A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JASON

Over the past few years, I have noticed a shift in how Catholics approach funerals. The traditional approach of having an evening visitation followed by a funeral and immediate burial is becoming less common and it is becoming more common for the body to be cremated before the funeral ritual is celebrated, sometimes even delaying the ritual and burial.

Catholics profess a faith that originated in the resurrection of the body of Our Savior. We look forward to the resurrection on the last day, when our bodies will be glorified. It is based on this faith that we hold that, even after death, the bodies of the dead should be laid to rest with fitting honor and dignity.

In 1963, the instruction of the Church was changed to allow for the faithful who request cremation to be granted a Christian burial. Only more recently was permission granted to celebrate a funeral liturgy in the presence of cremated remains. It is important to note that the Church has never taught that cremation is an equal choice to burial of the body. Cremation is allowed because it is “not opposed to Christian religion.”

Concerned with the great increase in the use of cremation in recent years and a growing tendency for persons to choose not to be buried in a timely manner or even in a proper burial place, the Congregation of the Doctrine of the Faith has released a new document entitled To Rise with Christ in order to reaffirm the teaching of the Church on proper burial.

There are no new instructions or changes in practice in this document. The document reaffirms that:

1. The Church continues to prefer the practice of burying the bodies of the deceased, because this practice maintains the integrity of the body.
2. The choice to be cremated is permitted, but the choice may not be motivated by reasons contrary to Christian faith, such as a lack of respect for the body or denial of belief in the resurrection.
3. The Church will continue to show proper respect to cremated remains, providing a Mass in their presence and a Christian burial.
4. Cremated remains must be laid to rest in a sacred place, such as a cemetery or a chapel designated for that purpose.
5. Cremated remains may not be kept in a domestic residence.
6. Cremated remains may not be scattered in any way. They may not be divided and kept in different places. They may not be made into jewelry or other objects. The intention to do so is grounds to deny the celebration of a Christian funeral.

If you have further questions, I encourage you to read the document online or to contact me.

Fr. Jason

Also, cleaning supplies.

TABLE OF REMEMBRANCE

Thank you to all who brought in photos for our Table of Remembrance. This action helped to expand our view of family and remind us of the lives and gifts of these individuals. May they rest in the peace of God. With Thanksgiving approaching the table will need to be taken down by November 21. Please begin taking your photos home. Thank you.

MQH FAMILY ADVENT EVENT SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 20 IN BARRETT HALL

MQH Family Advent Event will take place on November 20 from 11:30am - 1:00pm. The event is free, but you must register the number of family members who will attend. FAITH FORMATION NEWS

MQH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The MQH RE Saint Parade was a holy time to learn about the Saints. At home, the parents and children learned about a Saint. In class the children presented what they learned about the Saint. Even our newest Saint, St. Teresa of Calcutta, made an appearance! Thanks to the parents who worked with their children to learn about the Saints and to create a costume for this fun activity.

There is no RE on November 23 due to the Thanksgiving holiday! Savor the gifts that bless your lives!

We had a few blustery days of scarecrow building. Thank you Less Otto and Herb Schwartz for securing our scarecrow creations so that they stay up all season. We had so much fun at our Halloween celebration. The event was planned well and executed flawlessly by a great group of parents. Later, additional parents and staff came to help so that the children could trick or treat in front of the Church.

We currently have openings in our classes. We have one T/Th opening in Preschool and there are two spots open in the KEP class. Please pass this information on to anyone who would like to join our awesome program this year. Registration for 2017-18 school year will begin in January.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT - NOVEMBER 19-20, 2016

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) works to be a voice of hope for those on the margins of society who experience the realities of living in poverty. CCHD supports programs to heal the wounds of crime and violence, advocate for more just policies, protect God's creation, and develop strong communities. Your donation to CCHD will help build a society where all have a voice and all know their inherent dignity. Funding from the collection offers new hope every year to those living in poverty throughout the United States. 25% of the collection's proceeds stay here in our diocese to fight poverty in our communities and defend the dignity of our neighbors. Help us defend human dignity and show Christ's charity to those in need. For more information about the collection for CCHD and the groups it funds, please visit www.usccb.org/cchd
