A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JASON

Happy Labor Day! Samuel Gompers, one of the founders of the American Federation of Labor, said that Labor Day is unique in that it is a holiday devoted "to no man, living or dead, to no sect, race or nation but is instead for all." Today Americans mostly celebrate the weekend as a farewell to summer. However, the Sunday before Labor Day was to be a day dedicated to the spiritual aspects of the labor movement.

Even as we enjoy a final summer holiday, we should spend at least a little time remembering that however we labor that work is connected to and an extension of our spiritual life. Labor Day is a good opportunity to give thanks for the work God has given us, to pray that we would have the wisdom and courage to choose to work in a way that is morally upright, and to pray that God would bless us with the ability to set good goals to grow in holiness as we work.

As we seek the Lord's help and blessing upon our labors, whether we are working to evangelize our neighbor by witnessing to the goodness of God or if we are witnessing by being faithful and hard working as we perform the labor to which we have been called, let us always seek the Lord's help. Psalm 90 is a good refrain to have in your mind as you begin a work day: "Give success to the work of my hands, Lord. Give success to the work of my hands."

St. Joseph the Worker is the Patron Saint of all those who Labor. I encourage you to pray for his help in obtaining the Lord's blessing upon your labors:

O God,

you asked St. Joseph to accept your will that his wife-to-be would have a Son.

St. Joseph accepted your will and worked with Jesus as his father and teacher.

We seek your blessing upon all the work of our hands,

and we dedicate our work to Your greater glory.

We ask your blessing upon all workers,

especially those who work to make our lives easier and more enjoyable.

We ask all this through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron saint of workers, in the name of Jesus your Son, in the unity of Holy Spirit.

Amen.

St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us.

May the Lord bless and give success to the work of your hands,

Fr. Jason

PARISH NEWS

The Parish Pastoral Council is accepting nominations for new members. PPC members work closely with Father Jason, and the ministry leaders, to provide recommendations and guidance on parish matters. As an example, the Feeding the Hunger initiative was developed and driven by the PPC for the purpose of expanding communications, involvement, community and service at Mary Queen of Heaven.

Called to service? Prepared to make an impact? Please contact Gregg Olalde, PPC president at ppc@maryqueen.org if you are interested, or would like to nominate a candidate.

PARISH NEWS

Thanks to everyone who came to the Mary Queen of Heaven Parish picnic. It was a wonderful time to have fun and meet new friends as we celebrate our parish feast day. We had a beautiful day to listen to music, enjoy lunch from the HB Jones Food truck, play with Miss Jamie, have our faces painted, get the jump on fun in the Bounce houses, play bingo, share fruits of our gardens and eat pie!

A special thank you to Kathy from AMJ for donating the use of all the bounce houses, Religious Education and Preschool for hosting the games, all the volunteers, young and older, that staffed the games, the CCW for hosting bingo and drinks, the Trenta family for coordinating the pie contest and the garden exchange, the Olalde family for DJ services, the Men's club for tents, and the Knights of Columbus and Squires for clean-up. We know there were many other hands helping, so thanks to all of you.

Our 50/50 raffle delivered a prize of over $650! The pie contest had several categories for awards. Heather Brand won for best tasting pie, Amanda Smith for most creative, and Mrs. Balice for best presentation. All pies were very tasty and welcome!

We look forward to seeing you at Parish events and Mass in the future. Our next "Feeding the Hunger" social event is the Supper Club on Saturday, October 8, so please save the date. It is an easy way to meet fellow parishioners over a delicious meal. Keep an eye out for more details on Facebook and in the Bulletin.

Due to the Labor Day holiday, our monthly day of Eucharistic Adoration will take place on Monday, September 12.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

A MESSAGE FROM JO STYLER GOOD NEWS! BAD NEWS!

Many registrations have been coming in for MQH RE! That's good! No, that's bad. There are many more catechists needed for grades 1, 2, 4, and middle school.

Oh that's bad.

No, that's good. Many registrations show that our parents want to partner with the MQH Parish for RE.

That's good. That could even be better news if some parents of kids in grades 1, 2, 4, and middle school would volunteer to be catechists.

Thank you registering your children in RE! There is a serious need for catechists that would lead the class on Wednesday afternoons/evenings. Help in lesson planning and classroom management would be given throughout the year.

If you feel called to the ministry of catechesis, please call Jo at the REO (630) 832-8962.

Please pray for our catechists and families in MQH RE.
