A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JASON

Happy Feast Day! This weekend we celebrate our parish feast, Mary Queen of Heaven. We will be celebrating not just with special Masses, but also with the 5K Run/Walk on Saturday and picnic on Sunday. We are blessed to be part of a Parish that honors our Blessed Mother as our Patron Saint. If you are going to have a favorite, why not pick the first and foremost of all of the Saints?

The role of Mary in the life of the Church has often been misunderstood. Often these objections rise from the misconception that we worship Mary, making her a goddess or an idol. As with all of the Saints, we look to Mary as an example. Her, fiat, or yes to God's plan for her revealed by the angel Gabriel is an example for us to always say yes to God's plan for our lives. In addition, we turn to Mary and the saints in prayer, not to worship them, but to ask their help and aid for us who face struggles in our lives. Many of the saints faced struggles in their lives with which we can identify. Also, it is always comforting to know that we can turn to someone who has been there, because they understand our need for help. We turn to the Saints to ask them who understand our struggles to beg God to help us.

In order to help us as we turn to Mary for intercession, believers throughout the ages have given Mary particular names that emphasize her role as helper or protector. For example, Mary is called Mother of Good Counsel or Comforter of the Afflicted. Other titles have been given based upon a teaching of the Church about Mary, such as the Immaculate Conception or Mother of God. Also, titles are given based upon an historical appearance of Mary such as Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Lourdes, and Our Lady of Guadeloupe.

Of course, the most precious of Marian titles for us is that of Mary as Queen of Heaven. The Old Testament type of Queen helps us to understand what it means to name Mary Queen of Heaven. In those days, the King's wife may have held the title of Queen and been the one sitting on a throne with the King, but the real power in the kingdom was elsewhere. It was the king's mother who was often the voice of reason and wisdom. It was she who was called upon to make decisions until the king was of age, and we can assume would direct the King when he was not acting his age. That is how we should see Mary as Queen... she is our Queen Mother. She has that special relationship with her son that only a mother can have. And so we call her our Queen Mother because we know she can take our needs to her son for us. What a blessing that we have a Queen Mother who is the primary helper for our parish with all of our needs!

I hope to see each of you at the 5K, 10:30 outdoor Mass, and picnic this weekend! Mary, Queen of Heaven, pray for us.

Father Jason

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

A MESSAGE FROM JO STYLER

“God doesn’t call the qualified; God qualifies the called.”

Perhaps there is a mom or dad of a 2nd grader who wants to interact with our RE kids.

MQH is in need of someone who loves 6-8 year old kids and learning about the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. I have lesson plans for you, but it is the catechist who brings the lessons to life and engages the kids with prayer and learning about Jesus’ love.

I guarantee that you will learn a lot about the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist while learning about the kids and also about yourself. Please call Jo at the REO at (630) 832-8962 if you are that parent who wants to answer God’s call to catechize some of our 2nd graders.
