A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JASON

This weekend, we celebrate the half way point on our Lenten journey toward Christ. The purple of penance is lightened up for a weekend, becoming a pinkish rose. The liturgy encourages us to lighten up a bit as well. The third Sunday of Advent is called Gaudete Sunday from the Latin opening prayer, "Gaudete in Domino semper!" which means, "Rejoice in the Lord always!"

Amid this time of preparation for one of the biggest feasts of the year, we are invited, for a least a minute, to stop and let the joy that is the reason for all our preparations sink in. The reason for our joy is given to us in the Jesus' words to John the Baptist in today's gospel: "'The blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them.'" These were the miracles that caused those who realized that Jesus is the Messiah to rejoice.

While our Christmas traditions of cards and gifts and parties and food bring us joy for a day, the inspiration of true joy comes when we participate in this saving and healing mission of Christ. Granted you may never see the dead raised or a leper cleansed, but I bet that you already know the joy of proclaiming the good news to someone, helping someone to see truth and goodness, or helping someone who is emotionally paralyzed to get up and walk once more.

I invite you to take a minute in between trips to the store to call to mind and rejoice where you have experienced such a gift of healing in your life. Then pray that God would help you to be aware of who in your life needs such help and that he would prepare your heart and give you the spiritual gifts to be that miracle for them.

Even small acts of charity can make a big difference. The world is thirsty for acts of selfless love, like a desert on a hot day. Anything you do to water the thirsty soil will be reason for rejoicing. As Isaiah says, "the parched land will exult, the steppe will rejoice and bloom."

We have reason to rejoice. We rejoice in the savior born among us, we rejoice in the miracles he worked and the salvation he made possible. We rejoice in the gifts of life and healing he has given us and rejoice that he calls and empowers us to continue that work of making miracles happen in others.

May God bless you with the ability to rejoice in His goodness today,

Fr. Jason

CHRIST RENEWS HIS PARISH (CHRP) RETREAT JANUARY 21-22, 2017

Do you find yourself too BUSY for God and your faith community? Come experience a Women's Spiritual Renewal Weekend Jan 21-22, 2017

With all the business and planning that comes with the holidays, give yourself a much need break – spiritually, physically, and mentally. Set 30 hours aside for yourself for bonding with other parishioners, music, laughter, prayer, and a change of pace.

Get reconnected with God. Get reconnected with yourself! Please join us for a Christ Renews His Parish (CRHP) Spiritual Renewal Weekend - Women's Weekend (Jan 21-22, 2017). For information contact Karen Sutkus at 630-279-3240 or ksutkus1@comcast.net or Renee Rodriguez (Lay Director) at 630-247-7623 or reneemrja@aol.com.

CRHP – Truth vs Fiction – Dispelling the Myths

I have to stay overnight on the weekend – FALSE. It is encouraged so you can get away from the outside world for 30 hours but it is definitely not mandatory. Many participants go home and come back early the next morning due to health issues or family. We will tell you what time to be back in the morning when you leave for the night.

If I do the weekend, I have to commit to team formation – FALSE. Many men and women have gone on the weekend and come away with a deeply spiritual experience that have made an impact on their lives but did not go on to team formation. TRUE that it is part of a deepening spiritual experience to go through team formation and give back for the next weekend but it is not mandatory. Many participants, in fact, want to come back to help out for the weekends in many ways without going through formation. Once you have made a CRHP weekend you are always welcome to be on a team in the future if you so desire. But you can make the weekend without any further commitment.

I'm not spiritual enough – FALSE. Nobody is spiritual enough. That's why they call it a journey and its best when you share that journey with others. We're not meant to walk alone.

I'm too spiritual for this weekend – then YOU need it the most!

It's too intense – not enough fun – FALSE. You get out of it what you put into it – there is a lot of fun, a lot of laughs, some down time and many wonderful, beautiful surprises that will show you how much God loves you.

UNDY SUNDAY THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS DONATIONS!

Dear Friends:

On behalf of Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet I would like to thank you for participating in Undy Sunday. This year 50 parishes, schools, and organizations collected an overwhelming amount of underwear, socks, undershirts, and diapers. Many of us take things like underwear for granted. Most of our clients don't have that luxury, but because of your generosity it will be one less thing that they have to worry about.

Thank you for your support of Catholic Charities and the work we do. May God continue to bless you and your family.

Sincerely,

Glenn Van Cura

COMMUNITY NEWS

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS December 10-11

In our faith lives, nearly all of us have been deeply touched by the example of thousands of now elderly women and men religious who, for so many, were a living sign of God's mercy. These women and men -Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests—were indeed the hands of Christ as they educated the young, cared for the sick, and ministered to the neediest among us. Through their service and witness, they modeled the compassionate love of Jesus and showed us that we, too, could be instruments of peace and mercy.

Today, many senior religious continue to be vessels of mercy, serving in a wide range of volunteer and prayer ministries. Others are frail and need assistance. Most older religious ministered for small stipends, leaving a substantial gap in retirement savings. With the ever-rising cost of health care and the increased number of those needing care, many religious communities struggle to provide for aging members.

Soon, our parishes will be conducting the appeal for the Retirement Fund for Religious, an annual collection that benefits nearly 33,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests. Your gift provides vital support for medications, nursing care, and more. It also helps religious communities implement long-term retirement strategies that ensure both quality eldercare and continued service to the People of God.
