A NOTE FROM FATHER JASON

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

Since Ash Wednesday, when snow was still in the forecast and the sun set early in the evening, we have been preparing ourselves for this day. Our Lenten penances and devotions have emptied our hearts to prepare them so that we are more aware, not just of our own weaknesses, but of our need for a savior. It is that savior that we commemorate and celebrate in this Holy Week. The Resurrection that we will celebrate next Sunday is indeed a reason for joy, but one cannot really enter into fullness of that joy without experiencing the fullness of Jesus' journey toward that victory.

Today, we arrive at Palm Sunday. No other liturgy in the Church year brings us into the paradoxes of life, with its joys and its sorrows, than today's celebration. We begin by joyfully exclaiming "Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" Then, we move from that great joy into the sadness of the Passion. The change happens as fast as life often changes. We are blessed to have a Savior that knew our need to be redeemed in both life's triumphs and its tragedies. It is to that Savior who we know in faith is with us on every day and in every circumstance that we devote this Holy Week.

There are many opportunities to enter into the mystery of the joy and suffering of this Holy Week. I will be available for Reconciliation Tuesday at 6:30 pm and Friday after Morning Prayer. The three days before Easter are a three day liturgy called the Triduum. More information on the schedule for this week can be found on page 3. This week, I encourage you to take advantage of the additional opportunities to pray with the community and enter into the mystery of our salvation, with its joys and sorrows.

May God bless you with the grace to enter fully into this Holy Week,

Fr. Jason

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

REDISCOVER JESUS - GETTING TO KNOW JESUS (2)

Point to Ponder: Jesus wants to have a deep, dynamic, personal relationship with you.

Verse to Live: "I am the Shepherd." John 10:11

Question to Consider: How well do you really know Jesus?

Prayer: Jesus, open my heart and my mind so that I can get to know you as you really are.

PARISHIONER REFLECTION: BY DOMINIC CROTTY

In this chapter I am challenged to spend time thinking about how well I know Jesus. On a scale of 1-10, I said 6. Yes, I'd say I have a good historical perspective of Jesus' life, but again how well do I relate to Jesus in my daily life? Then I came to the realization that I have a lot of questions, and I start turning to the Bible. What did Jesus do when He lived that moved so many people? How can I bring those qualities to my life and exude them to others? How can I articulate the life and teachings of Jesus Christ to others? It's then I start saying, as Matthew Kelly does, "I don't know Jesus anywhere as much as I think I do". I do know and feel close to Christ through years of Christianity and I believe I exhibit Christian qualities of humbleness, quiet, caring, etc. But without an active relationship with Jesus, I know the world can break me. More so, without an active relationship with Jesus, I cannot grow in those Christian aspects I might be weaker at like being generous and articulating the life and teachings of Jesus Christ to others. I have really taken some steps in my life to get closer to Christ by becoming a Catechism Teacher, which gives me the opportunity to learn about Christ and articulate His message.
