A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JASON

How many advertisements do you think you see or hear in a given day? Think of all the different ways products are marketed to you. It's not just on the television commercials. Nor is it just jingles on the radio. Ads come at us as we are driving down the tri-state. I think there must be 300 billboards between here and O'Hare alone. They are on webpages, in the apps on our phones, and the newspaper, and the last page of this very bulletin (thank you to our sponsors!). In a society built upon consumerism, it seems unlikely that anyone can go for very long without someone trying to sell them something.

The gospel of this weekend is selling us a very different message than those trying to get the money out of our wallets. "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." That isn't a message that gets much advertising. The message we hear loud and clear in all of the ads we are subject to daily is that we need this product or that service in order to be happy. Professional marketers are in the business of creating a supposed need and then promising to fill it with their product. In today's culture, it's hard to remember that life isn't about possessions.

But in this Gospel, Jesus reminds us that there is more to life than having "so many good things stored up for many years." All of this stuff-be it clothes, devices, equipment, decorations, entertainment centers, or anything else-does no lasting good if and when "this night your life will be demanded of you." Unlike the fool who spends all of his time, energy, and money building larger barns, we should focus our resources on becoming "rich in what matters to God."

This means cultivating virtue instead of vice. It means sharing our money with those in need instead of hoarding it out of selfish greed. The call is a challenging one, and countercultural too. But Jesus never said that the Christian way was the way of the world. As St. Paul instructs us in today's epistle, "Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly." Instead of falling for the marketers' messages, may we have the wisdom to store up our treasure in heaven.

Father Jason

PARISH NEWS

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

MONDAY, AUGUST 1, 9:00 AM - 7:00 PM

"What distinguishes the Catholic Church from any other church is that Christ left it as the repository of his Body and Blood, the Sacrament of Sacraments, [the] eternal source of the power that created and rules over the universe, to nourish and connect us until the end of time" (Heather King from Magnificat, September 2012). Come and be in Jesus' Eucharistic presence during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, August 1st, from after morning Mass until 7:00 p.m. when we close the day with Benediction. Come for Benediction too! Sign-up is in the back of church. You are welcome to "adopt an hour". Questions? Please call Kay Diggins at (630) 530-7214 or Rose Wilkes at (630) 833-7238. There is perpetual adoration in the Visitation adoration chapel located at 799 S. York Road.
