A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JASON

The season of Advent is a time of preparation. Most of us will spend considerable time in these days thinking about gifts. What is the perfect gift to buy for someone and what gifts do we hope someone will buy for us? Hours will be spent online and going from store to store shopping for the ultimate gift. The problem is that the perfect gift is not in any store. We do not even have to look for it, because it was already given, in the manger 2,000 years ago.

Advent is about preparation, but not for a gift about to be received. Only the last 7 days of Advent look forward specifically to the birth of Christ. Instead, Advent calls us to prepare for the coming of the Kingdom. We are reminded that our lives here are a journey on our way toward the second coming of Jesus and that even now we are called to take advantage of the grace that Jesus has given us.

Jesus was not born to be a one-time gift from God. Before He returned to the Father He left an enduring gift, that of the Holy Spirit to help us along our journey. John the Baptist calls us to repent, make straight the paths, and produce the good fruit that witnesses to our repentance. Repentance begins with turning away from sin, but the call to repent and seek conversion does not end with an act of contrition. The catechism teaches us that the kingdom of heaven belongs to the poor and lowly; in other words, to those who have accepted it with humble hearts (CCC 544). A set of great gifts has been given us by Jesus, who promised them, not because they are the perfect gifts, but because they help us to groan in perfection. In the first reading, Isaiah lists the gifts for us: wisdom, understanding, counsel, strength, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. We prepare ourselves for our entry into God's kingdom in whatever effort we make to open ourselves more to the gifts of the Spirit and to grow in how we use them.

Prepare the way of the Lord! Make straight the path for His Spirit to work in your heart, which will help straighten the path of your life. Let us use our time of preparation well, remembering that we rejoice in something much greater than a one-time gift. For our joy is grounded in the fact that God has already given and is giving us the greatest gift of all: Himself and the grace that only His Spirit can give. May God bless each of us as we endeavor to prepare the way of the Lord.

Fr. Jason

THE MARRIAGE MINISTRY PRESENTS

Mysterious Musical Mayhem!

Come join us on Saturday, March 4th, 2017, for a night of campy comedy and who dunnit decisions! Meet the McAdams family. They're creepy and their kooky, and, unfortunately, one of them is dead! The Elmhurst Green Man Troupe will song and dance us into finding out who did it and why. Will it make sense? Who knows, but it will be fun night figuring it out! Tickets are $50.00 each and include the show and a family style Italian dinner at Angelo's in Elmhurst. Cash bar. Tickets sold after every Mass though December 18th, then again after Masses on December 31 and January 1. Seating is limited so act early! They make great Christmas gifts and stocking stuffers!!

For more information please call:
Don and Ellen Walker at 630-279-4021.
Hope to see you there!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

The riches that our loving God offers us in prayer centered in the Eucharist are enormous. Prayer is the response of love to one who loves us (from In the Presence, by Ridley). It's early Advent, and you have an opportunity to spend some quiet time in His presence during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration on Monday, December 5th. This day of prayer extends from after morning Mass until 7:00pm, when we close the day with Benediction. Come for Benediction too! Sign-up is in the back of church. To "adopt an hour", or for any questions, please call Kay Diggins (630-530-7214) or Rose Wilkes (630-833-7238). Our sister parish, Visitation offers adoration 24/7, and is located at 799 S. York.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

MQH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Today is the second week of Advent. If we are keeping with the W⁴= watch, wait, wonder, welcome theme; this week is about waiting. We don't like to wait; we want it now. However, Advent calls us to wait patiently. Use the time waiting in line at school, at the store, and for appointments to ask God to bless the waiting time with pleasant conversation with others who are waiting, pausing to notice details that we would ordinarily miss, take a breather to breathe, and remember God is with you.

ADVENT FAMILY ACTIVITY

The photos taken at the Family Advent Event shows what a great time families had together making the Advent wreaths, decorating Advent calendars with stickers, good works, prayers, sending cards to soldiers recuperating in the hospital, and sharing snacks. It is a joy to share these activities and prayer opportunities with our wonderful families. Genet and Jo are already thinking about our spin on vacation bible camp this summer. Have a blessed Advent watching, waiting, wondering, and welcoming Jesus into your hearts!

MQH PRESCHOOL NEWS

THANKSGIVING FEAST

November ended with our Thanksgiving feast. We always have such a wonderful time sharing snack together. Each class made food to share at the feast. The preschoolers made pumpkin pudding and the KEP students made apple muffins. We had many hands to make our feast a fun event and we were thrilled to have Fr. Jason join us.
