A MESSAGE FROM FR. JASON

Emmanuel! God is with us! The fourth and final Sunday of Advent builds upon the Gaudete joy which we entered into last week. The Gospel anticipates and sets the stage for next week's celebration of Christmas. The message of an angel, the stuff of dreams, and a baby on the way are proclaimed to begin the story for us that will unfold over the days of Christmas.

These days before Christmas are some of the busiest days of the year for most of us. Finding a few minutes to let the mystery of Christmas into our hearts may seem like a dream. Fortunately, we are given a simple message to keep in our heart as we complete our preparations: God is with us! What a marvelous and blessed privilege we have. Not every religion proclaims or believes that God is near to them, let alone with them. And yet, we know that God is, in fact, with us, because He took on flesh, lived our life, and died our death so that we can be saved.

There is no better gift that has ever been given. (Well, maybe except that Christmas when I got my first bicycle... just kidding!). All of our traditions and celebrations, the joy and excitement that we know as Christmas are only a small foretaste of the joy that we will know when we really understand the lengths God went to in order to show us that He is not just a distant, unfeeling, rule-setting spirit in the sky. He is Emmanuel. God is with us.

It is God's closeness to us that fuels the joy of this season. As we anticipate this year's Christmas, let us make every effort to keep the joy of Emmanuel, God with us in our hearts and let it be the fuel that drives our sharing of Christmas cheer each time we wish someone a Merry Christmas. The more we open ourselves to the mystery, the more joyful our Christmas will become as we allow ourselves to be humbled by the greatest gift ever given.

All you need to do is to keep that hope filled prayer on your heart: Emmanuel! God is with me! My hope is that you will be blessed with knowing how close God is to your heart this Christmas. May God be with you as you prepare in hope for the joy of celebrating His birth,

Fr. Jason

CRHP – Truth vs Fiction – Dispelling the Myths

I have to stay overnight on the weekend – FALSE. It is encouraged so you can get away from the outside world for 30 hours but it is definitely not mandatory. Many participants go home and come back early the next morning due to health issues or family. We will tell you what time to be back in the morning when you leave for the night.

If I do the weekend, I have to commit to team formation – FALSE.

Many men and women have gone on the weekend and come away with a deeply spiritual experience that have made an impact on their lives but did not go on to team formation. TRUE that it is part of a deepening spiritual experience to go through team formation and give back for the next weekend but it is not mandatory. Many participants, in fact, want to come back to help out for the weekends in many ways without going through formation. Once you have made a CRHP weekend you are always welcome to be on a team in the future if you so desire. But you can make the weekend without any further commitment.

I'm not spiritual enough – FALSE. Nobody is spiritual enough. That's why they call it a journey and its best when you share that journey with others. We're not meant to walk alone.

I'm too spiritual for this weekend – then YOU need it the most!

It's too intense – not enough fun – FALSE. You get out of it what you put into it – there is a lot of fun, a lot of laughs, some down time and many wonderful, beautiful surprises that will show you how much God loves you.

Won't you join us? Women's weekend is January 21-22, 2017. It's never too early to register!!!

MASS INTENTIONS

The Mass is the Church's prayer at which all of our needs and hopes and thanksgivings are lifted to God. At the Eucharist, the community joins with one another in placing their lives and all that their lives contain before God for blessing. We are happy to receive requests for specific intentions at Mass. If you would like a Mass prayed for your intention, be it in memory of a loved one, a special need, a celebration or a particular occasion in life, please contact the parish office at (630) 279-5700. There is a $10 donation per Mass intention.

REPORTING INCIDENTS OF SEXUAL ABUSE

Sexual abuse is a sin and a crime. Victims of sexual abuse, in addition to contacting civil authorities, are asked to come forward in order to receive pastoral assistance. The Church has a responsibility to help victims of sexual abuse and to ensure that offenders are brought to justice.

Reports may be made to any pastor or to (815) 263-6467. You may also contact DCFS at 1-800-25-ABUSE.
