PARISHIONER MESSAGE

Marriage Ministry---

"I do". Simple words that change lives forever. One day you're foot loose and fancy free, dating, dining, and dancing. The next day, you have a house and mortgage and 2.5 children! And it all happens by saying, "I do".

But when couples say "I do" what are they committing themselves to? That is what the Marriage Ministry tries to help engaged couples discover, love, sacrifice, friendship and willingness to grow together, as a couple. The Marriage Ministry helps engaged couples to discern, discover and discuss various aspects of marriage. We help them understand that the Sacrament of Marriage is a commitment of being witnesses to God's love.

The ministry does this by facilitating the "Focus Program" for engaged couples in our parish. The program brings together trained mentor couples with those newly engaged. The mentors help the engaged to explore the various aspects of what it means to be truly married. Topics such as family, spirituality, covenant, children, careers, finances and, yes, even fighting, or as we like to say 'communication' are explored. The time spent together in sharing and laughing enriches not only the engaged couple but the married mentors as well. It is truly a rewarding ministry.

The ministry, however, takes people. Married couples who are willing to share their lives and experiences with others. They are those who are willing to do God's work and change lives. Are you one of these couples? Because if you are, we need you. The commitment is light. Couples meet perhaps 2-3 times. Training is provided by the Family Ministry of Joliet Diocese. The next training session meeting takes place in early October. Support is on going from other mentor couples and the Marriage Ministry. If you are interested, we would be happy to speak with you and share more information.

This program is one aspect of the Marriage Ministry. Other activities include seminars for marriage enrichment and social activities. If any of this sounds fun, or is calling you, please call us. (Don and Ellen Walker (630) 279-4021)

Live your marriage to its fullness as witnesses to God's love.

Personal items such as bar soap, shampoo, deodorant and tooth paste are also appreciated.

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP CONLON

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Peter's Pence Collection (taking place June 25-26, 2016) is an opportunity to become a witness of charity to those who suffer most. Pope Francis has encouraged us to "open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognize that we are compelled to heed their cry for help!" (Misericordiae Vultus, [MV] no. 15).

Through the Peter's Pence Collection, we stand in solidarity with Catholics all over the world to support the charitable works of our Holy Father, Pope Francis. Contributions to this collection support him as he reaches out to those suffering the effects of war and violence, natural disasters, and religious persecution.

Pope Francis has told us that "mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope" (MV, no. 10). Please prayerfully consider participating in this collection and becoming a witness of charity, a force of mercy that reaches out to those around the world.

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet

MESSAGE FROM JO STYLER: WHILE ON VACATION, DON'T TAKE A VACATION FROM MASS OR PRAYER

Summer vacation is a wonderful time to get out of town and enjoy a change of scenery! My mom would always lead a prayer when we piled in the car while on vacation. I remember family road trips where we attended Mass wherever we happened to be traveling. This was way before the Internet and cell phones. We would find a Church by asking people on the street for directions to the nearest Catholic Church. In the 80's we visited a modern Church where the prayers were projected on the wall instead of hymnals, and more recently I attended Mass outside at an amphitheater of a national park. Celebrating the Mass in different places helps me appreciate the beauty in the ritual of the Liturgy. When I return home I find that I appreciate my home parish family even more.

If you have any vacation Mass stories to share, email them to me at re@maryqueen.org and we can swap stories in the bulletin.

REDISCOVER JESUS – WHO IS THE GREATEST (13)

Point to Ponder: The poor, the needy, the hungry, the lonely, the ignorant, and the afflicted are God's special friends.

Verse to Live: "Live justly, love tenderly, and walk humbly with your God." MICAH 6:8

Question to Consider: Do your values align with Jesus' values?

Prayer: Jesus, set the child within me free so I can be more childlike with every passing day, and open the eyes of my soul that I may see your children all around me.

Parishioner Reflection: Dominic Crotty

Who is the Greatest? For those sports fans out there you might immediately think of the sports greats like Muhammad Ali, Vince Lombardi, or Michael Jordan. In our culture and throughout history, greatness is often associated with success. As the author states, Jesus changed that.

The disciples asked "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?" Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." What is Jesus trying to say here? You might think if everyone acted like children the world would be full of Cheetos and Crayola crayons. However, children also look at the world with a new set of eyes. They take joy in simple things, and do not hold bias or grudges. There is a kindness of heart.

Imagine if we adults could carry more of those qualities throughout our day. Wouldn't the world be a better place? Matthew Kelly says, "The Gospel of Jesus Christ is a radical invitation to get beyond our own self-centered worldview and do our part to protect and liberate the most vulnerable children of God." This pertains to both children and adults.

I remind myself that the greatest among us is often the least among us. The poor, the lonely, the hungry, etc. In doing more for the least among us, we liberate ourselves. A lesson from the Greatest – Jesus Christ.

REPORTING INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL ABUSE

Sexual abuse is a sin and a crime. Victims of sexual abuse, in addition to contacting civil authorities, are asked to come forward in order to receive pastoral assistance. The Church has a responsibility to help victims of sexual abuse and to ensure that offenders are brought to justice.

Reports may be made to any pastor or to (815) 263-6467. You may also contact DCFS at 1-800-25-ABUSE.
