrifice through abstinence and prayer.

REPORTING INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL ABUSE

Sexual abuse is a sin and a crime. Victims of sexual abuse, in addition to contacting civil authorities, are asked to come forward in order to receive pastoral assistance. The Church has a responsibility to help victims of sexual abuse and to ensure that offenders are brought to justice.

Reports may be made to any pastor or to (815) 263-6467. You may also contact DCFS at 1-800-25-ABUSE.

MQH COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

CCW "Woman of the Year" Election March 12 & 13, 2016

Congratulations to all who were nominated for Woman of the Year. Some of the nominees were ineligible because they have previously won or are employees of the parish and others declined the nomination. The election will be held after all Masses on March 12th and 13th. All women of the parish, ages 18 and older, are invited to vote. Please stop by the table in the back of church to vote for one of our many deserving candidates. Good luck and congratulations to all who were nominated!

Heather Brand

We have belonged to the Mary Queen family since 1994. Bill and I have one daughter, Rachel, 22 and she lives in California. After going to Mass with Bill often and always feeling welcome, I attended the spirit-filled RCIA program and officially converted in 2002. Though raised protestant, I always believed in the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Christ. I was born a Catholic! Our faith is the foundation of life for which we thank God and His parish. I am blessed to serve in choir and lector ministries with other believers. I have also led Bible studies and been part of CRHP in the past. The people of MQH make it feel like home! I am humbled to be recognized with remarkable women like Gail and Norma. Thank you.

Gail Lewicki

Beyond my commitment to my husband, my sister, my kids and grandkids, I have been a member of the parish for over 40 years. In my commitment to Mary Queen of Heaven, I don't see myself as just a member of a church – I am a member of the community. I give back as much as I get, including my work supporting the parish office as a volunteer each week, participating in the Council of Catholic Women as Family Commission Chair, transporting food from Mary Queen of Heaven to the food pantry at IC, participating in gardening club activities and decorating the church at Christmas time, one of my favorite activities. I am also committed to my own spiritual growth through the small faith group that I participate in each week. In the past, I have also been committed to teaching CCD to the youth of the parish. It is evident to my family that my commitment to church is a priority. My kids know that Monday mornings are dedicated to the church and a special time that I truly enjoy.

Norma Williamson

Thank you to the parishioners who nominated me for Women of the Year! I have been a parishioner of Mary Queen of Heaven for 44 yrs. Mary Queen of Heaven is home for me. My husband Mathew and I have been married for 12yrs. Mathew is a Knight of Columbus and Cub Master for our son's Cub Scout Pack 25 at IC. He also has held Recycling Events at MQH in the past. We have a son, Roberto, who is 7 years old and is in 2nd Grader at IC Catholic Grade School and will be doing his First Communion this year. I have been involved in Bible study, Prayer Shawl Ministry, RCIA, Children's Christmas Eve Mass, was part of Parish Council, and I ran the Easter Egg Hunt. Present date I am still involved in Bereavement Ministry, and I also am a Eucharistic Minister at MQH and at IC Church. I enjoy helping at MQH Parish whenever needed.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

THE JOURNEY OF THE CATECHUMEN

On February 14, the RCIA team and our two Catechumens braved the snow and cold and ventured to St. Raymond's Cathedral for the Enrollment of Names. At the 8:30 Mass, Yan Ling Romanek and Pearl Boardwine signed their names in the book of the Elect. We brought their signatures to the Cathedral where all of the Catechumens from the Diocese were invited to gather. The names of the Elect were read aloud and each Catechumen met Bishop Conlon. At the Easter Vigil Yan Ling and Pearl will receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist welcoming them into the Church and continuing their journey as disciples of Christ.

Please keep Yan Ling and Pearl in your prayers.

THE LIVING STATIONS

The Living Stations is a prayerful performance of the Stations of the Cross.

All 6th and 7th grade RE students are invited to participate in the Living Stations of the Cross.

Readers and actors are needed and service hours may be earned.

YEAR OF MERCY PILGRIMAGE CHURCH HOURS SATURDAYS AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION PARISH

In celebration of the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Immaculate Conception Parish is has been selected as a "Pilgrimage Church" in the Diocese of Joliet. IC Church will open it's doors to pilgrims from around the deanery and diocese each Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. through November 26, 2016. Our hope is that people will take advantage of the opportunity to visit the church and pray. There is also the opportunity to obtain a plenary indulgence during the Year of Mercy by visiting a Pilgrimage Church with the intention of acquiring the indulgence, going to confession (before or after the visit), receiving Holy Communion, making a profession of faith, praying for the Holy Father and for the intentions that he bears in his heart for the good of the church and of the entire world. Please plan to make a special visit with your family or friends during this Year of Mercy.

2016 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES ANNUAL APPEAL

If you made a gift or pledge to the 2016 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal, thank you!!

If you have not made your contribution to the 2016 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal, please consider doing so online at www.jolietdioceseappeal.org, via mail, or by returning one of our Commitment/In-Pew Weekend envelopes at Mass. We will also conduct a Follow-Up Weekend process to give everyone an opportunity to participate.

One pledge can make a difference, especially when combined with all of the other pledges made throughout the diocese. Please prayerfully consider providing your financial support to this Appeal "Chosen by God's Grace." You can make a real difference!

After our parish exceeds its CMAA goal of $45,226.00 in paid pledges, 65% of any additional funds are returned for use in our parish. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OUT OF POVERTY SERIES BEGINS MARCH 28

Do you feel that life is beating you down? Are you always struggling to make ends meet? Do you want to let go of unproductive thoughts, feelings and behaviors and replace them with positive ones that will move you toward a better quality of life?

Catholic Charities is offering a program of personal change called Out of Poverty. This program is not just about the lack of money; it's also about poverty of the spirit. Discussion within a group setting encourages honesty and focuses on the fact that life has not turned out the way you thought it would.

Give yourself a second chance and register for Out of Poverty classes today. Classes are held at Catholic Charities, 26 W. St. Charles Road in Lombard each Monday from 6:30 – 9:00 p.m. from March 28 through May 23. For more information or to register, call Robin Poage at (630)495-8008 ext. 2122. To learn more about Catholic Charities, visit catholiccharitiesjoliet.org.
