A NOTE FROM FATHER JASON

Congratulations to all of our young people who will be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit as they receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend. We are blessed to have 59 confirmandi this year. They have spent years being initiated into the faith, an initiation that began with their baptism and which is confirmed as the Abbot anoints them with the Chrism and seals them with the gift of the Spirit.

I encourage you to join me in praying for our confirmandi this week. May they be blessed with the gift of wisdom they long for and may it and the other gifts of the spirit guide them well as they begin to live more fully and enter more deeply into the life of the Spirit that began on the day of their baptism.

Four and a half weeks ago, we began our Lenten journeys with a reminder of death. Ashes were worn on foreheads and we acknowledged that “we are but ashes and shall return to dust.” We resolved to engage in practices of fasting and almsgiving and prayer. The tone of the liturgy turned solemn and we considered how to “rend our hearts, not our garments.”

For many, Lent ended there. That is unfortunate, because if you have been following the progression of themes every Sunday, you know that Lent quickly moves us into themes about how God is seeking to give us new life. Lent is often referred to as the Church’s spring time. There is sacrifice, but the clearing away of the clutter in our hearts makes room for the seeds of God’s life that lent brings to find fertile soil in which to enliven our love and guide us into resurrected life.

If you have given up on lent, now is a good time to come back to whatever effort the Lord has called you. If you are grinding through your sacrifice and counting down the days, hang in there! Whatever you are doing to make some room for God in your life, even if it seems to be failing or fruitless, is allowing grace to be poured into your heart.

Lent is indeed about opening your heart to the new life that God wants to give you. As we do that, we find ways we have allowed ourselves to fall into the death of sin. The good news is that God wants you to know life without the burden of your mistakes and the baggage of your weakness. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a powerful opportunity to offer to God our sorrow for our sins and hear him speak words of encouragement and reassurance that our sins are forgotten.

There are still many opportunities to receive the gift of reconciliation. I will be available at several different times between now and Easter. Neighboring parishes are offering additional times as well. As Lent draws near to its close, let us prepare to celebrate Jesus’ new life of resurrection by using the final days of Lent to open our hearts to the new life God is seeking to nurture in you.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful,

Fr. Jason

FIFTH WEEK OF LENT

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

Confirmation Reflection Essays

Our Confirmation Candidates learned that daily prayer, attending Mass regularly, on-going faith formation, and doing service is vital to the life of a Christian. 20 hours of service are required for Confirmation, yet it causes such a change in the young Candidates who learn that giving one's time and one's self to others in service is rewarding and life changing. Here are some Candidates' reflection essays on "mercy moments," or service opportunities.

I have never really volunteered that much and I knew that this was my opportunity to do some community service to help others. I have found through the experience that I really like to volunteer, so in the near future, I will probably volunteer on my own, rather than doing it for a class.

Doing service hours is a great way to involved with the community.

There are always people and organizations looking for help, and it is usually easy to find a way to help.

While I was doing my service hours I feel that God helped me be a person of service and that he also loved me. Overall, I feel that volunteering only betters yourself, and it helps others. It is a great way to support a community as well as meet new people and to help out others. I am glad I got the chance to volunteer, because I feel better about myself knowing that I helped others, and I look forward to many more opportunities.
D.S.

I have had a great time finishing my service hours. I have learned some valuable lessons and I can't wait to share them. My first task was helping at a homeless shelter called PADS. I had never worked at a food drive or worked at a homeless shelter, and it has greatly changed the way I see things. Before I went to the shelter, I had not seen how many others live, but once I saw them I realized how blessed I truly am. I learned to never take things for granted, because I have many talents and abilities that were given to me by God. Others are not always this blessed and need to always keep that in mind. Some kids were at PADS, that needed serious help. I never realized that some children were walking the streets at night with education, shelter, food, water, clothing, and loved ones. I realized I would never be able to be homeless, especially without my parents, and I really want to make a change in these kids' lives.

I also went to a friend's house who was hosting Operation Christmas. Some people set these up in their homes, and strangers can come in and put toys in a box for the homeless. They are later shipped to other towns, states, and countries. I went to his home and put together presents for needy children. I had never done anything like that, and it showed me how much of an impact you can have on a child's life. Just by giving them toys, you can make their day. I learned to always be grateful and thankful. Just by doing a simple deed of kindness, like paying for someone's meal can change their life. Always think of others before yourself and let's change the world together!
H.D.

For my service hours, I volunteered at the Food Pantry. This was a really great experience because I got to make sure that people who don't have enough money to buy food, still have food. This was a really eye opening experience because I never really thought of how many people go to food pantries in our area. This caused me to be very thankful for what I have and to never take that for granted, because some people have way less than I do. At the food pantry, I helped the clients who came in pick out their food and told them how many of each item they could get. In addition to that, I also helped restock the shelves after all the clients left for the day, to ensure the shelves were fully stocked for the customers the next day. This really brought me closer to God because I got to help people that were in need and that have way less than I do. All in all, volunteering at the food pantry was a good experience and also taught me how much joy smiling at people and giving back to the community.
J.T.

EASTER FOOD DRIVE

Our Easter Food Drive is this weekend, April 1st & April 2nd. We have adopted many families and are looking for canned soup, vegetables, fruit, cereal, baking items, drinks, prepared foods, pasta, spaghetti sauce, peanut butter, jelly, tissue, toilet paper, paper towels, laundry soap, personal soap and cleaning supplies. Jewel, Mariano's, Walmart and Target Gift Cards would also be appreciated so that the families can purchase meat for their Easter Dinner. In addition, we will be making up Easter Baskets for all the children in each family. We are also looking for goodies (candies, small toys, etc.) to be put in their baskets. This year we have 34 children.

The food sorting will take place on Monday, April 3rd at 7:00 p.m. Please consider a gift of your time.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION MONDAY, APRIL 3RD

Saint Kateri, recently canonized native American saint, would arise early before the sun and wait for the church doors to open. Her day began with Eucharist and prayer. She would spend long hours on her knees in the cold chapel adoring Jesus hidden in the Sacrament of Love.

Come and spend some time in prayer in our heated church during our next day of Eucharistic Adoration, Monday, April 3rd. The day begins with Mass at 8:30, and ends with Benediction at 7:00 p.m. You are invited to join us for Benediction as well. Remember, there is perpetual adoration in the Visitation adoration chapel located at 799 S. York Road. Questions? Please call Kay Diggins, 630-530-7214, or Rose Wilkes, 630-833-7238.

GRACE CAFÉ

Monday, April 10th

Would you like to help the hungry, lonely, or out of work people? - Grace Café

Mary Queen of Heaven is hosting Grace Café dinner on Monday night April 10th - 5:00 to 6:30 PM. We are looking for people to make meatloaf, meatballs, chicken, scalloped potatoes, etc. in advance of the evening, and desserts. All warm food could be dropped off Monday April 10 at 4:30 pm in Barrett Hall. Desserts and Fruit Salad could be dropped off after 8:30AM Mass on Monday April 10 or preferably between 3:30 and 5:00 PM on Monday April 10th in Barrett Hall. Let me know what you are bringing, so we don't have too much of one thing. Monetary donations for purchasing some food and supplies is welcome too. We also need people to set-up, serve food, work in the kitchen, and clean-up. If you can work an hour or two, we can sign you up for a shift. Students are welcome to help.

Thanks so much, Debbie Styka
